

WROU Community Focus Shows for
October-December 2015
Airs Sundays at 6:00a - 6:30a
All shows 21-27 minutes

10/04/15

Topic: Breast Cancer Awareness Month “Pink Ribbon Girls”

Guest(s): Shanna Barton Kim Essex.

This program discussed the fundraisers going on in the Dayton area for cancer patients and their families. It also gave details of the Pink Ribbon Girls and how they support cancer patients all year long.

10/11/15

Topic: Donato’s “Pink Ribbon Twist”

Guests: Doug Keller

The program discussed the program being offered by local Donato’s to support For cancer research here in the Dayton community and Miami Valley. The Specialty treat that is prepared annually is the Pink Ribbon Twist and sold in Donato’s stores through out the month of October and the proceed are donated to cancer research and support locally.

10/18/15

Topic: Align Home Health Care

Guests: Josh Isome

The program discussed the in home Health care in the Miami Valley Area. The representative presented programs and opportunities for families to compare at home health care for their loved ones. It also detailed new state regulations for in home health care.

10/25/15

Topic: Janell Ross and The Norma J. Ross Foundation

Guest: Janell Ross, Foundation President

The program discussed the upcoming Making Strides Against Breast Cancer and The foundations on going support of the community financially. It discussed the programs that are in place to recruit the area youth for ACT and SAT testing and pre-test tutoring.

11/01/15

Topic: The Black Heritage Through Rhythms

Guests: Dr. Curtis Pettus/ Dr. Candace Johnson

This program discussed the upcoming National Juried Art Exhibition launching Nov. 7th through March 26th 2016. Housed in the National Afro American Museum in Wilberforce the Exhibit is free and open to the public.

11/8/15

Topic: Maranatha Harvest

Guests: Pastor Paul

Discussed the upcoming “Maranatha Hope Harvest.” The free food and social services give-a-way that takes place on the church’s Dayton Campus. The program also discussed the workshops for groups/individual that want to get their high school diploma.

11/15/15

Topic: Norris Cole Foundation Hi Top Classic

Guests: Sherri Hamilton

The program discussed the upcoming “Hi Top Classic!” Produced by The Norris Cole Foundation with area high school students from 12:00pm until 8pm at Ponitz High School. The event will celebrate the local high school basketball teams and honor the students that have maintained excellent grade point averages while playing sports. Produced by NBA Player, Norris Cole.

11/22/15

Topic: Gospel Superfest

Guests: Dr. Bobby Cartwright

Former Trotwood resident, Dr. Robery Cartwright Jr. . Is now a community resource for alternative music education for young people by recruiting them right here in Dayton and giving them jobs on The National syndicated Gospel Superfest airing on TV ONE. Additionally, they will also be given scholarships to study music at a college a Historically Black College. and education for families.

11/29/15

Topic: Healthy Family Weight loss
Guest: Dr. Sam Gozava

This program discussed the Upcoming Healthy Families health fair. The fair will offer Wellness Screenings, Doctors on site, social organizations and support groups. There will also individuals there to help review insurance policies to see if preventative weightloss is covered.

12/6/15

Topic: Holiday Help Out with 92.1 WROU
Guest: Brandon McKinney, Founder of BJKIDS 91 FOUNDATION
Timothy McKinney, Foundation President

The program discussed the upcoming 92.1 WROU/Brandon McKinney/Agape For Kids Inc. Holiday Help Out. The Holiday Help Out will collect non-perishable food items and give-a-way Holiday food baskets to needy families. The Holiday Help Out is a food drive that will be connecting families in need with the community resources for the holidays.

12/13/15

Topic: Dream Keeps Gala
Guests: Anthony Faitbanks

The program discussed the Dream Keeper's Gala presented by The Central State University Foundation. It's purpose is recruiting of college students and raising scholarship money to send students to and keep them enrolled in HBCU'S.

12/20/15

Topic: Home For The Holidays a Hometown Christmas
Guest: Pastor Craig

The program discussed the upcoming "Home For The Holidays a Hometown Christmas" for families in the Xenia/Dayton/Clark and Montgomery county areas. This event will feed needy families; provide coats and resources for holiday gifts for families in need.

12/27/15

Topic: Veteran's Job Fair

Guests: Betty and Kelly

The program discussed the upcoming veteran's job fair at Wright Patterson Air Force Base at the Hope Hotel. This event will help veterans with special assistance in transitioning into civilian life. This program also included housing, education and other resources..