Exhibit 19
WCWN(TV)
FCC Form 303-S

On December 23, 2006, approximately two weeks after Freedom Broadcasting of New York Licensee, L.L.C. ("Freedom") acquired WCWN(TV), an issue arose involving CW Network (the "CW") programming that was broadcast on WCWN. The CW has notified Freedom that a commercial for Post Cereal's Cocoa Pebbles, supplied to the station by the CW as part of the network feed and broadcast on the station during the program "Xiaolin Showdown," contained small and fleeting images of characters from the Xiaolin Showdown program. The CW alerted Freedom that this occurrence could be construed as an issue under the Commission's rules.¹ The CW has informed Freedom that the technology the CW uses to review commercials before insertion in children's programs proved inadequate in this case to identify the "miniscule" character images in the small portion of the screen in which they appeared. The CW also informed Freedom that it is reviewing its protocols and technology in an effort to avoid repetition of this situation.

Freedom takes seriously its obligations under the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the Commission's rules thereunder, even in the case of unforeseeable incidents, such as this one, that were outside of Freedom's control. Freedom believes that the fleeting appearance of the program characters in the commercial, in a circumstance where the images of the characters were small and confined to a small area of the screen, should not be considered a material violation of the Commission's host-selling policy.

¹ Presumably, the CW was referring to the Commission's policy regarding "host-selling." The Commission has defined host-selling as "the use of program talent to deliver commercials," including "endorsements or selling by animated cartoon characters as well as live program hosts." Children's Television Programming, 6 FCC Rod 2111, 2127 at n. 147 (1991). Because the Xiaolin Showdown program was not associated with the product (Cocoa Pebbles cereal) advertised by the commercial at issue, this situation does not involve a program length commercial, which is "a program associated with a product, in which commercials for that product are aired." Id. at 2118.

WCWN(TV)
FCC Form 303-S

On December 23, 2006, approximately two weeks after Freedom Broadcasting of New York Licensee, L.L.C. ("Freedom") acquired WCWN(TV), an issue arose involving CW Network (the "CW") programming that was broadcast on WCWN. The CW has notified Freedom that a commercial for Post Cereal's Cocoa Pebbles, supplied to the station by the CW as part of the network feed and broadcast on the station during the program "Xiaolin Showdown," contained small and fleeting images of characters from the Xiaolin Showdown program. The CW alerted Freedom that this occurrence could be construed as an issue under the Commission's rules.¹ The CW has informed Freedom that the technology the CW uses to review commercials before insertion in children's programs proved inadequate in this case to identify the "miniscule" character images in the small portion of the screen in which they appeared. The CW also informed Freedom that it is reviewing its protocols and technology in an effort to avoid repetition of this situation.

Freedom takes seriously its obligations under the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the Commission's rules thereunder, even in the case of unforeseeable incidents, such as this one, that were outside of Freedom's control. Freedom believes that the fleeting appearance of the program characters in the commercial, in a circumstance where the images of the characters were small and confined to a small area of the screen, should not be considered a material violation of the Commission's host-selling policy.

¹ Presumably, the CW was referring to the Commission's policy regarding "host-selling." The Commission has defined host-selling as "the use of program talent to deliver commercials," including "endorsements or selling by animated cartoon characters as well as live program hosts." Children's Television Programming, 6 FCC Red 2111, 2127 at n. 147 (1991). Because the Xiaolin Showdown program was not associated with the product (Cocoa Pebbles cereal) advertised by the commercial at issue, this situation does not involve a program length commercial, which is "a program associated with a product, in which commercials for that product are aired." Id. at 2118.

WRGB Annual EEO Public File Report

February 1, 2005 - January 31, 2006

The purpose of this EEO Public File Report is to comply with Section 73.2080 of the FCC's 2002 EEO Rule. This report is placed in the public inspection files and the WRGB website.

