

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

April, 2018

April 2, M	With Good Reason: Future Farming, WGR talks about if all GMO's are bad and the future of farming in the United States.
April 3, T	KVSC: Presidential Update Live with News Director Jesse Groettum.
April 4, W	A Grain of Sand: Marching Without Thoughts and Prayers, Charles McGuigan tells us about a march at high noon on March 24 of people opposing the NRA and voicing their concerns.
April 5, TH	Planetary Radio: Space Station Crash. China's Tiangong-1 may have re-entered our planet's atmosphere, raining metal on an unpredictable location. The Aerospace Corporation's Bill Ailor tells us there's little to worry about, but bigger challenges are ahead in low Earth orbit.
April 6, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
April 9, M	With Good Reason: Real Love, Author Sharon Salzberg tells us love isn't just an emotion and it is an ability we can nurture and cultivate.
April 10, T	Shared Solutions Summit: Minnesota Legislators talk about their solutions to an opioid crisis hitting the state.
April 11, W	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Jeff Carmack talks with Ifrah Mansour about her play and what it's like to grow up in a refugee camp.
April 12, TH	Wyoming Public Radio: HumaNature , Aubrey Bertram talks about how to help abused animals.
April 13, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
April 16, M	Love in America: Grapes of Wrath of Khan, Foreplay chardonnay and "wining" about winter in the South Dakota vineyards; Love and laughter with Omaha's sage stylist Alesia.
April 17, T	Planetary Radio: Visiting Earth Like Planets, David Brin returns to Planetary Radio for a wide-ranging conversation about robots and humans in space, empathetic artificial intelligences, how we can survive the Singularity and much more.
April 18, W	WTIP – The Roadhouse: Flames of Discontent, Historian and author Gary Kaunonen has written a new, award-winning history of a 1916 miner's strike on the Iron Range, "Flames of Discontent." WTIP's Jay Andersen spoke with Gary about the strike and what it meant for the workers and the communities involved.
April 19, TH	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota: Karim Mohamed, Arts and Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack talks with SCSU student Karim Mohamed, who has overcome the challenges of bullying and poverty to become an inspiration for tohers struggling with life.
April 20, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
April 23, M	KSRQ: Karlstad Minnesota Meets Karlstad Sweden, Karlstad, Minnesota is 4,004 miles from Karlstad, Sweden. But a poet with roots in northwest Minnesota brought the two communities together with a presentation at the northwest Regional Library branch in Karlstad, Minnesota.

April 24, T	WTIP: Superior Siren, Laura Sellner of Duluth fronts the band Superior Siren, a group of four women known for their "eerie folk" sound that reflects the haunting and icy feel of the Great Lake of their namesake.
April 25, W	KQAL, Frozen River Film Fest 2018, Logan Erickson takes us to the Frozen River Film Festival to speak with filmmaker Cecilia Cornejo on her new documentary, Making Noise: The Story of a Skatepark.
April 26, TH	Ideasphere: Learn Better, Bestselling author and education researcher Ulrich Boser believes we could always improve on learning ... especially considering today's technological changes.
April 27, F	SIDELINES – Live sports talk show featuring students at SCSU
April 30, M	KVSC's Josh Nguyen: The Census, the Census comes every 10 years, but what does the census actually do and how many people know what it does?