

KAMU – FM
Quarterly Issues & Programs Report

2023
2nd Quarter
April 2023 – June 2023

Brazos Matters, hosted by Jay Socol, is a KAMU original production featuring a variety of guests from the Bryan-College Station and Aggieland community. Discussions focus on healthcare, education, economic development, traffic management, quality of life and other topics important to residents and businesses.

4/1/2023	5:30 AM	4/2/2023	5:30 AM	30:00	This episode of Brazos Matters featured faculty and doctoral students from Texas A&M University who touched on cancer research, recruiting and retaining teachers, and strategies that benefit first-generation and low-income college students. These perspectives were recently shared during A&M's School of Education and Human Development's annual Voices of Impact speaker series in Downtown Bryan.
4/8/2023	5:30 AM	4/9/2023	5:30 AM	30:00	This episode of Brazos Matters featured faculty and doctoral students from Texas A&M University who touched on cancer research, recruiting and retaining teachers, and strategies that benefit first-generation and low-income college students. These perspectives were recently shared during A&M's School of Education and Human Development's annual Voices of Impact speaker series in Downtown Bryan.
4/15/2023	5:30 AM	4/16/2023	5:30 AM	30:00	Kelly Wellman, Director of Texas A&M's Office of Sustainability discusses what A&M has done and is continuing to do to improve its overall campus sustainability.
4/22/2023	5:30 AM	4/23/2023	5:30 AM	30:00	Kelly Wellman, Director of Texas A&M's Office of Sustainability discusses what A&M has done and is continuing to do to improve its overall campus sustainability.
4/29/2023	5:30 AM	4/30/2023	5:30 AM	30:00	Bea Saba, Library System Director for the Bryan/College Station Public Library System discusses changes to the libraries since her arrival in 2020 and a new partnership with the Harris County libraries.
5/6/2023	5:30 AM	5/7/2023	5:30 AM	30:00	Bea Saba, Library System Director for the Bryan/College Station Public Library System discusses changes to the libraries since her arrival in 2020 and a new partnership with the Harris County libraries.
5/13/2023	5:30 AM	5/14/2023	5:30 AM	30:00	Edward J. Spillane III, Presiding Municipal Judge, College Station Municipal Court discusses what he does as a municipal judge, what kind of cases his court hears, and initiatives he's spearheaded to help keep people out of jail.
5/20/2023	5:30 AM	5/21/2023	5:30 AM	30:00	Edward J. Spillane III, Presiding Municipal Judge, College Station Municipal Court discusses what he does as a municipal judge, what kind of cases his court hears, and initiatives he's spearheaded to help keep people out of jail.
5/28/2023	5:30 AM	5/31/2023	11:30 PM	30:00	Barbara Moore & Cheletia Johnson with The City of College Station discuss a video project that's documenting the history and contributions of legacy Black families who helped create and grow College Station. Their project is set for public release in time for Juneteenth.
6/4/2023	5:30 AM	6/7/2023	11:30 PM	30:00	Barbara Moore & Cheletia Johnson with The City of College Station discuss a video project that's documenting the history and contributions of legacy Black families who helped create and grow College Station. Their project is set for public release in time for Juneteenth.
6/11/2023	5:30 AM	6/14/2023	11:30 PM	30:00	Monica Martinez, Emergency Management Coordinator for Texas A&M University discusses what her job entails, what campus safety means and how A&M is prepared to mitigate and respond to anything and everything.
6/18/2023	5:30 AM	6/21/2023	11:30 PM	30:00	Monica Martinez, Emergency Management Coordinator for Texas A&M University discusses what her job entails, what campus safety means and how A&M is prepared to mitigate and respond to anything and everything.
6/25/2023	5:30 AM	6/28/2023	11:30 PM	30:00	Monica Martinez, Emergency Management Coordinator for Texas A&M University discusses what reasonable steps individuals and families can take — at home, at work, at school, in their vehicles — to be prepared for the unexpected.

