

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

November, 2020

| | |
|------------|---|
| Nov 2, M | AMPERS, Minnesota Native News Special Edition: COVID 19 Community Conversations, Host Leah Lemm and Reporter Melissa Townsend reflect on how we're helping one another get through the pandemic |
| Nov 3, T | KAXE and KBXE, statewide conversation with Minnesota's Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan. It is a time for all of us to learn about the State of Minnesota's response to this COVID-19 pandemic |
| Nov 4, W | With Good Reason, we look at how Theodore Roosevelt's presidency marked the beginning of United States imperialism |
| Nov 5, Th | Mat Kaplan, Planetary Radio series, Joel Sercel believes we are entering an era in which asteroid mining and other commercial development of space are imminent |
| Nov 6, F | SIDELINES LIVE—Sports magazine talk show |
| Nov 9, M | KAXE and KBXE, statewide conversation the Minnesota Department of Health's Kris Ehresman. Heidi Holtan hosts a weekly statewide conversation with Minnesota State Officials |
| Nov 10, T | AMPERS, Native Lights: Where Indigenous Voices Shine. Today's conversation features Daniel Lemm (Lower Sioux Indian Community) who is the Chief Financial Officer at the Charles K. Blandin Foundation |
| Nov 11, W | With Good Reason, we take a look at the war in Vietnam touched many different lives, in many different ways. This special Veteran's Day episode of With Good Reason shares memories of several soldiers, a flight attendant, and more. |
| Nov 12, Th | Untold Stories of Central MN: With the COVID-19 pandemic and accompanying restrictions not going anywhere any time soon, local non-profit organizations are doing their best to adapt and evolve, and one particular organization has found a deeper connection with its mission as this process continues. Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talked with Executive Director Caryl Turnow and KVSC Alumna Chrissy Gaetke from the Central Minnesota Community Foundation about the new direction their work has taken. While the Foundation has had a good "response" to the virus, they now look to the "recovery" process with upcoming chances for community members to "Get on the Bus" for virtual tours of the organizations that the Community Foundation is helping. |
| Nov 13, F | SIDELINES LIVE-Sports magazine talk show |
| Nov 16, M | KAXE and KBXE, statewide conversation with Minnesota's Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan. It's your opportunity to ask questions about Minnesota's response and plans during this COVID-19 pandemic. |
| Nov 17, T | AMPERS, Native Lights: Where Indigenous Voices Shine series, we listen to a conversation that features Dalton Walker (Red Lake Anishinaabe) who is a National Correspondent, for Indian Country Today. |
| Nov 18, W | With Good Reason, in 1970, Philicia Jefferson was forced to integrate into all-white, E.C. Glass High School in Lynchburg, Virginia. 40 years later, she finally |

| | |
|------------|---|
| | attended her first class reunion. She says it was a profoundly healing experience. |
| Nov 19, Th | Mat Kaplan, Planetary Radio talks to a discoverer of a distant, lonely planet that wanders the galaxy, and then turn to plans to send a radically-simple sample collection system to the Moon and Mars' moon Phobos. |
| Nov 20, F | SIDELINES LIVE-sports magazine talk show |
| Nov 23, M | KAXE and KBXE, statewide conversation with Minnesota's Lt. Governor Peggy Flanagan on November 20th, 2020. It's your opportunity to ask questions about Minnesota's response and plans during this COVID-19 pandemic. |
| Nov 24, T | AMPERS, Native Lights" Where Indigenous Voices Shine series. Today's conversation is with Deanna Standing Cloud (Red Lake Anishinaabe) who is a mom, playwright, organizer, artist, community leader, pow-wow emcee, and advocate for Indigenous people. |
| Nov 25, W | Untold Stories of Central MN, When everything closed up due to COVID, many creative endeavors simply vanished, especially theater, but now, it appears that a new medium has emerged that is giving hope and a sense of creative ownership to the future. Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks with Linda McGowan and three Apollo High School theater students about their upcoming performance of The War of the Worlds which has been produced and rehearsed entirely on Google Meet and Zoom. |
| Nov 26, Th | Third Coast International Audio Festival, two young Black artists revisit memories to grapple with how they are seen by others, and how they see themselves. |
| Nov 27, F | SIDELINES LIVE-Sports magazine talk show |
| Nov 30, M | Native Lights –Ashley Fairbanks' Gift of Bold Vulnerability, an Anishinaabe artist, organizer, designer, and digital strategist, and the Creative Director for the 100% Campaign, which is working to build equitable clean energy to Minnesota's economy. She has risen in the political world, recently serving as Congresswoman Ilhan Omar's digital director. She shares about growing up in South Minneapolis with a large and loving Ojibwe family. And Ashley Fairbanks shares how she found her voice and harnessed her power, for politics and activism. |