

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

January, 2018

January 1, M	Planetary Radio: Emily Lakdawalla, Planetary Radio discusses the developments in planetary science with Emily Lakdawalla.
January 2, T	With Good Reason: Good to Great
January 3, W	With Good Reason: The Future of Music, Pulitzer Prize winner Caroline Shaw talks about her story, being declared "the future of music."
January 4, Th	Planetary Radio: Canada Rises... and so does the Sun. Planetary Radio interviews a member of Canada's Space Advisory Board.
January 5, F	Ideasphere: The Written World. Author Martin Puchner takes us throughout history on how written word was distributed and how it shaped us today.
January 8, M	With Good Reason: Getting To Know the Presidents Part 1. Bill Antholis and Barbara Perry compare President Trump with past presidents and look into the lives of other ones.
January 9, T	With Good Reason: Getting To Know the Presidents Part 2. Sue Purdue and Kathleen Williams take us through the National Archives project called Founders Online. We also learn about presidential handwriting.
January 10, W	Radio Curious: Harvesting Redwood Trees without a Chainsaw. Radio Curious interviews 96-year-old Jack Scott about growing up and cutting down redwoods before chainsaws were invented.
January 11, Th	DW ~ Deutsche Welle: Living Planet. DW studios look at the four elements, Earth, ice, water and air. They observe how they come together to form the ecosystems we live in
January 12, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
January 15, M	Public Radio Exchange: Happy Birthday Dr. King. A whole hour of music as a tribute to Martin Luther King.
January 16, T	Planetary Radio: Mysterious Tabby's Star. Astronomer and astrophysicist Tabettha Boyajian tells us about a strange star in the sky and what it means for science.
January 17, W	Will Heyer: Student Government Update at St. Cloud State University with student president Jack O'Neil-Como
January 18, Th	Untold Stories Of Central Minnesota: Martin Luther King Jr. Breakfast @ SCSU Halenbeck Hall with Isaiah. An interview about working to change the hearts and politics of central Minnesota.
January 19, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
January 22, M	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Part 1 of an Interview with lecturer Jud Nelson on the Holocaust Resistance group the White Rose
January 23, T	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Part 2 of an Interview with lecturer Jud Nelson on the Holocaust Resistance group the White Rose
January 24, W	Planetary Radio: It's a Hard Rain on Titan. An interview with Sean Faulk and Jonathan Mitchell to explain what the weather is like on Saturn's Moon Titan.

January 25, TH	With Good Reason: The New Minority. A discussion about how after the 2016 election white people are feeling like the minority.
January 26, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
January 29, M	Duetsche Welle: World in Progress, several reporters around the world tell stories including a woman helping drug addicts, refugees in France, and much more.
January 30, T	Bioneers: Welcome the Water, global climate disrupts two billion people worldwide and will be challenged by too much water, and nearly another two billion. Dutch water wizard Henk Ovink tells us more.
January 31, W	Will Heyer: Student Government Update at St. Cloud State University with student president Jack O'neil-Como

