11. Conditions

Licensee shall accept such interference as may be imposed by other existing 250 watt Class IV stations in the event they are subsequently authorized to increase power to 1000 watts.

Subject to the provisions of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, subsequent Acts, Treaties, and Commission rule made thereunder, and further subject to conditions set forth in this license, the LICENSEE is hereby authorized to use and operate the radio transmitting apparatus herein described for the purpose of broadcasting for the term ending 3 A.M. Local Time December 1, 1996.

The Commission reserves the right during said license period of terminating this license or making effective any change, or modification of the license which may be necessary to comply with any decision of the Commission rendered as a result of any hearing held under the rules of the Commission prior to the commencement of this license period or any decision rendered as a result of any such hearing which has been designated but not held, prior to the commencement of this license period.
The license is issued on the licensee's representation that the statements contained in the licensee's application are true and that the undertakings therein contained so far as they are consistent herewith, will be carried out in good faith. The licensee shall, during the term of the license, render such broadcasting service as will serve the public interest, convenience, or necessity to the full extent of the privileges here conferred.
This license shall not vest in the licensee any right to operate the station nor any right in the use of the frequency designated in the license beyond the term hereof, nor in any other manner than authorized herein. Neither the license nor the right granted hereunder shall be assigned, or otherwise transferred in violation of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended. This license is subject to the right of use or control by the Government of the United States conferred by Section 606 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.
