3-5-20 :4PM ENDANGERED PLANTS PKG 1][... ... SITS A 200-YEAR HISTORY OF PROTECTING AMERICA'S MOST FRAGILE PLANTS. 'We're a living repository for rare and endangered plants.' THIS IS THE U-S BOTANIC GARDEN... THE OLDEST ONE IN THE COUNTRY - AN IDEA ENVISIONED BY GEORGE WASHINGTON AND THOMAS JEFFERSON. IT'S ABOUT TO CELEBRATE ITS 200TH YEAR. 60-THOUSAND PLANTS... LYING WITHIN SEVERAL ACRES IN THE HEART OF WASHINGTON, D.C. CONSERVATION HERE... IS ALWAYS IN SEASON. 'Many of our plants are rare and endangered and we are providing a home for them.' HERE IN THE U-S, THERE ARE 13-HUNDRED SPECIES CONSIDERED TO BE THREATENED OR ENDANGERED. NEARLY 20-PERCENT OF THOSE... ARE PLANTS... ADDING UP TO HUNDREDS OF FLORA ON THE BRINK. SOME ALREADY FELL OFF THE CLIFF - LIKE THIS ONE IN THE GARDEN -- HAWAII'S 'CABBAGE ON A STICK.' BECAUSE OF OVERDEVELOPMENT... THE INSECT THAT POLLINATED IT, DISAPPEARED... AND IN 2014... THE PLANT WENT EXTINCT IN THE WILD, AS WELL. THERE ARE OTHERS ENDANGERED, TOO - LIKE THIS CACTUS FROM ARIZONA... AND THESE BUSHES, WHICH ARE NATIVE TO FLORIDA. BUT ENDANGERED PLANTS... DON'T ALWAYS GET THE KIND OF ATTENTION ENDANGERED ANIMALS DO. 'Often people do think about animals they have faces and they're sort of cute. So, we kind of think people generally can sort of sympathize with them a little bit more, than maybe with a plant that they're not familiar with.' BUT AT THE GARDEN... THEY EMPHASIZE HOW MUCH PLANTS ARE TIED TO THE HABITAT OF ENDANGERED ANIMALS... AT RISK FROM INVASIVE SPECIES... DEVELOPMENT... AND CLIMATE CHANGE. 'They're really interconnected and so I think plants are a fundamental part of conserving environment and conserving habitats. And if you just focus on conserving the animals you're leaving out a huge part of the equation in terms of the plants.' THAT ALL ADDS UP TO A CONTINUING MISSION OF SAVING PLANTS HERE... IN THE HOPES OF ONE DAY TAKING THOSE NOW EXTINCT OUTSIDE THESE WALLS... AND REINTRODUCING THEM... TO MOTHER NATURE.

6a CORONAVIRUS BUSINESS IMPACT PKG_0]

Jacob Kam01:01 - 01:11;Jude Blanchette]<ON THE EVE OF THE BIGGEST HOLIDAY IN THE CHINESE CALENDAR, THIS IS THE INTERCONTINENTAL HOTEL IN WUHAN, CITY OF 11 MILLION PEOPLE NOW UNDER LOCKDOWN. PARENT COMPANY IHG AND MARRIOTT BOTH SAY THEY'RE WAIVING CANCELATION FEES. TRAVEL AND TOURISM COMPANIES ARE AT THE FRONT LINE OF THIS OUTBREAK AS CHINA HAS IMPOSED TRAVEL RESTRICTIONS ACROSS ITS CENTRAL REGION, AFFECTING TENS OF MILLIONS OF PEOPLE. IN WUHAN, THE EPICENTER, ALL FLIGHTS AND PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION ARE SUSPENDED. HONG KONG'S RAIL COMPANY HAS STOPPED ALL TICKET SALES TO THE CITY. Jacob Kam, CEO, MTR Corp: "At this stage, of a health hazard like this, it's probably better to be cautious than to relax." AIRLINES IN CHINA AND BEYOND HAVE SEEN SHARP FALLS IN THEIR STOCK PRICES AS A RESULT. AND AIRPORTS AROUND THE WORLD ARE SCREAMING PASSENGERS FROM THE AFFECTED REGION. Jude Blanchette, Freeman Chair in China Studies, CSIS: "Coronavirus is coming at probably the worst time for China, given that it's just entering its Lunar New Year period, which is the single biggest economic event in China, where last year there's upwards of 150 billion spent during the period. So the possible economic implications are significant. A lot of this depends on how far the virus spreads." MULTINATIONAL COMPANIES IN THE REGION ARE STARTING TO TAKE THEIR OWN PRECAUTIONS. MCDONALD'S SUSPENDING OPERATIONS IN FIVE CITIES UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE. DISNEY EVEN SHUTTING DOWN ITS DISNEYLAND PARK IN SHANGHAI. WUHAN IS ALSO CHINA'S MOTOR CITY. SEVERAL BIG INTERNATIONAL CARMAKERS HAVE OPERATIONS THERE. RENAULT AND HONDA TELLING CNN THEY ARE ALREADY CLOSED FOR THE CHINESE NEW YEAR. WAL-MART, WHICH HAS MORE THAN 400 STORES IN CHINA, SAYS IT IS STILL OPEN, BUT IT'S REINFORCING GOOD HYGIENE PRACTICES. AFTER THE SARS EPIDEMIC HIT IN 2002 THE CHINESE ECONOMY BOUNCED BACK. EXPERTS WARN 2020 IS DIFFERENT. Jude Blanchette, Freeman Chair in China Studies, CSIS "China's second largest economy in the world and is really a crucial element of global trade supply chains. So an economic impact of the magnitude we saw in 2002-3 with SARS, which according to some estimates carved 1 percentage point off GDP growth, would obviously be significantly more now, if we saw an outbreak of this size and scale." THE SIZE AND SCALE OF THIS OUTBREAK IS NOT YET KNOWN. SO FOR BUSINESSES, THIS IS A TIME FOR EXTRA CAUTION. CLARE SEBASTIAN, CNN, NEW YORK.

