

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

July, 2018

July 2, M	Rumble Strip Vermont: Soccer Moms, For Most people Watching soccer is easy but as some of you may know being a soccer mom is way more than being a super fan. In today's feature from Erica Heilman is here to tell you being a soccer mom is harder than it looks.
July 3, T	With Good Reason, Cellular Cure for Diabetes I, Only a fraction of Americans with heart failure is lucky enough to receive heart transplant. John Kern is a cardiac surgeon who says innovative programs and new technologies are improving the survival rates for people with advances heart disease.
July 4, W	Public Radio Exchange, Barack Obama Addresses Patriotism, Barack Obama talks about patriotism in Independence, Missouri.
July 5, Th	USCM: Canoise
July 6, F	Orbital Path, Mars Goes Organic, Earlier this month, in the journal Science, NASA astrobiologist Dr. Jen Eigenbrode and her team published a stunning discovery. The Curiosity rover on Mars had found rocks that contain organic molecules — the building blocks of life.
July 9, M	With Good Reason, Cellular Cure for Diabetes II, Transplant surgeon Jose Oberholzer lies awake at night thinking about a cellular cure for diabetes. He founded the Chicago Diabetes Project to collaborate with the best minds in the country on a cure using cells rather than injections and surgery.
July 10, T	Have you ever wondered why people dress the way they do? Or why people decorate their front yard? In today's feature, from Minne Culture, find out how a uniform changed some Minnesotan's lives and learn of one man who is using his lawn to make a statement.
July 11, W	It's not just tin cans and newspapers. One man says that, from a technical standpoint, everything can be recycled – cigarette butts, yoga mats, dirty diapers, even radioactive waste. In part one of today's news feature from What Goes Around find out why we don't recycle everything, and how we could do more.
July 12, TH	Today's news feature is part two of "Recycling" by What Goes Around. Today we learn of a solar-powered device that pulls water from the air – even desert air. And another substance we can't live without that seems dirt cheap, but can't be replenished: soil. What happens when we pave over this living resource?

July 13,F	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota, St. Cloud Comic Con. Producer Jeff Carmack visits the Great River Regional Library for their first annual Comic Con.
July 16, M	Today's feature come from Job Talk, tiny houses helped reinvigorate high school students to learn carpentry, plumbing and design. Dave and Doug talk with Audrey Ethridge about a program in Texas that's a model for the country.
July 17, T	Radio Diaries, Mandela: an Audio History. This is a two part feature highlighting the life of political leader and anti-apartheid revolutionary Nelson Mandela.
July 18, W	Radio Diaries, Mandela: an Audio History. This is a two part feature highlighting the life of political leader and anti-apartheid revolutionary Nelson Mandela.
July 19, TH	Today's news feature comes from UN News. The Sahel region of Africa should not be considered a 'land of misery' but rather a 'land of opportunities,' according to the United Nations Special Adviser for the Sahel. For this special edition of our UN and Africa podcast, Daniel Dickinson reports from the Sahel and talks to the man with the daunting task of turning ideas, into action.
July 20, F	With Good Reason: Summer Reading
July 23, M	Planetary radio: something old something new part 1 use of a sexton on the ISS
July 24, T	Planetary radio: something old something new part 2 a new and very "cool" technology is on the ISS
July 25, W	Today's feature come from With Good Reason. What is it about nature that inspires so many authors. Sheikh Kamarah shares two poets who write on the wonder and devastation of nature.
July 26, TH	USCM: The Meire Grove Band, 100 plus years of music.
July 27, F	Accessibility, especially in today's urban environments, involves a lot more than installing ramps, in today's news feature from UN News the UN's Special Envoy on Disability and Accessibility talk about how to ensure that people with disabilities can enjoy the rights they are entitled to.
July 30, M	Today's feature comes from Re:Sound and with the hot temperatures we decided to turn on the audio air conditioning. In the first part of this two part feature stories that give you the chills

July 31, T	Today's feature comes from Re:Sound and with the hot temperatures we decided to turn on the audio air conditioning. In the second part of this two part feature stories that give you the chills