

KVSC News Features

Monday through Thursday at 12:30 p.m.

March, 2020

M, March 2	Threshold, we take a look at the purpose of one of our national parks and if it is still one of its purposes. Yellowstone National Park
T, March 3	Beat Latino PART 1 first “new music” edition of the year, and 2020 is looking MARAVILLOSO already
W, March 4	Beat Latino PART 2 “new music” edition of the year, and 2020 is looking MARAVILLOSO already
Th, March 5	Sidedoor, with the arrival of the Coronavirus, we take a look back at a century old flu pandemic that killed more than 50 million people worldwide
F, March 6	SIDELINES live sports talk show
M, March 9	Radio K-KUOMReal College Podcast, they examine the topic of political campaigning, both on a national and local level
T, March 10	SideDoor, In 1960, investigators found dark bits of feather stuck inside a crashed airplane's engines. They needed someone to figure out what bird they belonged to
W, March 11	Planetary Radio, the search for worlds like our own is underway, but the challenges are enormous according to astronomers Debra Fischer and Joe Llama
Th, March 12	With Good Reason, student survivors of school shootings have made their voices heard, loud and clear. But the teacher's perspective of school shootings is less common
F, March 13	SIDELINES live sports talk show
M, March 16	AfterGlow, PART 1 The Great American Songbook is chockablock with antiquated notions of gender roles, but a few songs flip the script
T, March 17	AfterGlow, PART 2 The Great American Songbook is chockablock with antiquated notions of gender roles, but a few songs flip the script
W, March 18	Dept. of Health LIVE COVID-19 update with MN Governor Tim Walz
Th, March 19	Untold Stories of Central MN, Great Theatre into the future in relation to COVID-19
F, March 20	Planetary Radio, the founder of Astronomers Without Borders brings the organization’s leader in Nigeria to the Planetary Radio microphones
M, March23	With Good Reason, we talk a walk down the Appalachian Trail. From start to finish, the Appalachian Trail covers a whopping 2,181 miles
T, March 24	Almanac Public TV show—re-broadcast U of M infectious disease expert Mike Osterholm updates us on COVID-19 pandemic, state government has been moving swiftly in response to COVID-19, owner of the Hope Breakfast Bar talks about providing free food to kids and community, Minnesota Council on Foundations coordinating a disaster relief fund for those in need, TPT Producer Luke Heikkila documents the new normal of working at home and political science professors analyze the presidential race, DC response to the pandemic.

W, March 25	Governor Walz Press Conference on COVID-19 with Commissioners of Health, Finance, etc.
Th, March 26	JP Davidson, the funny and touching love story of Konstantine and Salina. They met in 1st grade, and parted ways in 8th grade
F, March 27	With Good Reason, it's a good time to reflect on the role of poetry in the face of tragedy. A poet laureate shares how poetry can heal in the wake of loss
M, March 30	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota, Central Minnesota Arts Board talks about how the arts are affected by COVID-19. Guest Heather Allen
T, March 31	With Good Reason, Frank Newsome is a former coal miner in Appalachia. He's also an Old Regular Baptist preacher and singer of lined-out hymnody who influenced Ralph Stanley and many others