The information in this report covers the time period beginning February 1, 2005 to January 31, 2006 (the "Applicable Period"). The FCC's EEO Rule requires that this report contain the following information:

1. A list of all full-time vacancies filled by the station during the Applicable Period;
2. For each such vacancy, the recruitment source(s) utilized to fill the vacancy identified by name, address, contact person and telephone number;
3. The recruitment source that referred the hiree for each full-time vacancy during the Applicable Period;
4. Data reflecting the total number of persons interviewed for full-time vacancies and the total number of interviewees referred by each recruitment source utilized in connection with such vacancies; and
5. A list and brief description of the outreach initiatives undertaken.

Appendices 1, 2 and 3 which follow have been designed, in the aggregate, to provide the required information. For purposes of this report, a vacancy was deemed "filled" not when the offer was extended but when the hiree accepted the job offer. A person was deemed "interviewed" whether he or she was interviewed in person, over the telephone or by e-mail.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS

Broadcast station licensees are required to afford equal employment opportunity to all qualified persons and to refrain from discriminating in employment and related benefits on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, and sex. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.2080. Pursuant to these requirements, a license renewal applicant whose station employment unit employs five or more full-time station employees must file a report of its activities to ensure equal employment opportunity. If a station employment unit employs fewer than five full-time employees, no equal employment opportunity program information need be filed. If a station employment unit is filing a combined report, a copy of the report must be filed with each station's renewal application.

A copy of this report must be kept in the station's public file. These actions are required to obtain license renewal. Failure to meet these requirements may result in sanctions or license renewal being delayed or denied. These requirements are contained in 47 C.F.R. Section 73.2080 and are authorized by the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

DISCRIMINATION COMPLAINTS. Have any pending or resolved complaints been filed during Yes No this license term before any body having competent jurisdiction under federal, state, territorial or local law, alleging unlawful discrimination in the employment practices of the station(s)?

If so, provide a brief description of the complaint(s), including the persons involved, the date of the filing, the court or agency, the file number (if any), and the disposition or current status of the matter.

[Exhibit 1]

You do not have to complete the rest of this form. If your station employment unit employs five or more full-time employees, you must complete all of this form and follow all instructions.

- July 10th, one of WRGB's Evening Anchors participated in TV Summer Camp for high school students at Sage College. Viewed "A Day In The Life At WRGB" followed by Q & A.

- November 14th, station tour from Siena College to explore careers in broadcasting journalism, hosted by the Assignment Desk Manager.
- November 17th, station tour from The News School Of Radio and TV to gather information about careers in broadcasting, hosted by the Assignment Desk Manager.

Outreach Initiative #2

Establish an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.

Our 2006 internship programs attracted eight college and high school students. Six interned in the News Department, two in Sales. The colleges represented were SUNY Albany, Skidmore, Union, St. Rose and SUNY Plattsburgh. High Schools represented were Shenendehoa and Niskayuna. Interns receive school credit and are monitored by a teacher/coordinator.

Outreach Initiative #3

Provide training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination.

WRGB provides on-going training to management and supervisory personnel.

In May 2006, the News Manager, the recently promoted Assistant News Manager, the Assignment Desk Manager/AFTRA shop steward and the Chief Videographer viewed a videotape entitled "EEO Compliance for Supervisors & Managers." They also signed a statement acknowledging viewing the tape, receiving the station policies entitled "Anti-Harrassment/Non-Discrimination" and "WRGB Information Systems" and the responsibility as a supervisor/manager to comply with and enforce EEO rules and station policies.

In May 2006, the Business/HR Manager attended a "Workplace 2006" seminar hosted by the law firm Bond, Schoeneck & King, PLLC. The one day seminar presented an update on employment law issues.

On June 12, 2006 a recently promoted supervisory level employee in the Sales Department participated in a Q&A with the station's Business/HR Manager and viewed a videotape entitled "EEO Compliance for Supervisors & Managers." The newly promoted supervisor also acknowledged in writing his requirement to read, understand and comply with the station policies on Anti-Harassment/Non-Discrimination and WRGB Information Systems and to read the booklet "Stop Employee Lawsuits – 10 simple steps every manager must take."

