She thought the knock might be from a deliveryman, but little did she know, the man on the other side of the door came to kidnap her. Vincent Degidio asks to use the phone and says he needs a ride. When Ware says "no," Degidio flashes his gun and threatens to rape and kill her before forcing her to get in her car with him. After driving for hours, Ware is finally able to escape and runs to a local auto parts shop. Degidio eventually catches up, robbing the store and holding the employees hostage. Unwilling to give up, Ware physically fights off Degidio who then leads the police on a manhunt in the cold, dark night.

BOSTON: EMS 2016

Boston EMS" gives viewers the chance ride along with the proud men and women of Boston Emergency Medical Services, one of America's most seasoned team of first responders: the first step in the chain of trauma care.

Saturday, July 30, 2016

In the riveting season two premiere of "Boston EMS," paramedics are called to a crowded public park where a man has been stabbed. When they arrive, the victim's baggy clothes arouse fears that he could be a "human bomb," wired with explosives. Across town, another EMS crew waits anxiously with firemen while police try and persuade a "jumper" to come down from the roof of a building.

Saturday, August 6, 2016

Married couple Rob and Kim Stearns struggle to pull a drowning man from a frigid river. Both EMTs, not only do they share a home, but they also share an ambulance.

Also in this episode, colleagues Zackary Randall and Terry Mentele face a different challenge—calming a hysterical 6-year-old who fell out of bed and fractured his arm. And everybody's favorite boss, Lt. John Cotter, responds to a building set ablaze after a resident forgets to extinguish a scented candle.

Saturday, August 13, 2016

An urgent 911 call summons the EMS to the tough Dorchester neighborhood where two gunshot victims are lying severely wounded in the middle of a snowy street. Across town, paramedic Beth Rimas comforts a young mother whose 2-year old is having a febrile seizure. This situation hits close to home for Beth, as her own son suffers from the same condition.

Also in this episode, Deputy Supt. Ed Hassan responds to a suspicious package left outside a daycare. As the bomb squad assesses the threat, Hassan can't help but get emotional while talking about the events he witnessed when the Boston Marathon was bombed.

Saturday, August 20, 2016

Lt. Cotter races to a raging house fire that is being fueled by high winds and threatening to impact an entire city block.

Also in this episode, EMTs Roger Furtado and Ben Parham arrive at the scene of a car accident to treat an injured woman who is eight-months pregnant.

Across town, EMT Nick Camacho tries to convince a young woman who was viciously assaulted to make a report to the police, especially after her attackers recorded the violence and posted it on Facebook.

Saturday, August 27, 2016

A patient gains a new perspective on life after being shot in the thigh, telling paramedics and EMT's that he'll turn his life around to care for his nine-month-old child if he survives.

Across town, paramedic Randy Souza shows tough love to a sick patient refusing life-saving medical treatment, persuading him to accept care for the sake of his young children.

Paying close attention to anything that has the potential to be a mass causality incident, Deputy Supt. Ed Hassan races to a school where carbon monoxide alarms are ringing and students report feeling dizzy.
