

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

February, 2021

Feb 1, M	KAXE and KBXE, statewide conversation with Minnesota's Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan. It's your opportunity to ask questions about Minnesota's response and plans during this COVID-19 pandemic
Feb 2, T	AMPERS' Native Lights: Where Indigenous Voices Shine series, we talk with Ramona Marozas
Feb 3, W	With Good Reason, we hear from Dwayne Betts who was only a teenager when he was convicted of carjacking and sentenced to 9 years in prison
Feb 4, Th	Untold Story of Central Minnesota, we start off Black History Month with an innovative partnership that has come together around the Minnesota African American Heritage Museum and Gallery. Joining Arts & Culture Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack are representatives from three of the partner programs working with the Museum and Gallery, the Stearns History Museum, the Morrison County Historical Society, and the Sherburne History Center. Along with the Benton County Historical Society, Sourcewell, and Rethos (RE-tho-s), the Minnesota African American Heritage Museum and Gallery has their first online event on Saturday, February 6 th at 11:00AM with the co-founders of the museum. Programs include a discussion about the role of the arts and artists in social justice movements and then a talk about memorializing the art that occurred on the plywood boarding used all over Minnesota to protect businesses during the aftermath of the George Floyd murder.
Feb 5, F	Sidelines – Live Sports panel show
Feb 8, M	KAXE and KBXE, Friday's statewide conversation with Minnesota's Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan. It's your opportunity to ask questions about Minnesota's response
Feb 9, T	AMPERS' Native Lights: Where Indigenous Voices Shine series we continue our focus on how Indian Country in Minnesota is responding to the pandemic, now that COVID-19 vaccines are rolling out
Feb 10, W	Mat Kaplan's Planetary Radio series, we ask if the first object shown to have originated outside our solar system be a light sail built by an alien civilization?
Feb 11, Th	Untold Stories of Central MN: This visit includes a new partnership between the Archives and the Minnesota Historical Society for an upcoming Sinclair Lewis exhibit, SCSU's connection with Bugs Bunny, a deep dive into the faculty developed board game that became one of the big point questions during KVSC Trivia this year, and much more
Feb 12, F	Sidelines – Live Sports panel show
Feb 15, M	KAXE and KBXE, statewide conversation with Minnesota's state officials on COVID-19 brought to you by the AMPERS network of radio stations
Feb 16, T	AMPERS' Native Lights: Where Indigenous Voices Shine series, we look at how February 14th marks a day of honoring relatives lost in the ongoing epidemic of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Relatives

Feb 17, W	Phil Mariage, three generations discuss their perspectives on Black History. One of the early assistants and a life long activist in Race Relations, Annie Abrams from Little Rock brings her older generation perspective on Black History to this generational discussion
Feb 18, Th	With Good Reason, we listen in to one of their Black History Month specials. In 1898, a black man named John Henry James was lynched in Charlottesville, Virginia
Feb 19, F	Sidelines – Live Sports panel show
Feb 22, M	KAXE and KBXE, A statewide conversation with Minnesota’s Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan. It’s your opportunity to ask questions about Minnesota’s response and plans during this COVID-19 pandemic
Feb 23, T	AMPERS’ Native Lights: Where Indigenous Voices Shine series, we speak with Hope Flanagan (Seneca) a Native elder, a storyteller, teacher of plants and wild plant gathering
Feb 24, W	New Letters on the Air, Black History Month continues as we go to the archives to revisit Black Women Writers in History, a program that examines important African-American writers such as Phyllis Wheatley, Rita Dove, Margaret Walker and Gwendolyn Brooks
Feb 25, Th	Phil Mariage, we revisit Plessy vs. Fergusson, One of the early and most important Supreme Court decisions of the Civil Rights movement
Feb 26, F	Sidelines – Live Sports panel show