

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

October, 2018

October 1, M	With Good Reason: Year of the Woman: Toni Michelle Travis reflects on the year of the woman in politics and what it takes to get more women on the ballot.
October 2, T	With Good Reason: Just Friends: Can men and women be just friends? Cassandra Good argues that, in fact, American men and women have maintained close friendships since our country's founding.
October 3, W	Distillations -- KALW, The first half will start with Distillations talking about human bones and their problems and strengths. Later in the program we will dive inside the body of a whale and look at what animals have going on inside their bodies.
October 4, TH	Love + Radio: The List: this feature highlights breast cancer awareness month. When people ask Adam Warner what he does for a living, he tells them he's living out his wife's life goals.
October 5, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
October 8, M	Evan Michaelson: Stacia Goodman Interview: KVSC Assistant News Director Evan Michaelson interviews Stacia Goodman from Blue Cross.
October 9, T	Planetary Radio: Dawn of Space Age: The Dean of space policy, John Logsdon, returns with stories and a new book of original documents that shaped the US space program from the birth of NASA to SpaceX.
October 10, W	HumanKind: Diet-climate Part 1: What was the carbon footprint of your dinner last night? This special documentary project examines how the foods we eat affect the planet we inhabit. In a period of extreme weather associated with climate change, our food choices can make a difference.
October 11, TH	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Aar Manta: Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks with internationally renowned musician Aar Maanta and members of his band The Urban Nomads.
October 12, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
October 15, M	HumanKind: Diet-climate Part 2: What was the carbon footprint of your dinner last night? This special documentary project examines how the foods we eat affect the planet we inhabit. In a period of extreme weather associated with climate change, our food choices can make a difference.
October 16, T	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: The Revolutionists: Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks with director and SCSU faculty member Carol Cooley and a couple student actors and the stage manager about the upcoming production of Lauren Gunderson's The Revolutionists.
October 17, W	Spencer Schacht: Naming Webster Hall: On Monday St Cloud State University officially renamed Building 51 to Ruby Cora Webster Hall, after the first African American women to graduate from SCSU.

October 18, TH	Sea Change Radio: Creature Adventurer: Today we hear from, Chris Kratt, Along with his brother Martin Kratt. Chris writes, produces and stars in two very popular kids' programs on public television: Zoboomafoo and Wild Kratts.
October 19, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
October 22, M	With Good Reason: Front Porches of the Dead: Alison Bell studies burial practices and says that in the 1980s there was a shift in the way people express themselves in cemeteries.
October 23, T	With Good Reason: Near Death Experience: millions of Americans have had near death experiences. Bruce Greyson's research has led him to talk to people who have had near death experiences and to discover startling consistencies in the accounts.
October 24, W	Civic Commons: Stop Bullying: In this episode they talk about how Bullies are everywhere, and discuss ways to make them stop (nicely).
October 25, TH	Jo McMullen talks with professor of Film Studies Felip Costaglioli about the International Film Festival at St. Cloud State University.
October 26, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
October 29, M	KVSC: SCSU Forum: Last week the candidates running for Minnesota house district 14a and 14b came to the campus of St. Cloud state university to answer questions from student faculty and staff.
October 30, T	KVSC: SCSU Forum part 2: candidates running for Minnesota house district 14a and 14b answer more questions from student faculty and staff at SCSU.
October 31, W	Radio K: Halloween: We're setting up our Ouija boards, buying cloves of garlic and travelling to the most mysterious places in the Twin Cities for a thriller.