

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

August 2020

Aug 3, M	AMPERS presents Minnesota Native News Special Edition: COVID-19 Community Conversations, host Leah Lemm explores how Indian Country in MN is responding and adapting to the current pandemic health crisis
Aug 4, T	Lantigua Williams and Co., Drug felony charges have more than doubled in Colorado as the state faces an opioid crisis. Jail admissions are on the rise in some counties
Aug 5, W	Mat Kaplan, an exclusive conversation with science lead Sarah Al Amiri and project director Omran Sharaf of the Emirates Mars Mission
Aug 6, Th	With Good Reason, From tracking tigers in Nepal to mountainside surgery on Montana’s wolverines, Deborah McCauley is on a mission to save disappearing wildlife around the world
Aug 7, Fri	Sideline Reporters Live—national sports conversation roundtable
Aug 10, M	AMPERS, COVID-19 Community Conversations with Leah Lemm
Aug 11, T	AMPERS, Minnesota Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan replay from Aug. 7 th
Aug 12, W	KUOM: Radio K, we explore the different kinds of emotional baggage carried by music. We'll also stop by the Summerfest and Rockchester music festivals before taking a look at the Franklin Learning Center
Aug 13, Th	Untold Story of Central Minnesota, Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks with a Minnesota musician who’s got a national presence, Ian Alexy. Ian makes up half of the group Hobo Nephews of Uncle Frank along with his brother Teague, and since the COVID-19 pandemic began, he’s had a little time on his hands. Luckily, over the past couple decades of performing, he’s collected quite a bit of video footage of his performances, and he’s now compiling that footage into a documentary called Making It Shine. Jeff and Ian talk about the documentary, which shares its name of his new album, as it relates to our current situation and the concerns that we all share.
Aug 14, Fri	Sideline Reporters Live—national sports conversation roundtable
Aug 17, M	AMPERS, COVID-19 Community Conversations with Leah Lemm
Aug 18, T	AMPERS, Minnesota Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan replay from Aug. 14 th
Aug 19, W	With Good Reason, universities will never be the same. Donna Henry sent all students, staff and faculty home with an iPad last fall. She says now those iPads are keeping the university operational.
Aug 20, Th	Fooly Boo, Can you drink your own urine? Run yourself to death? This week we explore the science and physiology of how extreme heat effects our bodies.
Aug 21, Fri	Sideline Reporters Live—national sports conversation roundtable

Aug 24, M	KUOM: RadioK, Real College Podcast is back with one last summer quarantine episode. This time we explore a family business, some local issues, and what it's like to be a drag queen.
Aug 25, T	Untold Story of Central Minnesota, Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks with Maureen Gaedy from the Homefront Resource Center. A volunteer driven organization, Homefront provides veterans with numerous avenues to both receive and provide help as they transition back into civilian life. They have also just announced six different recognition awards for individual veterans and organizations that have made a profound difference in the community.
Aug 26, W	AMPERS, COVID-19 Community Conversations with Leah Lemm
Aug 27, Th	Untold Stories of Central MN: Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack heads over to the Promise Neighborhood in St. Cloud once again for the “Jump In” resource fair that happened this past weekend. With a myriad of community organizations setting up shop for an afternoon of outreach, this socially distanced, family friendly event promoted opportunities for engagement, health, and fun.
Aug 31, M	Host Leah Lemm explores how Indian Country in MN is responding and adapting to the current pandemic health crisis. Lemm reflects on the themes of rising to the challenge of the pandemic, respecting the virus, and coping with many unknowns. Leah is joined by reporter Melissa Townsend and together they review and reflect on some of their wonderful conversations with community members. Some of the voices highlighted in this show include Vanessa Goodthunder (Lower Sioux Indian Community), Lt. Governor Peggy Flanagan (White Earth Nation), Anishinaabe M.C. Tall Paul (Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe), elder Sharon Day (Bois Forte Band of Chippewa), addiction counselor Sharyl Whitehawk (Lac Courte de Oreilles Ojibwe), Anishinaabe elder and healer Dennis Jones (Nigigoonsiminikaaning First Nation), actress Isabella Star Leblanc (Sisseton-Wahpeton Dakota), and Anishinaabe artist Robert DesJarlait (Red Lake Nation).