

YES FM RADIO NETWORK (WYSM, WYSZ, WYSA)
 QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAM LISTING
 OCTOBER 1, 2023 - DECEMBER 31, 2023

The following is a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by the YES FM Radio Network, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the Fourth Quarter of 2023. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
American Red Cross	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	10/5/2023	7:00am	20 minutes	Our guest was Jim McIntyre, regional communications director for the American Red Cross. He discussed the importance of donating blood to keep up the constantly needed supplies at hospitals. He also discussed the need for volunteers for blood drives and for disaster relief. He discussed the services provided by the American Red Cross during natural disasters around the nation.
Finances	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	10/17/2023	8:30am	20 minutes	Our guest was Darren Munn from Munn Wealth Management. He discussed the economic state of the nation. He also discussed smart financial decisions to make during the holidays. He discussed the importance of teaching your children financial responsibility.

Protect Women Ohio	Positive Chats Podcast	10/18/2023	9:30am	20 minutes	Our guest was Amy Natoce, press secretary for Protect Women Ohio. She discussed that Protect Women Ohio is a coalition of concerned family, parents, health and medical experts and faith leaders in Ohio focused on ensuring that out-of-state organizations aren't able to rewrite our constitution. She discussed the wording of Issue 1 in Ohio that if passed, would give Ohio one of the most extreme abortion laws in the country. She discussed basic health and safety measures that protect women.
The Pregnancy Center	Positive Chats Podcast	10/25/2023	9:30am	20 minutes	Our guest was Savannah Martin, executive director of The Pregnancy Center, now part of Bella Vita. She discussed the joining of three different organizations with similar mission statements under one name, Bella Vita. She discussed the meaning of Bella Vita, which is "beautiful life". She shared about each organization; Soul Purpose, a college-based campus organization that focuses on promoting life and providing an authentic community for women; The Pregnancy Center that provides resources for families to choose life for their unborn children through testing, classes, and mentorship; and The Haven, which provides after abortion care to women and men who have experienced abortion through coaching and retreats.

Breast Cancer Awareness	Positive Chats Podcast	10/30/2023	9:30am	20 minutes	Our guest was Courtney Shihabuddin, Nurse Practitioner, educator and breast cancer survivor to discuss that October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. She discussed her own journey with breast cancer and being an advocate for others by founding The Pink Warrior organization. She discussed the importance of screening for breast cancer. She also discussed the treatment of breast cancer and the importance of support services for breast cancer patients.
International Missions	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	11/10/2023	8:30am	20 minutes	Our guest was Casey Kreher to discuss the missions of Teens for Christ Bangladesh. She discussed how Teens for Christ Kenya was started as the first international chapter of Teens for Christ and became the largest teen ministry in Kenya. She discussed the growth of international chapters of Teens for Christ in 14 countries, including Bangladesh. She discussed the differences in the chapters due to cultural differences in the countries.
Lucas County Public Library	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	11/13/2023	8:00am	20 minutes	Our guest was Kristi Kopanis, media relations and social media coordinator for the Lucas County Public Library. She discussed the next Library Takeover free public event that will feature six authors from HarperCollins Publishing. She discussed the genres of books from the authors that will be there, so that there is something for everyone. She also discussed other resources and events available for free at the public library.

Community Center	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	11/21/2023	8:00am	20 minutes	Our guest was Terry Robideau, acting executive director of the Friendly Center community center celebrating their 100th Anniversary. He shared how The Friendly Center started as a home for low income and immigrant women in 1908 and became The Friendly Center in 1923 focused on neighborhood needs, still paying attention to women and children. He discussed that the neighborhood where the center is located is a poor, but diverse community with a mix of large older homes, slum lord housing, subsidized housing. He discussed the problems of the area being a "food desert" with no grocery stores. He discussed the services provided to the community by The Friendly Center, including meals, emergency food pantry and hygiene closet, Boy Scouts, tutoring, music and sports programs, financial education, parenting and computer classes, and community events.
Holiday Food Drive	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	12/13/2023	8:30am	20 minutes	Our guest was James Caldwell from the Toledo Northwestern Ohio Food Bank. He discussed the great need in our community for food assistance. He discussed the importance of donating to the food bank year round, but especially for the holidays. He shared that their goal is to end hunger in our communities through an effective food collection and distribution system.

Prison Ministry	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	12/15/2023	8:30am	20 minutes	Our guest was Lucien Pryszyński, Manager for Ohio Prison Fellowship. He discussed that Prison Fellowship works to restore America's criminal justice system and those it affects. He discussed how they help men and women replace the cycle of brokenness that landed them in prison. He discussed how they work with wardens to bring change to their facilities, and how they help strengthen the bond between children and the incarcerated. He discussed the importance of their annual Angel Tree program that provides Christmas gifts on behalf of incarcerated parents. He also discussed year round support with summer and sports camps, and other activities for families.
-----------------	-------------------------------	------------	--------	------------	--