

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS FOR KBXT-FM

4th Quarter 2023

October November December

In an ongoing effort to serve the public interest, KBXT-FM offers a variety of programming responsive to the issues of concern to the Bryan/College Station area listening audience. Below is a list of significant programming treatment of those issues for the period.

ISSUES ADDRESSED IN THIS REPORT:

- * Education

- * Crime

- * Economy

- * Entertainment

- * Pets

- * Health

- * Community

- * Sports

- * Youth

- * Politics

These issues were addressed with News, PSA announcements, and interviews.

NEWS REPORT FOR KBXT-FM

4th Quarter 2023

October November December

Date	TIME	DURATION	PROGRAM	ISSUE	DESCRIPTION
10/3/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, entertainment	The Texas A&M and Alabama game is expected to draw in a large crowd as both current and former A&M students from around the country show up to attend the intense rivalry-driven faceoff between the two schools. Tickets are selling fast, and people who are interested in attending should plan to purchase tickets sooner rather than later.
10/4/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, public safety, crime	A 34-year-old man was arrested early Tuesday morning after attempting to steal candies from The Queen Theatre in Bryan, according to a police report. Anthony Norwood allegedly found a door to the theater open, and went inside taking eight bags of gummy bears and two boxes of Sour Patch Kids. While inside the theater, he set off the alarm. The Queen Theatre owner was notified, pressed charges, and Norwood was arrested. He was charged with Burglary of a Building and violating Parole. The former charge is a state felony.
10/5/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Community, entertainment, public information	Health for All is a nonprofit geared towards helping patients who lack health insurance to cover common medical expenses after seeking care. Every year, the group holds a dance competition event as a way to raise money called "Dance for the Health of It" and the next event takes place on February 3, 2024. People wishing to attend can purchase tickets for individual seats or a table or make donations anytime before, during, or after the event.
10/6/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, public safety, crime	The Robertson County Sheriff's Office has arrested a 55-year-old man in Hearne on warrants. Curtis Lloyd Ramsdale has been charged with Unlawful Carry of a Weapon, Possession of a Component of Explosives, Unlawful Possession of a Firearm by a Felon, Possession of a Prohibited Weapon, and Possession of a Controlled Substance. All charges are felony charges barring the Unlawful Carry of a Weapon Charge. Additionally, a bond for Ramsdale has not been set.
10/10/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, public safety, crime	A petition has been filed by Doyle Dennis LLP against the City of College Station for an officer-involved shooting that left one dead in February. The petition filed against the city claims that what took place was a "military-style raid" using a flash-bang device as part of their entry.
10/11/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Entertainment, public information	A Powerball ticket in California was the winner Wednesday night's eye-popping $1.765 billion jackpot. The prize was the second-largest jackpot in U.S. history, just behind the record-breaking $2.04 billion Powerball jackpot last November. More than 30 drawings had gone by without a grand prize winner. The last time someone won the top prize was in July.
10/12/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public safety, public information	College Station Police have reported that a crash on Wellborn Road at Balcones Drive has been cleared. The crash was reported by CSPD at 3:54 p.m. on Thursday. No information on the individuals involved in the crash was provided by authorities.

10/13/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Community, public information	Six of the rail cars that were damaged in a derailment in late July in Bryan will have the fuel gas inside of them moved to other tank cars for transportation out of town. According to the City of Bryan, the work will take place around F and B Road and Wellborn Road and will be done over the course of three days starting the morning of Monday, October 16th. The city says no road closures should be required.
10/17/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Community, public information, public safety	Robertson County has lifted the burn ban that was previously in place. The burn ban was enacted in July after record heat across Texas had dried up soil, giving wildfires a chance to burn. Recently the Texas A&M Forest Service lowered the Wildland Fire Preparedness Level to the lowest of five levels used to describe the conditions and resources around the state available to fight wildfires. Authorities are advising residents to still use caution when burning, and to not leave fires unattended.
10/18/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, crime	A College Station woman has been arrested for stealing the credit card info of an elderly couple and using it for her own benefit. According to a report from College Station Police, Jada Harvey allegedly wrote down the credit card info of an elderly couple she was taking care of during her time as a substitute caregiver in December 2022. A few months after, in February 2023, the elderly woman Harvey was working with filed a report with police, alleging that they had cash and their information stolen from them. According to jail records, Harvey is being held on an $80,000 total bond for two charges each of credit card abuse against the elderly and exploitation of an elderly individual. All charges are third degree felonies.
10/19/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, crime	After being reported missing four weeks ago, the Amber Alert Network of the Brazos Valley has updated a missing persons case from October 18th. The missing 15-year-old was found safely, according to the organization, and will remain anonymous due to being a minor.
10/20/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Community, public information, education	Bryan Independent School District and Stephen F. Austin Middle School teacher Naveen Cunha was awarded the Texas Association of School Administrators Awards Ceremony Secondary Teacher of the Year honor. Competing against every secondary teacher in the state, Cunha makes history as the first Bryan ISD teacher to win this award. Cunha has been an educator for more than 30 years and is currently the Robotics teacher and coordinator of the district's Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics Academy at SFA Middle School School.
10/24/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Community, public information	The Madisonville Police Department Barbecue Cookoff will take place on Friday and Saturday at Lake Madison Park. The event will include Margarita and Bloody Mary contests on both days and a Kids Pork Chop Cookoff on Friday night. Entry fees vary depending on the dish, and winners can receive trophies and cash prizes.

