

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

April, 2020

April 1, W	Beat Latino PART ONE, a selection this week of music of encouragement, hope, light
April 2, Th	Beat Latino PART TWO, a selection this week of music of encouragement, hope, light
April 6, M	Planetary Radio, Civil engineer Peter Carrato believes we know how to use what's available on Mars to build the human structures that will be needed by the first explorers
April 7, T	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota, Bridge to Community. Jeff Carmack talks with St. Cloud State University School of Social Work professor Shelia Moriarty and Intern Islam Abuhadid about how the college is trying to help its students during these strange times. Beginning a few years ago, the School of Social Work began developing programming aimed towards helping SCSU students connect with community resources so that students who were experiencing unforeseen hardships might be able to complete their education. Today, however, that framework is providing a lifeline to college students who have now found themselves lost within the whirlwind of changes brought on by the COVID-19 virus and its effect upon our world.
April 8, W	Frontline Dispatch, correspondent Miles O'Brien takes us inside the state where coronavirus was first believed to hit U.S. soil
April 9, Th	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Jeff Carmack talks with St. Cloud's ISD742 about plans to maintain educating students after Governor Walz's executive order to keep schools closed for the rest of this school year. As Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack finds out from Executive Director of Teaching and Learning Lori Posch, school isn't "closed," it's just very, very different right now. Posch has advice for students, parents, and teachers as we move forward through the remainder of a COVID-19 influenced school calendar.
April 10, Fri	Sidelines—a locally produced radio sports talk show at SCSU
April 13, M	Planetary Radio, preparations at NASA are underway for creation of the next planetary science decadal survey
April 14, T	With Good Reason, on a trip to see his brother, Walt Whitman was so struck by the violence of the Civil War that he stayed to help heal wounded soldiers
April 15, W	Making Contact, we hear from Alixa and Naima, two poets who together make up Climbing PoeTree, an award winning performance duo
April 16, Th	IdeaSphere, Jonathan Hennessey, the author of "You Don't Understand the Second Amendment"
April 21, Fri	Sidelines—a locally produced radio sports talk show at SCSU
April 20, M	The Kitchen Sisters, Al Gore is back on today's episode! Last October the former Vice President, Nobel Prize-winner and Academy Award-winner for An Inconvenient Truth
April 21, T	Not documented.

April 22, W	Humankind, Our love affair with the car has dramatically shaped the American landscape. But along with personal mobility, we endure high gas prices
April 23, Th	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota, Distance Learning In today's Untold Story of Central Minnesota, Jeff Carmack visits the world of online distance learning as Arts & Cultural Producer Jeff Carmack talks with ISD742 science teacher Devon Bowker . Mr. Bowker has worked as a naturalist for the Department of Natural Resources and a park ranger for the US Army Corps of Engineers and has quite the following online with his website The Wild Life Blog .
April 27, M	With Good Reason, Matt Wallin, a visual effects artist for movies like Star Wars, Watchmen, and Jurassic Park, has built his career on melding art with science
April 28, T	Planetary Radio, host Mat Kaplan and his guests celebrate the 200 th anniversary of the Royal Astronomical Society and the life of the late astronomer Margaret Burbidge. The U.S. space agency's leader describes how NASA is responding to the pandemic crisis as it works to keep projects and missions on track. Royal Astronomical Society
April 29, W	Growing Old Project, we explore what the Northwest looked like pre-contact, with Native nutritionist and food sovereignty expert Valerie Segrest of the Muckleshoot Tribe
April 30, Th	Growing Old Project, we go to the heart of Seattle's Rainier Beach neighborhood, where an immigrant family and thousands of volunteers turned 20 acres into a Japanese garden unlike any other