WLIV AM 920 & WLIV FM 104.7

Guest: Danielle Clemmons

Agency: Teen Challenge of Upper Cumberland

Teen Challenge of the Upper Cumberland, located in Livingston is an organization that helps women with dependency problems. Teen Challenge helps women get off life-controlling substances such as drugs and alcohol.

Even though Teen Challenge is located in Livingston, the facility serves a much broader segment of the Upper Cumberland community with both resident and non-resident programs.

During her interview on our Focus On Community public affairs feature, Clemmons outlined the programs Teen Challenge offers.

The interview also included information about the organizations fund-raising event.....a golf tournament to be held May 11.

Teen Challenge of the Upper Cumberland plays a vital roll in helping women in our our area with controlling substance abust problems to turn things around and return to normal daily lives.

WLIV AM & FM are glad to provide this programint to make the public more aware of Teen Challenge.