On September 29, 2006 the Senior Producer in the Creative Services Department viewed the same EEO tape and signed a statement acknowledging responsibility for enforcing EEO rules and the station policies named above. The Senior Producer is not a supervisor but acts as "producer in-charge" during department head absences.

In September 2006, the station General Manager and General Sales Manager participated in a division wide conference which included "management diversity training." The purpose of the training was to give "participants the tools and vision to broaden their diversity knowledge to become more effective leaders while enhancing their outreach initiatives."

On January 7, 2007, the Sales Manager for the newly acquired WCWN station viewed the videotape entitled "EEO Compliance for Supervisors & Managers" and received required reading assignments including copies of the station's policies on Anti-Harrassment/Non-Discrimination and WRGB Information Systems and the booklet "Stop Employee Lawsuits – 10 simple steps every manager must take."

Outreach Initiative #4

Participation in at least four job fairs by station personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions.

WRGB's department managers participated in the following job fairs:

| | |
|--|------------------------|
| Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Job Fair General Mgr, Production Mgr, Creative Services Mgr | April 13, 2006 |
| NYS Associated Press Broadcasters Association Job Fair General Mgr, News Mgr | June 3, 2006 |
| On-line NYSBA Job Fair | Sept 25 to Oct 1, 2006 |

Job Fair resumes were routed to the Creative Services Mgr and then forwarded to the applicable department managers and Business Office/Human Resources Office via e-mail.

On April 26, 2006, division level managers participated in the NABEF-BEA-RTNDA career fair in Las Vegas on behalf of the station. The divisional CFO and the divisional directors of Interactive Projects and Human Resources participated.

Applications and resumes were accepted and potential candidates introduced themselves and engaged in discussion with the managers.

Outreach Initiative #5

Participate in at least four activities sponsored by community groups active in broadcast employment issues, including conventions, career days, workshops and similar activities.

- On February 7, 2006, WRGB's Assistant News Director, special assignment producer and evening anchor staffed a booth at a Consumer Action Day event and provided information about broadcast journalism's role in providing the public with consumer information and awareness. The New York State Consumer Protection Board hosted the event.

- On April 22, 2006, the WRGB weather team hosted a training seminar and open house at the station. One hundred and thirty weather spotters attended the all day training session.
- On May 13, 2006, WRGB's evening anchor presented a WRGB produced "Day In The Life" videotape at the Lally Girl Scout Center to adolescent girls from the Mohawk Pathways Council. The videotape demonstrated a typical day in the WRGB news room and was followed by a discussion of the skills necessary to succeed in broadcast journalism.

Exhibit 3
WRGB/WCWN Narrative Statement

During the two-year period ending January 31, 2007, Freedom Broadcasting of New York Licensee, LLC, licensee of television stations WRGB and WCWN*, has achieved broad and inclusive outreach throughout Schenectady and the surrounding areas. Specifically, Freedom New York ("Freedom NY") has:

1. Widely disseminated announcements for its full-time positions to candidates through over thirty community organizations, local newspapers, magazines, government and industry outlets, job fairs, internal postings and the station's web site. During this period, Freedom interviewed 201 applicants.
2. Completed six broad outreach initiatives, including
 - Participation by our news personnel in several dozen events sponsored by local elementary schools, middle schools, high school schools and colleges, such as career days, Q&A lectures, tours and job shadows;
 - Establishment and maintenance of an internship program for over a dozen students from local high schools and colleges;
 - Provision of on-going EEO training to management and supervisory personnel through formal workshops, required viewing of an EEO compliance training videotape and required EEO reading material;
 - Participation by department managers and the General Manager in seven job fairs;
 - Co-sponsoring a career fair with the New York State Broadcasters Association; and
 - Participation in events hosted by community groups such as the Berkshire Chamber Of Commerce, Girl Scout organizations and the Schenectady Haddassah, at which Freedom NY shared information about careers in broadcasting.

Freedom NY experienced no notable difficulties in its outreach efforts. For more information on these efforts, please see the stations' EEO Public File Report.

*Note: Freedom Broadcasting of New York, Inc. acquired WCWN on December 5, 2006.
