

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

September, 2019

Sept 2 M	Long Haul Productions brings us a story from their American Worker Series: The Port Chicago 50, the worst homefront disaster of WW2
Sept 3 T	WMPG, Remembering Mother Warren, we take a look into the labor history of the world's oldest paper mill
Sept 4 W	Long Haul Productions, Studs Terkel reads excerpts from "The Jungle"
Sept 5 Th	Helen Borten, she takes a look at the Mohawks of Akwesasne who eorked on the high steel crews of Manhattan skyscrapers
Sept 9 M	KUOM-Radio K, Real College Podcast investigates new tobacco laws in MN
Sept 10 T	Sea Change Radio, talks with an atmospheric scientist at Columbia University
Sept 11 W	With Good Reason, does radiation from cell phones harm us?
Sept 12 Th	REPEAT FROM Sept 10
Sept 16 M	With Good Reason, we jump back to August 1619 and look at Fort Monroe, an area where enslaved Africans first arrived in North America
Sept 17 T	Susan Stone, we take a deep look at suicide and what pushes people to the brink
Sept 18 W	With Good Reason, Why do people believe in weird things? Conspiracies, ghosts, anti-vax, and more
Sept 19 Th	Blues music, no feature today
Sept 23 M	Laura Flanders Show, we address the changing climate and talk about why major cities are key to the solution to pollution
Sept 24 T	WRIR, Part ONE, Edward Harden Peeples and how he became a civil rights activist
Sept 25 W	WRIR, Part TWO, Edward Harden Peeples and how he became a civil rights activist
Sept 26 Th	KAXE and KBXE, NCR checks in with Katie Marshall, the Executive Director of the MacRostie Art Center
Sept 30 M	Jake Warga tells the story of when his friend Brian told him he tried to kill himself, before he eventually succeeded