1-1-2020 :4PM WHY THE CENSUS IS IMPORTANT NN PKG 1]
[Suggested Super: Why the Census is important24-29 Cathy Lacy / Regional Director, U.S. Census Bureau]NATS ((music -shots of different cities)) SOT (Lacy) 'This is very short. We're talking nine questions. Basically we're asking 'what does your household look like', who's living there, and basic demographics about the household' Regional Director Cathy Lacy with the U.S. Census Bureau says the founding fathers are the ones who decided they needed an accurate representation of the country to be measured every 10 years. SOT (Lacy) 'Based on the Constitution. It actually says 'there will be an enumeration that will be conducted', and for us it's the year ending in zero' Why is the U.S. Census so important? According to Lacy, its significance can be broken down into three categories: power, knowledge, and money. Power refers to 'political weight'. Census counts determine how many members each state gets to elect to the House of Representatives. SOT (Lacy) 'That's really important for our voice in Congress' Then you have knowledge. The information collected during the census will be used as a benchmark for many government statistics in the next decade. SOT (Lacy) 'If you want to know what your community needs, then you need to know what your community looks like' Census information helps measure where schools need to be built, and what programs should receive funding. Without accurate representation, a community won't know if its schools are overpopulated, or if there is a need programs like immigration services. Which leads us to the final topic of significance - money. SOT (Lacy) '675 billion dollars is distributed in federal funds every year based on census counts. So we want to make sure that that money is distributed fairly' That money can go toward infrastructure, or public transportation. It can also go toward federal programs like resources for the homeless... which goes to show why it's important for every person to be counted. SOT (Lacy) 'That's one of our most challenging operations, where we actually do count the people who are at the soup kitchens, emergency shelters, and those that are actually living on the streets'This year, the U.S. Census Bureau is hoping to have an even more accurate count than years prior. It's using the internet as a way for people to self-respond. You can also fill out a paper questionnaire... or respond over the phone. If you don't respond in any of those ways, then someone will be sent to your door. SOT (Lacy) 'Any information that we receive whether electronically or in person from respondents, those nine questions - that's completely confidential' SOT (Lacy) 'we like to think that we are the truth tellers of the nation. We actually show what this country looks like in that point of time - April 1st 20-20' I'm Elizabeth Ruiz reporting.

9PM STEVE OLDFIELD MOVIE REVIEW PKG 1]

[X:205 - TONS AB - Ross Video - Transition A WIPE 1 - CustomControl ENT WIPE (Bank:)[F:L3:////AT THE MOVIES/MOST OVERRATED MOVIES OF 2019/][F][F][F][F][Little Women/Sony PicturesJo Jo Rabbit/Fox Searchlight PicturesUncut Gems/A24Marriage Story/Netflix1917/Universal Pictures]"This is Meg"When it comes to nominations, Little Women - scored two for the golden globes and 9 for the Critics Choice Awards."Main character's a girl. Make sure she's married by the end." I liked Saoirse Ronan's performance, but the rest of the movie took some major departures from the book and other adaptations. Now I thought maybe it was me - but my Mom's read the book and seen three other adaptations and she thought it was as amateurish as a high school play.I think the boy from Jo Jo Rabbit did a great job playing a conflicted Hitler Youth... but the director ruined the film for me by playing an outlandish, over-the-top version of Hitler as an imaginary friend.I thought it failed as a comedy and while I didn't hate it, the whole concept pretty much crashed and burned... But lots of critics put it in their top 10 - it scored 7 critics choice nominations and 2 for the globes.At least the idiots at the Hollywood Foreign Press had the good sense not to nominate Adam Sandler or his horrible movie Uncut Gems - It was a relentless look at miserable people doing terrible things to each other - non-stop for two hours that I'll never get back.Then there's a film that nearly everyone loved but me... Marriage Story. For starters, it should be called Divorce Story - it's all about a couple splitting up and their lawyer-fueled battles. Adam Driver's not bad - I've never understood Scarlett Johansen's appeal... but they're both nominated for pretty much every award out there including the Screen Actors Guild. Now obviously, none of these movies made my top 10- list and the really disturbing thing to me is that all of them but JoJoRabbit scored higher on Rotten Tomatoes than my Favorite Film of 2019, 1917.
