

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

January, 2021

Jan 1, F	Sidelines Live, Sports Debate Program
Jan 4, M	AMPERS Native Lights: Where Indigenous Voices Shine series, we are happy to revisit our conversation with Lakota doula Takayla Lightfield
Jan 5, T	With Good Reason, we look at some of the post popular hit TV shows. Grey's Anatomy, Scandal, and How to Get Away with Murder aren't just popular tv shows-- they're also groundbreaking
Jan 6, W	Radio K-KUOM, they take a look back at the craziness that was the year 2020. It's finally over, congratulations you made it!
Jan 7, Th	Eric Molinsky's Imaginary Worlds series, we ponder if fantasy worlds can teach us to recognize and combat encroaching fascism.
Jan 8, F	Sidelines Live, Sports Debate Program
Jan 11, M	KAXE and KBXE re-airing of this past Friday's statewide conversation with Minnesota's Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan.
Jan 12, T	AMPERS Native Lights: Where Indigenous Voice's Shine series, they'll kick off a special series of vaccine conversations, starting with Antony Stately
Jan 13, W	Eric Molinsky's Imaginary Worlds series, If you're the type of Star Wars fan who knows the original trilogy by heart but hasn't seen much else, Ahsoka Tano may be the most beloved Star Wars character you've never heard of
Jan 14, Th	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota, Jeff Carmack talks with Desiree Clark and Xakk Asphodel about this weekend's MLK Jr Community Celebration
Jan 15, F	Sidelines Live, Sports Debate Program
Jan 18, M	Loyola Productions Inc. On the anniversary of his birth, the life and work of the civil rights leader, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. His own voice and words make this a meaningful biography in sound.
Jan 19, T	KAXE and KBXE we are re-airing this past Friday's statewide conversation Ruth Lynfield, M.D - State Epidemiologist and Medical Director
Jan 20, W	AMPERS' Native Lights: Where Indigenous voices shine series, we revisit an earlier Native Lights episode which highlights Kwe Pack, a spectacular group of Native women supporting each other to run long-distance trail races
Jan 21, Th	Barry Vogel's Radio Curious series, we go back in time to January 20, 2009, the day Barack Obama became President of the United States.
Jan 22, F	Sidelines Live, Sports Debate Program
Jan 25, M	KAXE and KBXE re-airing of this past Friday's statewide onversation with Minnesota's Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan.
Jan 26, T	AMPERS Native Lights series, we have another Special Edition of Native Lights: Visiting Vaccines, where we get a pulse on Indian Country's response to COVID-19 vaccines

Jan 27, W	With Good Reason, we go back to the beginning of the pandemic. When theatres, clubs, and bars shuttered their doors back in March
Jan 28, Th	from Mat Kaplan's Planetary Radio, we get an updated look at The Perseverance, the newest rover headed to Mars
Jan 29, F	Sidelines Live, Sports Debate Program