

KVSC News Features

Monday through Friday at 12:30 p.m.

December, 2020

Dec 1, T	Mat Kaplan's Planetary Radio series, Astronomer Jane Greaves returns with an update on the phosphine gas floating above Venus
Dec 2, W	With Good Reason, we often think of cemeteries as separate worlds unto themselves. But those buried at Confederate graveyards were surely connected to those at the African burial grounds
Dec 3, Th	Paul Ingles, 41 years since the death of one of the most famous musicians of all time. December 8, 1980, musician John Lennon was shot and killed outside of his apartment building in New York City by a deluded fan
Dec 4, F	Sidelines LIVE
Dec 7, M	AMPERS and KAXE KBXE, statewide conversation with Minnesota's Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan
Dec 8, T	AMPERS, Native Lights: Where Indigenous Voices Shine Series. Today's conversation is with Dr. Anton Treuer (White Earth/Leech Lake Ojibwe), a prolific author, international speaker, historian, and professor of Ojibwe at Bemidji State University.
Dec 9, W	With Good Reason, What can we learn about climate change from literary figures like Walt Whitman or Cormac McCarthy
Dec 10, Th	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota, Arts & Cultural Heritage Producer Jeff Carmack heads into downtown St. Cloud to visit a business that has evolved during the COVID pandemic to continue serving a need in our community that is becoming increasingly apparent. The Studio: A Creative Collaborative Space, formerly known as Studio Jeff, sits on the corner of St. Germain Street and 7 th Avenue and provides a safe, socially distanced space for creatives to practice and produce their craft. New owner Lucille Guinta-Bates and Jeff discuss the importance of having a creative practice during this upcoming winter and talk a little bit about The Studio's upcoming virtual open house.
Dec 11, F	Sidelines LIVE
Dec 14, M	AMPERS and KAXE KBXE, statewide conversation with Minnesota's Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan
Dec 15, T	AMPERS, Native Lights: Where Indigenous voices Shine series, we have a fun conversation with Robert Pilot (Ho-Chunk Nation), who is a teacher, water protector, and Host of Native Roots Radio
Dec 16, W	With Good Reason, we ask what do the mythological Chimera and motherhood have in common? In her work, poet Julie Phillips Brown dissects this and other biological queries, cleverly unveiling what makes us distinctly and undoubtedly human
Dec 17, Th	Mat Kaplan's Planetary Radio series. Guest Mike Hecht is in charge of the MOXIE experiment on NASA's Perseverance rover, arriving on Mars in February
Dec 18, F	Sidelines LIVE
Dec 21, M	AMPERS and KAXE KBXE, weekly statewide conversation with Minnesota State Officials.

Dec 22, T	AMPERS, AMPERS' Native Lights: Where Indigenous Voices Shine series. A conversation with Ramona Kitto Stately (Santee Sioux Dakota Nation,) a beadwork artist, teacher, and leader in K-12 Indian Education in Minnesota
Dec 23, W	Untold Stories of Central Minnesota, Local businessman Tanner Neubauer has partnered with Pathways4Youth to create "Tanner Claus," a program which is gathering personalized gifts for a variety of youth that are experiencing homelessness and currently struggling to break that cycle by working with Pathways4Youth
Dec 24, Th	With Food Reason, Francis O'Neill rose through the ranks to become a prominent Chicago police chief at the turn of the 20th century
Dec 25, F	Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, Back in 2009, Kent Hoffman produced a radio interview with CBC host Carol Off and The Amazing Kreskin and for the program As It Happens. Kreskin made good on a promise that day to read Carol's thoughts on the air
Dec 28, M	Planetary Radio, Former Dawn mission director Marc Rayman of JPL reveals the secrets of the bright spots on dwarf planet Ceres
Dec 29, T	AMPERS' Native Lights: Where Indigenous Voices Shine series, it's the "Best of Native Lights" as we revisit a wonderful conversation with Respected Anishinaabe elder and well-known physician, Dr. Arne Vainio
Dec 30, W	Alex Wise, Anyone who has gone to the grocery store during the COVID-19 health crisis must have wondered to themselves at some point why there was no toilet paper, milk or flour all of a sudden
Dec 31, Th	MUSIC