

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

November 2021

M, Nov 1	COUNTER STORIES: On today's feature A family-owned Minnesota business publicly apologized for appropriating Indigenous artwork. Produced by Ampers, by people of color, for people of color and everyone else.
T, Nov 2	Native Lights : On today's show, we talk with Toya Stewart Downey (Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe) who is the Executive Director of Strategic Communication, Equity and Inclusion for Robbinsdale Area Schools. Produced by Ampers.
W, Nov 3	GOT SCIENCE: With elections taking place all over the country yesterday Voting rights expert Dr. Michael Latner details the steps we need to take.
Th, Nov 4	Good News: Burnout from work is something a lot of us are thinking about right now. We talk to a group of librarians who got together to combat stress.
F, Nov 5	Sidelines LIVE Sports talk show
M, Nov 8	COUNTER STORIES: Minnesota recently committed to $1.3 million over two years for Indigenous education. Students will be able to learn a more accurate history of the Indigenous peoples in Minnesota schools. Produced by Ampers, by people of color, for people of color and everyone else.
T, Nov 9	NATIVE LIGHTS: On today's show, we talk with Jaida Grey Eagle (Oglala Lakota) a photojournalist, film producer, beadwork artist, and writer. Produced by Ampers.
W, Nov 10	Booster Shots, Vaccination Rates, and Looking Ahead to Vaccines for Young Ones Co-Hosts Leah Lemm (Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe) and Antony Stately Ph.D. (Ojibwe/Oneida) explore how Indian Country in MN is responding and adapting to the current pandemic health crisis.
Th, Nov 11	Daily Local News: Today is Veterans day and to honor that, we welcome WFHB's veterans day feature broadcast about veterans in Indiana and their stories/services.
F, Nov 12	Sidelines LIVE Sports Talk show
M, Nov 15	Counter stories: Minnesota is known for it's nice-ness, but a recent survey showed that's not true. The number of people who report experiencing discrimination in Minnesota is the areas of policing, employment and housing. Produced by Ampers, by people of color, for people of color and everyone else.
T, Nov 16	Native Lights: On today's show, we talk with Reuben Kitto Stately (Red Lake Nation and Santee Sioux Nation) who is a fourth-year student at Augsburg University and Dakota language learner. Produced by Ampers.
W, Nov 17	Bearing Witness: After a tumultuous week, we're joined by one of the only Black male doulas in the state, William Moore. Produced by Ampers.
Th, Nov 18	WOW: Women On Wednesday is an event that has been held on the campus of St. Cloud State University for the last 30 years. The segment features knowing your rights if you were to be confronted or arrested by police.
F, Nov 19	Sidelines LIVE Sports Talk show

M, Nov 22	Counter Stories: On today's feature from Counter Stories. This is the latest Grab Bag show, we cover topics from school walkouts, representation both in front and behind the camera on TV to current trials of so-called vigilantes. Produced by Ampers, by people of color, for people of color and everyone else.
T, Nov 23	Native News: On today's show, we talk with Adrienne Benjamin (Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe) who is a community activist and multi-faceted artist, including being a master jingle dress maker. Produced by Ampers.
W, Nov 24	No feature, holiday music for Thanksgiving.
Th, Nov 25	Milk Street Radio: This week, we're getting ready for Thanksgiving with some help from our friends. Cheryl Day joins us to answer your holiday baking questions, Sam Fore cooks Thanksgiving with a Sri Lankan take.
F, Nov 26	Sidelines Live Sports Talk Show
M, Nov 29	Counter Stories: Minnesota recently committed to $1.3 million over two years for Indigenous education. Students will be able to learn a more accurate history of the Indigenous peoples in Minnesota schools. Produced by Ampers, by people of color, for people of color and everyone else.
T, Nov 30	Native Lights: Today we're talking with Samsoshe Sampson (Mvskoke Creek/Seneca) who is an interdisciplinary artist, powwow and hoop dancer, performer, musician, as well as a father and partner. Produced by Ampers