

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

December, 2019

Dec. 2, M	Spokane Public Radio, we officially welcome in the Christmas season. Spokane Public Radio's Movies 101 film reviewers give their picks for their top holiday rentals
Dec. 3, T	Canadian Broadcasting Company, we take a look at the history of the song "Go Tell It On the Mountain." "Go Tell It on the Mountain" was born in the rich and indomitable oral culture of African slaves in the American south
Dec. 4, W	With Good Reason, Poet Tim Siebles, ethnomusicologist Ann Rasmussen, conductor John Guthmiller and vocalist Lisa Edwards-Burrs share some lesser known holiday songs
Dec. 5, Th	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota talks with actors and director Carol Cooley about the St. Cloud State theatre production of Radiant Vermin
Dec. 9, M	B-Side Radio, Tamara Keith and Erika Kelly visit Union Square in San Francisco and find it filled with holiday cheer
Dec. 10, T	Barry Vogel, we take a look at fast food. It's what many people eat in America, and increasingly so in other countries
Dec. 11, W	Robin Amer, two survivors of Japanese American internment describe how they went from being seen as model citizens to being seen as the enemy
Dec. 12, Th	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota talks with English professor at SCSU Michael Dando about his Honors English 101 Hip Hop class with three students. The conversation explores the literary and writing connection of hip hop
Dec. 16, M	Judah Bruce Leblang, the ties of family that bind and sometime unwind, and the humor and hope that come when one rises out of a period of depression and moves toward hope
Dec. 17, T	Beat Latino, part 1 Beat Latino spends an hour with nuestra música protesta from the decade to which we are saying "good-bye"
Dec. 18, W	Beat Latino, part 2 Beat Latino spends an hour with nuestra música protesta from the decade to which we are saying "good-bye"
Dec. 19, Th	Sarah Boothroyd, Guided by science and science fiction, All In Time traverses the timeless mystery of time itself
Dec. 23, M	Richard Paul, we follow three 12-year olds, a Muslim boy, an Orthodox Jewish boy and an evangelical Christian girl at home and at school
Dec. 24, T	NOON: Kindness of time, Rosie Boulton, an inspirational one hour play for Advent and Christmas about waiting for love to appear in midwinter 4PM: Tis the season, holiday music
Dec. 25, W	NOON: A Christmas Carol, Craig Wichman, By mining the dark veins of this classic, its timeless heart is reclaimed : A Shortcut to the North Pole, Peter Bochan, A Holiday Classic! Join Howdy, Mickey, John, Paul, George & Ringo on this "wild and crazy joyride" to Santa's workshop
Dec. 26, Th	Music for the holidays

Dec. 27, F	With Good Reason, home canning was always more than just necessity--a look back at history reveals the pride and creativity that went into stocking a pantry
Dec. 30, M	With Good Reason, Peter Vishton shares how the unconscious mind may be making decisions for us, too quick for our conscious mind to realize
Dec. 31, T	Georgia Public Broadcasting, Speakeasy with Denene is a podcast hosted by NYT bestselling author Denene Millner. On this show, we take one word and break down how that word applies to the African American experience. The theme for this episode is black