

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

February 2022

Feb 1, T	Native Lights: On today's show, we talk with musician Beth Ann Dodds, a first-generation descendant of the White Earth Nation. From Ampers radio.
Feb 2, W	DEUTSCH WELLS- SCIENCE UNSCRIPTED: On today's feature, Hospitals, animals and miniature human organoids are showing us how omicron causes disease.
Feb 3, Th	With Good Reason: In 1979, members of the KKK shot and killed five labor and civil rights activists in Greensboro, North Carolina.
Feb 4, F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show Live
Feb 7, M	Counter Stories: When an Asian American journalist receives a call from a viewer complaining about a her being "very Asian," anchor Michelle Li didn't let that get her down. From Ampers radio
Feb 8, T	Native Lights: On today's feature from Native Lights we're talking with Syngen Kanassatega (Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe) who is a lawyer. From Ampers radio.
Feb 9, W	KAXE: On today's feature from KAXE Heidi Holton sits down with Lt. Governor Peggy Flanagan to discuss many topics including the state's budget, public safety and no-knock warrants.
Feb 10, Th	Untold Story of Central Minnesota, Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack sat down with Minneapolis musician Chris Koza for an in-studio chat and performance, the Untold Story's first since March of 2020 at the beginning of the pandemic. Koza is in town as part of a Legacy funded artist residency and has been teaching the art of songwriting and creativity to students from SCSU, Sartell High School, the Boys & Girls Clubs, and the Wirth Center for the Arts. The residency caps off with Chris Koza's performance at the Paramount Center for the Arts this Friday, February 11 at 7:30pm.
Feb 11, F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show Live
Feb 14, M	Counter Stories: On today's feature from counter stories. Well, here we are again. Minneapolis Police have killed another Black man in a no-knock raid on an apartment.
Feb 15, T	Native Lights: On today's feature from Native Lights, we talk with Bradley Harrington (Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe) who is an entrepreneur, owner of Wenji-bimaadizing Media
Feb 16, W	Out In The Bay- Queer Radio: On today's feature from out in the bay- Queer Radio For Black History Month, we bring you the story of Pauli Murray,
Feb 17, Th	Planetary Radio: Astrophysicists Sam Grunblatt and Johanna Vos are colleagues at the American Museum of Natural History in New York.
Feb 18, F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show Live

Feb 21, M	Counter Stories: On today's feature, Public school districts are having a hard time retaining teachers of color.
Feb 22, T	Native Lights: On today's show, we talk with musician Beth Ann Dodds, a first-generation descendant of the White Earth Nation.
Feb 23, W	KSRQ: Dr. Jerry Vanek will be giving a presentation on the 1925, fatal, devastating diphtheria epidemic that threatened Nome, Alaska
Feb 24, Th	Untold Story of Central Minnesota, the lights are starting to be turned on once again on the area's theatrical stages, but after two years of pandemic related closures, who is left to take a bow? Apparently, there are lots of folks interested! Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks today with Sean Donahue from Central Minnesota Theater about their innovative collaborative process that is bringing community theater back to central Minnesota. Currently, the CMNT has multiple projects in the works spanning the spectrum of taste from Jesus Christ Superstar all the way to Reefer Madness.
Feb 25, F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show Live
Feb 28, M	Freedom School: In this episode, the crew explores the history of Freedom Schools with May Esperanza Lososo of the Children's Defense Fund and the legislation and movements to limit what schools teach.