

Quarterly Issue/Program List
October 1, 2016 – December 31, 2016

The attached report contains the following:

1. KCWI Community Events for the 4th Quarter of 2016
2. KCWI list of interviews conducted on the early morning show called CWIowa Live.
3. A description of the programming, both long and short form, that addressed those issues by category, which includes the time, date and length of each program.

This report was placed in our public inspection file on or before January 10, 2017 as required by the Federal Communications Commission.

Quarterly Issue/Program List
Community Events & Specials
4th Quarter 2016

Events and Organizations included:

Trick or Treat Night

Each year CW Iowa joins with Homemakers Furniture to offer the community a warm and safe environment for children to go Trick or Treating. The free event took place on Thursday, October 27th. CW Iowa Live co-host Jackie Schmillen served as the event host/celebrity.

Pet-A-Porter

On November 5th, CW Iowa Live co-host Lou Sipolt hosted the pet fashion show which benefitted the Animal Rescue League of Iowa.

Santa-N-Paws

Each year, CW Iowa Live co-host Lou Sipolt dresses as Santa Claus and poses with families and their pets for holiday photos. The proceeds of the event benefit the Animal Rescue League of Iowa.

Pinewood Derby Challenge

Hosted by CW Iowa Live co-host Lou Sipolt, the event took place at an Iowa Wild game on November 11th. It benefitted the Boy Scouts of America.

Free Pictures with Santa

Each year Homemakers Furniture and media sponsor CW Iowa 23 offer area children the opportunity to meet and take a picture with Santa for free. Again this year, CW Iowa Live co-host Jackie Schmillen served as host on the Saturday of the event. The event took place on November 12th & 13th.

Comics & Cops

The comedy event took place on November 12th at the Forte Events Center in downtown Des Moines. CW Iowa Live co-host Lou Sipolt hosted the event, which raised money to benefit Cops Against Cancer.

Shop With A Cop

CW Iowa Live co-hosts Jackie Schmillen and Lou Sipolt hosted the event with police officers. They helped the children and cops on their shopping experience. Lou and Jackie participated with the Mitchelville Police Department on December 7th and the Altoona and Pleasant Hill Police Departments on December 10th.

103rd Sustainment Command Holiday Meal

At the U.S. Army Reserve event, CW Iowa Live co-hosts Jackie Schmillen and Lou Sipolt served a holiday meal to U.S. Troops and their families.

Two Days of Compassion

Two Days of Compassion is a two-day radiothon fundraiser benefitting Variety-the Children's Charity's Compassion Fund. The radiothon takes place on NASH ICON. CW Iowa was this year's television sponsor. Through public service announcements as well as live on-air mentions and interviews within morning show CW Iowa Live, CW Iowa helped to promote the fundraising efforts, especially with text and website donate options. The efforts altogether helped to raise just over $127,000 for the Compassion Fund.

Public Service Announcements (PSAs)

CW Iowa partnered with the Ad Council and the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in their Project Roadblock Anti-Drunk-Driving Campaign. The last week in December, CW Iowa aired several PSAs encouraging viewers to drive sober.

CW Iowa joined with the National Association of Broadcasters in their Opioid Abuse Campaign. Throughout December, CW Iowa aired several PSAs to inform viewers of the dangers of prescription drug and opioid abuse.

Subject: DNR Ice Fishing

Date: 12/15/2016

Time: 9:00 PM

Length: 1:12

Description: The winter weather has brought fishing enthusiasts out to the ice. However, the DNR cautions anyone going on ice to be aware of the conditions. The DNR says ice must be at least four inches thick before you venture out on it. Right now the ice is 3 to 5 inches thick and caution is advised. Because this is the first wave of freezing ice this winter season, it's important to take extra precautions. The DNR says you should make sure to bring the necessary equipment to stay safe and to never go out on the ice alone

Subject: Farmers Vs. IUB

Date: 12/14/2016

Time: 9:00 PM

Length: 1:05

Description: More than a dozen Iowa landowners filed a lawsuit against the Iowa Utilities Board last summer. They claim that the board wrongfully granted eminent domain to Dakota Access - the company putting in the pipeline. Eminent domain is typically granted for a public utility. But landowners say Dakota Access is a private company, and therefore the board violated the law. These landowners and their attorneys will be in Polk County district court tomorrow morning. Attorneys representing the Iowa Utilities Board will also be going before the judge.

Subject: Freezing Weather

Date: 10/11/2016

Time: 9:00 PM

Length: 1:53

Description: Fields are emptying out as harvest season is well underway, but with frost in the forecast Wednesday night into Thursday morning, farmers say that's not actually the reason why they're putting petals to the metal. Overnight low temperatures are expected to plummet this week, possibly below freezing, making frost likely - but, it's not all bad news. Most crops are already mature, meaning any damage from frost wouldn't affect the plant since it stopped growing.

Subject: Pipeline Landowners

Date: 12/15/2016

Time: 9:00 PM

Length: 2:04

Description: A big day in court for nine Iowa landowners. They're up against the Iowa Utilities Board and a big oil company. The IUB granted Dakota Access the power of eminent domain to construct the Bakken pipeline from one corner of Iowa to the other. After hearing both sides today a judge says he wants some time before making a ruling. Meanwhile construction on the Iowa section of the pipeline is complete. If the landowners should win this lawsuit, the pipeline company would be considered a trespasser, meaning landowners could have the pipeline torn out of their land.
