

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

August 2021

August, 2 M	AMPERS Counter Stories, it's the second installment with Minnesota Representative Ruth Richardson returns to highlight some of the initiatives she led
August 3, T	Native Lights: On today's show, we speak with fellow podcaster and Mille Lacs band member Donald Eubanks who recently retired from teaching social work at Metropolitan University, where he was an associate professor.
August 4, W	With Good Reason , we look back at the the 1962 Cuban Missile Crisis, tensions between the United States and Russia very nearly led to nuclear disaster.
August 5, Th	In today's Untold Story of Central Minnesota, we take true-crime back over 100 years to Darling, Minnesota, and the murder of Annie Kintop. Not only is it an unsolved crime, but it is also now an original play written by Taryn Verley and coming to the Charles A. Martin Auditorium in Little Falls this Thursday, August 5 th through Sunday, August 8 th . And now, please join Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack as he talks with folks from the Morrison County Historical Society and the Little Falls Summer Musical group about the creation of and the history behind Darling .
August 6, F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show LIVE
August, 9 M	AMPERS' Counter Stories , we're celebrating hometown hero Sunisa Lee, the first Hmong-American to compete at the Olympics.
August, 10 T	NATIVE LIGHTS: Todays feature explores the unstoppable power when two visionaries come together to bring a special project to life.
August 11, W	Bearing Witness (AMPERS): On this episode Anthony, and Georgia connect with filmmaker and storyteller D.A. Bullock about the confluence of stories and experiences that make up Minnesota context.
August, 12 Th	USCM- Jeff Carmack attends the Stearns History Museum's Breakfast Club presentation of Dr. Annette Atkins, professor emeritus from the College of St. Benedict St. John's University.
August, 13 F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show LIVE
August, 16 M	AMPERS Counter Stories: Todays feature explores Minnesota's third installment, and Rep. Carlos Mariani highlights some of the initiatives he led
August, 17 T	Native Lights: we have a fun conversation with Amber Buckanaga (Leech Lake Band) who is an artist, fashion designer, and mother.
August, 18 W	MN Native News COVID19 Community Conversation: On today's feature Leah and Antony discuss getting our young ones back to school and how to navigate all the knowns and unknowns of what's ahead
August, 19 Th	In today's Untold Story of Central Minnesota, we travel by bicycle to the east from St. Cloud to Portland, Maine. Quentin Super is an SCSU graduate who, along with a friend, biked 1,800 miles over seven weeks to the east coast, and then wrote a book about it called The Long Road East. Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks with the author about the trails and trials of that experience as Super is in town today for a book signing at the Barnes & Noble on Division beginning at 6 p.m.

August, 20 F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show LIVE
August, 23 M	AMPERS, Change through legislations pt. 4: On today's feature, Representative Jamie Becker-Finn joins the crew to discuss how she's disruption the cycle of trauma through her work.
August, 24 T	NATIVE LIGHTS: Today, a conversation with Ramona Kitto Stately (Santee Sioux Dakota Nation,) a beadwork artist, teacher, and leader in K-12 Indian Education in Minnesota
August, 25 W	AMPERS RACIAL RECKONING: Today's feature brings you an extended cut of our interview with local poet and executive director of TruArtSpeaks, Tish Jones
August 26, Th	In today's Untold Story of Central Minnesota, Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks with a variety of MN State Fair exhibitors as the fair kicks off today, Thursday, August 26. Normally, KVSC along with AMPERS, the Association of Minnesota Public and Educational Radio Stations, would be broadcasting live from the Fair, but due to concerns over COVID and the Delta Variant, we will not be at the Fair this year. However, the folks Jeff talks with today will be, and they are all excited to see what this very different year at the Fair brings!
August 27, F	Sidelines Sports Talk Show LIVE
August 30, M	NATIVE LIGHTS- AFGAN HISTORY: On today's feature, two Afghan organizers join the Counter Stories crew to give us a brief lesson on the history of Afghanistan and colonization.
August 31, T	NATIVE LIGHTS- CECE BENIMON: On today's feature, we talk to Cece Benimon who is the family liaison for Anishinaabe Academy, a Minneapolis school with a Native-centered curriculum.