

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

May, 2020

May 4, M	Growing Old, Learn about harvesting wild plants from Native nutritionist Valerie Segrest of the Muckleshoot Tribe
May 5, T	OutLoud Radio at Youth Radio, This is mother's day with no mush but a lot of heart. 18-year-old Jordan Green and his mom guide us through an exploration of motherhood from various Queer perspectives, with a good dose of humor and some genuinely sweet moments.
May 6, W	Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, we have a story of a remarkable Indian woman who struggled with the bonds of tradition and finally broke them in old age, told by her granddaughter.
May 7, Th	With Good Reason, Vietnam War where the Fall of Saigon marked the bitter end of the American War in Vietnam and the loss of a homeland for hundreds of thousands of Vietnamese people
May 8, F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show
May 11, M	Imaginary Worlds by Erik Molinsky, Sam Kaden Lai takes the wheel in this episode to tell the story of how Avatar: The Last Airbender and its sequel series on Nickelodeon
May 12, T	Dmae Roberts, cultural identity seen through the life of Playwright Velina Hasu Houston as she travels back to Junction City, Kansas to move her mom back with her to California
May 13, W	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Independent Lifestyles is an organization that provides numerous programs and services to anyone with a disability within an 11 county area, and they are continuing to provide services and advocacy as best they can throughout our current struggles. In today's Untold Story of Central Minnesota, we get another look at how the COVID-19 outbreak is affecting lives within our community as Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks with Lori Olmscheid, Shawn Reagan, and Executive Director Cara Ruff of Independent Lifestyles Incorporated out of Sauk Rapids. You'll hear today about the ways that they're helping as well as plans to continue providing access to Camp Bliss ; plus, you can find out what you can do to make a difference through volunteering .
May 14, Th	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota Community Garden with Tracy Ore It's finally gardening time in Minnesota, and this year that "hobby" might take on a little more meaning, especially when it comes to community gardens. In today's Untold Story of Central Minnesota, Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks with SCSU Professor Tracy Ore about food security in the time of COVID-19 as well as the community garden at St. Cloud State, now in its 16th year. With precautions in place concerning the COVID virus, the garden will still be open for those who wish to participate with a tentative plan for activities this Saturday . . . if the rain holds off.

May 15, F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show
May 18, M	Growing Old Project, explore the systems of assimilation that aimed to eliminate Native culture in the United States, systems that began in Washington State
May 19, T	Nancy Stone, this story begins in 1961, when the national office of Sigma Chi compels a group of Emory University fraternity brothers to enforce the “whites only” policy and depledge a Japanese-American student
May 20, W	Imaginary Worlds by Erik Molinsky, many of us have imaginary friends when we’re young in the guise of a doll, stuffed animal or toy that give us a sense of comfort. Then we grow out of those characters – or at least we’re supposed to
May 21, Th	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Stearns History Museum with Carrie Essig...You could be a part of the story that goes down in history as the Stearns History Museum is asking for your videos, photos, and other items that point to what daily life is like in our community during the COVID-19 pandemic. In today’s Untold Story of Central Minnesota, Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks with museum Executive Director Cari Essig about the role the museum plays during this time of true living history and how their programming is evolving with nearly every passing day.
May 22, F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show
May 25, M	MUSIC-Federal holiday
May 26, T	Imaginary Worlds by Erik Molinsky, when things go wrong, it’s tempting to say something’s cursed as a joke. But when things go dreadfully wrong on horror movie sets, some fans have speculated that the films were literally cursed
May 27, W	Planetary Radio, Mat Kaplan and his guests discuss the possibility of life on Mars. The search for life on the Red Planet is at a critical stage. What will come next if we find it?
May 28, Th	Police Policies and Black Lives Matter from Radio Curious with host Barry Vogel: Police misconduct and accountability is the topic of this edition of Radio Curious. Out guest is Dr. Joseph Marshall, a member of the San Francisco Police Commission where he leads the Commissions efforts to reform policing policies at the San Francisco Police Department. In addition Dr. Marshall is the executive director of Alive & Free , a non-profit organization that teaches inner city youth violence prevention and offers higher education scholarships
May 29, F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show