

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

June 2020

June 1, M	AMPERS, Minnesota Native News Special Edition... Today's in-depth conversation looks at how Tribal leaders are deciding when and how to re-open businesses
June 2, T	Making Contact, we listen to a radio adaptation of the film, Let the Fire Burn explores the controversial, 1985 clash between police in Philadelphia and MOVE
June 3, W	MUSIC
June 4, Th	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks with SCSU Dean of the School of Health and Human Services, Shonda Craft about the impact of the death of George Floyd upon the variety of different communities that have been affected. As this is certainly a time for reflection and conversation, those reflections and conversations can be difficult . . . even when the experience is desired and agreed upon. With the challenge of civil unrest, at times the conversation can even get sidetracked. However, the conversation must continue.
June 8, M	AMPERS, Minnesota Native News Special Edition... a Health Unit Coordinator in Monticello who is working on a team conducting COVID-19 testing, joins Leah for the conversation.
June 9, T	KAXE/KBXE Conversations on COVID-19 - Heidi Holtan spoke with Dan Huff – Assistant Commissioner of the MN Dept of Health.
June 10, W	PART ONE - With Good Reason, after the police killing of George Floyd, protests around the country have erupted, calling for an end to police brutality against Black Americans.
June 11.Th	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack gets in his car and drives around St. Cloud exploring an innovative solution to the canceled Art Crawls that would normally be taking place downtown during the warmer months had it not been for COVID. Organized by the artist known as The Silent Kah this past Saturday's Art Cruise was the first in a series where participating artists of all abilities and media simply set up their art in their yard, and then you come to it! The next Art Cruises will be held on Saturdays July 11 and August 15.
June 15, M	AMPERS, Minnesota Native News Special Edition... Today's show looks at how traditional health adapting and helping community members through distress, especially given our current realities of increased isolation and worry
June 16, T	KAXE/KBXE Conversations on COVID-19 - A statewide conversation with Minnesota's Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan.
June 17, W	Planetary Radio, we explore if we are learning how to keep men and women alive on a 3-year round trip to Mars?
June 18, Th	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Tuscaloosa The Movie with Erik Helgeson. Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack takes us to the movies with a very unlikely journey. KVSC alum Erik Helgeson was Executive Producer on the team that created the movie Tuscaloosa, an independent film shot entirely in Minnesota with a mostly

	Minnesotan cast and crew including a cameo by wrestler Baron von Raschke, The Claw. Tuscaloosa was set to premier in Beverly Hills on Friday, March 13, 2020, just as the seriousness of the COVID-19 pandemic was being realized, and suddenly Helgeson found himself in a situation where the entire country was shutting down around him as he journeyed back to Minnesota from California. Jeff and Erik talk about that journey as well as the movie itself, which is strangely poignant following the death of George Floyd, plus the future of the film industry in the age of COVID.
June 22, M	AMPERS, Minnesota Native News Special Edition... Lung disease, cancer, and now complications due to COVID19 are a few of the many dangers that smoking cigarettes or using commercial tobacco causes.
June 23, T	KAXE/KBXE Conversations on COVID-19 - A statewide conversation with Minnesota's Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan.
June 24, W	OutCasting Media, we continue to honor Pride Month with a look at the standing of the gay community within the Boy Scouts of America.
June 25, Th	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Promise Neighborhood Juneteenth... With the original celebration canceled due to COVID concerns, Promise Neighborhood decided to hold a socially distanced public forum following the recent unrest due to protests over the killing of George Floyd spilling over into the St. Cloud area
June 29, M	AMPERS, Minnesota Native News Special Edition... June is National Cancer Survivor Awareness Month, and in this show Host Leah Lemm explores how it's important to stay focused on health, even as the pandemic adds more risk and uncertainty.
June 30, T	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack takes a look at the life of an artist during the time of COVID-19. Heidi Jeub is an artist and teacher who relied upon a variety of freelance work to make a living and whose entire world was flipped upside down due to the pandemic. We start with an interview from the beginning of April when we were all just beginning to realize the gravity of the situation and then end out in Holdingford on the Wobegon Trial at a new artistic, community endeavor which is just about to open to the public called Art in Motion where Heidi has found a role as artistic consultant.