- C. Cancer- Many people in our community die from cancer.
- D. Education. Issues relating to public school education in our community
- E. Unemployment- Joblessness is high in our community.

Section II. Responsive Programs

The station has broadcast programming dealing with each of the above-referenced issues. Programming dealing with each issue is set out below.

- A. Local Economy:
By cooperating with the local Chambers of Commerce, we are able to help promote business in the local economy.
- B. Recreation:
“Community Bulletin Board”- Airs three times each day during the quarter with information about things to do, most of them free, in our community. The listings are free to any organization.
- C. Cancer:
“Relay For Life”- the station helps promote the annual American Cancer Society’s Relay for Life
- D. Education:
During various programs we help to support and promote all of the local schools. We announce their events and fundraisers and sporting events.
- E. Unemployment:
We broadcast “help wanted” advertisements for local businesses needing help. This allows those looking for jobs to find them.