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

February, 2018

February 1, TH	KVSC Feature: The Wall, Jesse Groettum hears snap judgements from views of the St cloud state university college republican display. There is also an interview with college republican president Matt Eike.
February 2, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
February 5, M	Humankind: The Freed People part 1, A one-hour documentary about the emancipation of slaves and how they had little to no possessions.
February 6, T	Humankind: The Freed People part 2, the second half of a one-hour documentary about the emancipation of slaves and how they had little to no possessions.
February 7, W	Will Heyer: Student Government update with SCSU president Jack O’Neil-Como
February 8, TH	With Good Reason: Civil Rights Discussions. A program that talks about African American teacher and businesswoman Maggie Walker. Stephen Hanna talks about monuments in Virginia.
February 9, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
February 12, M	Seen on Radio: Invention of Race. A two part documentary about how race was invented and used in the United States.
February 13, T	Seen on Radio: Invention of Race. A two part documentary about how race was invented and used in the United States.
February 14, W	What’s the Word?: Famous Love Letters, A collection of love letters from people in history such as John and Abigail Adams.
February 15, TH	Playing on Air: A Man of His Time , a short play written by Kate T. Billingsley about two men who meet after a supreme court decision.
February 16, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
February 19, M	Ideasphere: The Impossible Presidency, author Jeremi Suri explains how he believes the American presidency has changed.
February 20, T	Radio Curious: Reading Dogs, Becky Bishop about how she has taught dogs to create a positive reading environment.
February 21, W	Will Heyer: Student Government update with SCSU president Jack O’Neil-Como
February 22, TH	Planetary Radio: Planetary Congress, Republican Randy Hultgren and Democrat Derek Kilmer celebrate formation of the new bipartisan caucus of US representatives and senators.
February 23, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
February 26, M	Living Well Show, a two part feature where author Daryl Davis tells us about some his experience about racism at home and abroad.
February 27, T	Living Well Show, a two part feature where author Daryl Davis tells us about some his experience about racism at home and abroad.
February 28, W	Art Works Podcast: Mat Johnson, author Mat Johnson takes a satirical look at race and identity

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

March, 2018

March 1, TH	Untold Stories Of Central Minnesota: St. Cloud Soup, Jeff Carmack sits down with grassroots organization St. Cloud Soup, who travels providing soup and funding.
March 2, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
March 5, M	KHSU: The Animal's Day Off, School cafeterias across the nation are sowing healthier futures for their students by serving more plant-based meals.
March 6, T	With Good Reason: Golden Age of Flattery, In their book "Sucking Up: A Brief Consideration of Sycophancy", Mark Parker and Deborah Parker say we lose sight on how destructive that behavior can be.
March 7, W	With Good Reason: Golden Age of Flattery, In their book "Sucking Up: A Brief Consideration of Sycophancy", Mark Parker and Deborah Parker say we lose sight on how destructive that behavior can be.
March 8, TH	The Steve Pomeranz Hour: How Silicon Valley's Bad Behavior Compares to the Debauchery of 1980's Wall Street, A discussion on how Silicon Valley draws parallels to Wall Street in the 80's.
March 9, F	The Steve Pomeranz Hour: How Silicon Valley's Bad Behavior Compares to the Debauchery of 1980's Wall Street, A discussion on how Silicon Valley draws parallels to Wall Street in the 80's.
March 12, M	Josh Nguyen: Community Policing. St. Cloud Police Department recently updated their community policing agreement and Nguyen sits down with Chief William Anderson to talk more about it.
March 13, T	With Good Reason: Public Universities. With state support shrinking and the dependence on private support increasing for public universities what does public funding look like for the future?
March 14, W	Duetsche Welle: Living Planet. We look at Japan's controversial efforts to send evacuees home and battles raging in France and the UK over where to store nuclear waste.
March 15, TH	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: The Promise Neighborhood. Jeff Carmack visits the Promise Neighborhood in St. Cloud to discover what it takes to get kids to do their homework.
March 16, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
March 19, M	Planetary Radio: Shoemaker Grants. Seven astronomers receive Shoemaker near earth object grants.
March 20, T	Lovin' America: Do Woodpecker's get Concussions? Lovin' America looks around San Francisco how locals find love for everyone.
March 21, W	Student Govt Update: Will Heyer discusses campus issues with SCSU Student President Jack O'Neil-Como.
March 22, TH	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Producer Jeff Carmack sits down with Karin Kruse, who has taught for 40 plus years as an elementary teacher.

March 23, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
March 26, M	Costco Coming: Josh Nyguyen sits down with several people to discuss local politics of a brand new Costco coming to St. Cloud.
March 27, T	With Good Reason: Prohibition and Moonshine. Julia Maggard breaks some common stereotypes of moonshiners and author Michale Lewis tells us about the coming of Souther Prohibition.
March 28, W	Planetary Radio: Stephen Hawking, planetary radio remembers physicist Stephen Hawking who recently died but contributed so much to space exploration.
March 29, TH	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Producer Jeff Carmack tells us about SCSU's open mic night and highlights some of the best acts.
March 30, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU