The Livingston and Overton County Chamber of Commerce is a vital part of our local community.....serving both the retail and the manufacturing segments.

WLIV interviewed Rita Reagan Underhill, local assistant director of the Chamber about what the chamber does and what some its upcoming projects will be.

Rita told about two upcoming community events which are overseen by the Chamber. She also outlined what the chamber does and who can be involved, encouraging membership among the community at large and stressing that membership is not limited to just the business community.

She also asked for volunteers to assist with projects aimed at making our community better
