

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

April 2022

April 4, M	COUNTER STORIES: Overt racism is more and more prominent. From hotels banning Native Americans to the crew's own personal experiences in racist housing practices, from it taking more than a hundred years to pass an anti-lynching law to recent conflicts between communities of color.
April 5, T	Native Lights: On today's show, the native lights crew talks with Linsey McMurrin (Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe) who is the Director of Prevention Initiatives and Tribal Projects at FamilyWiseServices, where she leads programs aimed at supporting stronger, healthier, families and communities.
April 6, W	Planetary Radio: Leaders of the Neptune Odyssey study for the next planetary science and astrobiology decadal survey share their team's exciting approach for an ice giant-orbiting spacecraft.
April 7, Th	With Good Reason: Many of us are more closely tuned in to the environment around us than ever before. We're spending more time hanging outdoors, planting kitchen gardens, and taking up bird-watching
April 8, F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show LIVE
April 11, M	Counter Stories: There has been a lot of news about labor recently with the Unionizing of Amazon workers in New York and recent teachers' strikes in Minnesota. In this episode, the crew talks with Alanna Galloway and Daniel Perez about their work in the labor movement and how people of color have an important, albeit complicated history with labor unions.
April 12, T	Native Lights: The Native Lighst crew has the pleasure of talking with Jonathan Thunder (Red Lake Nation) a multi-disciplinary artist whose artistry is recognizable with its vivid yet dreamy images in large-scale murals, animated films, and installations.
April 13, W	Between the Lines Radio: This week's summary of under-reported news followed by these interviews: Preconditions Necessary to End Russia's War in Ukraine; U.S. Weapons Feed Yemen War and Humanitarian Crisis
April 14, Th	Planetary Radio: "Never panic early" is both Fred Haise's motto and the title of his new memoir. Join us for his story about the Moon mission that almost didn't make it home.
April 15, F	Sidelines Sporra Talk Show LIVE
April 18, M	Counter Stories: In this special episode, we bring you the conversation our producer, Hlee Lee, moderated at a recent event celebrating the 20th anniversary of ThreeSixty Journalism, a nonprofit providing journalism training to youth of color.
April 19, T	Native Lights: On today's show, we talk with Wayne L. Ducheneaux, II (Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe) who is the Executive Director of the Native

	Governance Center, an organization dedicated to strengthening Tribal sovereignty and Indigenous leadership, through its Native Nation Rebuilders program.
April 20, W	Nyah Adams: On today's feature, the St. Cloud State University's budget for the 2022-23 school year has been released. President Wacker explained to me what will happen with tuition increases, and new campus modifications.
April 21, Th	The Laura Flanders Show: In this special feature for Earth Day, we focus on just one group: Greenpeace, which is celebrating its 50th anniversary. The environmental group has been in the headlines again, confronting Russian oil tankers in many ports.
April 22, F	Sidelines Sports Talk show LIVE
April 25, M	Counter Stories: A question about the lack of Black players on Argentina's national futbol team between colleagues, sparks a conversation about blaqueamiento. Blaqueamiento is a racial whitening practice that occurred in some previously-colonized countries in the Americas and Caribbean.
April 26, T	Native Lights: Today, the first of two special editions of our show, honoring the life and legacy of NeeGawNwayWeeDun, The Thunder Before the Storm, who was known by his colonial name Clyde Bellecourt. Bellecourt passed away in his Minneapolis home on January 11 th , 2022.
April 27, W	The Laura Flanders Show: The fight over what can and can't be taught in schools is shaping up to be one of the most controversial issues in a pivotal mid-term election year. White voters are being mobilized to ban books, censor honest discussions of US history and current day racism, and organize against a fake spectre of "critical race theory" being taught in schools.
April 28, Th	Radio Curious: On today's feature, rescuing a Planet Under Stress and a Civilization in Trouble Our earth is in big trouble. The environment and our economy are in crisis. Essentially, we have created a bubble economy in which we are over-consuming the earth's natural resources.
April 29, F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show LIVE