

August 1, TH	KAXE-Grand Rapids, MN Northern Community Radio brings us First Time, Again celebrating the first kiss, first time living on your own, etc.
August 2, F	Planetary Radio brings us Light Sail 2, telling us all about the LightSail 2 Mission
August 5, M	Planetary Radio brings us Mars Helicopter project, with MiMi Aung sharing her plans for the mission
August 6, T	With Good Reason brings us Reviving Giant Oysters telling you all about their mission to save disappearing wildlife
August 7, W	With Good Reason brings us Reviving Giant Oysters telling you how to rebuild oyster reefs today.
August 8, TH	With Good Reason brings you Scared and Profane telling you how religion can affect our experience on almost every level
August 9, F	Part 2 With Good Reason brings you Scared and Profane telling you how religion can affect our experience on almost every level
August 12, M	Radio K, KUOM brings you Real College Podcast, on this episode they explore different kind of emotional baggage carried by music.
August 13, T	Civics 101 with Dr. Mary Kate Hattan, Dan Cassino of Farleigh Hospital and Susan Mangold of Northwestern University—what does it mean to be born an American Citizen?
August 14, W	N/A
August 15, TH	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota—St. Cloud Mayor Dave Kleis talks about racism, xenophobia, and the perception of the city on the national stage.
August 16, F	Joyride Media brings you Elvis: The Early Years, part one of the look inside the rise of Elvis Presley.
August 19, M	Radio K-KUOM Real College Radio explores the Pitchfork musical festival and an interview with the artist Lala Lala
August 20, T	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota—A behind the scenes look at St. Cloud's Common Roots Festival with Dawn Yilek and Zachary Dorholt. The story of how the festival developed and what to expect this weekend...and the future.
August 21, W	Planetary Radio brings us "Bill Nye at the Science Museum of Oklahoma.
August 22, TH	KVSC live at the Minnesota State Fair with interviews of fair attractions, history, events, musicians
August 23, F	Science Moab takes a look at how natural springs have been centers of biodiversity and cultural significance.
August 26, M	KFAI brings you part 1 of A Fiery Unrest: Why Plymouth Avenue Burned in 1967.
August 27, T	KFAI brings you part 2 of A Fiery Unrest: Why Plymouth Avenue Burned in 1967.
August 28, W	Every First Fridays discovers what is going on in the arts scene around Northern Minnesota.
August 29, TH	Science Moab speaks with author/journalist Jonathan Thompson about mining history in SW Colorado and its impacts on rivers
August 30, F	Sidelines—weekly live sports show covering major league sports.