Public Affairs Feature: Pioneer Days Festival Resuming
Guest: Gene Gantt, committee member

Decades ago, Livingston had an annual summer festival known as PIONEER DAYS. For years, the festival has not been held.

A group of local business and civic leaders met recently to discuss reviving the annual festival in downtown Livingston, on the court house square.

The committee will stage the festival in June of this year and it will be a two-day event, Friday and Saturday, June 19 and 20. The festival will revive the format followed in the 1980's to include music, contests, crafts, and other categories.

Mr. Gantt was interviewed for our FOCUS ON COMMUNITY public affairs feature and his interview airs January and February with a follow-up interview anticipated for early spring and again closer to festival dates.

This is part of our FOCUS ON COMMUNITY public affairs programming series that we broadcast daily at random times to reach the maximum number of listeners to both of our radio stations.

Placed in the public file January 14, 2020.
