

WROU Community Focus Shows for
July-September 2015
Airs Sundays at 6:00a - 6:30a
All shows 21-27 minutes

07/05/15

Topic: Community Relations Commission “What’s Great in Dayton!”

Guest(s):

This program discussed the activities that are available in Dayton for families and presented by the Community Relations Commission. It also discussed the events that link communities together for Dayton and Montgomery County. Group Share and Community Link are the focus of 2015.

07/12/15

Topic: “Summer Education Opportunities”

Guests: Edwina Clark

The program discussed the programs being offered by Central State University That will engage parents and children. This is the extension of the Mini-University and adding the Upward Bound programming to keep teenagers aged 12-18 engaged this summer with core strategies being covered to keep learning through out the summer.

07/19/15

Topic: African America Vision Awareness/Wellness

Guests: Della Henderson, National Federation of The Blind

The program discussed the organization offering informational sessions for the Miami Valley Area for vision awareness and programs for people who are already blind but may need assistance in getting services for transportation, homemaking skills and adjustment to the loss of vision.

07/26/15

Topic: Brandon McKinney's Cuts for Kids and School Supplies give-a-way
Guest: Brandon McKinney, Founder of BJKIDS 91 FOUNDATION
Timothy McKinney, Foundation President

The program discussed the upcoming Brandon McKinney Cuts for Kids and School Supply distribution. This event is free and open to the public for school aged kids pre-k-10th grade. The give-a-way also uses the opportunity to connect families in need with the community resources.

08/02/15

Topic: Keep Our Kids Safe
Guests: Corey Stroud, STEAM Academy of Dayton

This program discussed the upcoming Student Identification for the upcoming school year and how to keep children safe. Additionally, it discussed the open enrollment of the STREAM Academy for grades K-8.

08/09/15

Topic: OFP/Human Race Theatre/ Victoria Association
Guests: Sierra Leone

Discussed the upcoming "Last Poet Standing" to promote the presentation of the poetic arts, artists and musical appreciation by local high School Students from the Dayton area at The Loft Theatre. The program also discussed the arts outreach for groups/individual and artists that want to engage in the Arts that are of high school age.

08/16/15

Topic: Watkins Academy Charter School, Open enrollment
Guests: Bobbie Watkin-Tyree

Bobbie Watkins –Tyree the schools superintendent discussed the upcoming open enrollment of the Watkins Academy targeted the Trotwood communities and the Riverside areas.

Watkins is attempting to build a community resource for alternative education for families.

08/23/15

Topic: Zik's Community Day
Guest: Nadam

This program discussed the Upcoming Community Day with Zik's Family Pharmacy offering Health Screenings, Doctors and organizations on site to offer free support groups for people with diabetes and high blood pressure. There will also individuals there to help the community get signed up for insurance. Free food and entertainment for the community.

08/30/15

Topic: Urban League Of Southwestern Ohio
Guests: Cato Mayberry

This program discussed the upcoming Urban League Gala And the programming and resources offered by The Urban League of Southwestern Ohio. Discussed the benefit of the GCUL to the residents of Dayton and surrounding areas.(Montgomery, Clarke and Green County)

09/06/15

Topic: HBCU Mixer
Guests: Satoria Brown

The program discussed the recruiting of college students and supportrs of the UNCF local Dayton Chapter. The Volunteer group will present a mixer to explain the programs requirements, group registration and organization leadership to encourage volunteer participation from the Dayton area.

09/13/15

Topic: DCDC Dayton Contemporary Dance Company
Guest: Principle Dancers/

The program discussed the upcoming DCDC Season and the recruiting process for the company. The program also discussed the partnership with The Stivers School for the creative and performing arts. DCDC is offering an upcoming Camp to encourage future dancers in the community. The CAMP will feature DCDC dancers and is free and open to the public.

09/20/15

Topic: Mercy Manor, Incorporated

Guests: Barbara Hudson-Banner, Executive Director

The program discussed the Mercy Manor Residents in need of need special assistance in transitioning into a independent living apartment. This program also included those that maybe addicted to drugs, just getting out of abusive situations and are in need of continuing their education to gain a job to care for their family.

09/27/15

Topic: Pink In The Rink

Guests: Camela Douglass, Eva Wells, Ericka Clark

The program discussed the upcoming “Pink In The Rink!” Produced by 92.1 WROU with high energy dance and fitness from 10:30am-12:30pm followed by Pink Skate 1pm-4pm at Orbit Fun Center in Huber Heights, OH.

The event will celebrate the lives of survivors who beat breast cancer and honor the ones who fought hard until the end. Net proceeds to benefit No More Pain, LLC, a local organization founded by breast cancer survivor, Erica Clark.