PUBLIC AFFAIRS TOPIC: Town Events Calendar
GUEST: Shannon Cantrell, Chamber of Commerce

A number of events are still on the schedule for this summer and fall in downtown Livingston.

WLIV welcomed Chamber of Commerce Director of Tourism Shannon Cantrell to our public affairs program to talk about the events that are still being planned, even in this age of Covid-related-cancellations.

Currently underway is the summer-long cruise-in. On designated Saturdays, owners of classic automobiles come to town and display their cars around the court house square. The cruise-in is open to the public and any and all who wish to do so can walk around and look at the many cars on display.

A Fly-In/Cruise-In is planned for September 26 at the local airport. Airplanes and automobiles on display.

The annual Rolley Hole Championship marbles tournament is September 19 at Standing Stone State Park. This is an annual event attracting national attention.

Teen and Adult Challenge of the Upper Cumberland will have a chili cook-off on September 25. The event is staged at Central Park.

The annual story telling festival at Standing Stone Park is set for September 26.

This year's Rollercoaster Yard Sale dates are October 1-3.

On the Saturday just prior to Halloween, Livingston will host a movie night at Central Park and also have a pumpkin carving contest.

Shannon discussed these events informing the public that events are still planning to be held and reminded our listeners of the dates and locations for each.