10/25/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Government, community, public information	Walker County Election Department Specialist Cierra Monjaras tallied the daily voting numbers with a total of 243 voters checked-in during November 7th General Election early voting. Early voting will continue weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. through November 1st and extended voting hours from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. November 2nd and November 3rd. All early voting is submitted at the Walker County Storm Shelter located at 455 State Highway 75 North.
10/26/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public safety, public information	An accident in the eastbound lanes of University Drive East and Tarrow Street East has shut down parts of the roadway in the area, according to College Station Police. Police say all traffic into Tarrow Street has been closed. No injuries have been reported.
10/27/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Community, public safety, public information	Over the past few days, rainfall has provided much-needed relief for the Brazos Valley and other parts of Central Texas as a cold front is forecasted to roll in to the area to (hopefully) bring more seasonally appropriate temperatures just in time for Halloween. A burn ban that was previously in place in Brazos County has been lifted, marking it as the final county making up the Brazos Valley to lift its burn ban. Earlier in the month, all other counties in the area including Leon, Burleson, Robertson, Washington, Madison, and Grimes Counties lifted the burn bans in their respective counties.
10/31/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Community, public information	The City of College Station has been sued by CBL & Associates, the company that owns the Post Oak Mall, over unpaid upkeep costs. According to the suit, "common area" costs involving the former Macy's building that was eyed as a target for a new esports facility for Texas A&M roughly a year ago have not been paid. The total amount that CBL & Associates say the city owes totals $41,726.81.
11/1/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public safety, public information	The City of Bryan says that Union Pacific Railroad has planned alternating lane closures coming to William J. Bryan Parkway, also known as FM 158, in Downtown Bryan, beginning on Thursday, November 2nd. The closures are to complete signal maintenance, and will take place from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. through Saturday, November 4th.
11/2/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Community, entertainment, public information	The City of College Station is being recognized for fostering the musical talents of performing artists in the area over the years. On Thursday, November 2nd at 6:30 p.m. at The Tap, Representatives from the Governor's Texas Music Office will present a Texas Music Friendly City designation to Visit College Station. The city was announced as a Designated Music Friendly Texas Certified Community on October 26th.
11/3/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, community	Foresters and staff members from Texas A&M Forest Service celebrated Texas Arbor Day with school presentations, tree plantings and tree giveaways. Each year, Texas celebrates Arbor Day on the first Friday of November to increase awareness of the benefits and value of trees. This year's theme 'If Trees Could Talk' emphasizes the importance of trees to people, ecosystems and the economy. Over 9600 tree seedlings were given to students, organizations and communities throughout the day.
11/7/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Community, animal welfare, public information	The Bryan Animal Center is hosting a free microchip and rabies vaccination event on Sunday, November 11th from 8 a.m. to noon. This month's event is the final event that will be held for 2023. According to the City of Bryan website, four of these events are held each year, typically in March, May, August, and November.

11/8/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, weather	This October was the hottest on record globally, 1.7 degrees Celsius (3.1 degrees Fahrenheit) warmer than the pre-industrial average for the month and the fifth straight month with such a mark in what will now almost certainly be the warmest year ever recorded. October was a whopping 0.4 degrees Celsius (0.7 degrees Fahrenheit) warmer than the previous record for the month in 2019.
11/9/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, public safety	The Robertson County Sheriff's Office has reported a two-vehicle accident on highway 6 southbound south of Calvert. Both southbound lanes are shut down. No injuries were reported by sheriffs. Authorities advise drivers to be careful when navigating the area, and to account for increased travel time to your destination.
11/10/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Community, public information	In case you have to do some last-minute shopping on Thanksgiving, you need to be aware that many major retailers are now not open that day. Since the coronavirus pandemic, Walmart, Target, Best Buy and Kohl's have all closed their physical stores on Thanksgiving Day. Some stores including Whole Foods and Big Lots do plan to be open on Thanksgiving, but be sure to check with your local store in case there's modified hours.
11/14/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Youth, family, community , crime	Unbound Bryan College Station, a non-profit organization fighting against human trafficking, reminds parents and caregivers about red flags for potential issues and dangers as the holiday season approaches.
11/15/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public education, community, economics	Central Texas universities are trying to keep food pantries stocked for students. Texas A&M-Central Texas offers a Campus Cupboard, a student-run food pantry built to serve students, staff and faculty in need of assistance.
11/16/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Education, community, public information	The Texas A&M Board of Regents have announced that they will be holding a special meeting at 10 a.m. to "discuss and possibly name a sole finalist" for the position of President of the university. The meeting will be a phone meeting, and open session portions of the meeting can be viewed online. According to a recent report from The Texas Tribune, Texas A&M University System Chancellor John Sharp will recommend to the Board of Regents that current interim President Mark Welsh III be named the sole finalist for the position.
11/17/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Entertainment, community, public information	Through the Navasota Grimes County Chamber of Commerce Facebook page, the lineup for the Reds, Wheats, & Blues festival was released, yet the headliner will soon be announced. According to the Navasota Blues Music website, concertgoers can enjoy local wines, beers, and liquors while listening to music. The festival takes place from 3 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Nov. 11 at 1575 W Washington Ave and presale tickets start at $25.
11/21/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public safety, crime, public information	Update on current crime rates; College Station Police Department urges area residents keep vehicles locked when not using them, especially with the upcoming holidays and the shopping season.
11/22/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information	Most Walgreens stores will be closed for Thanksgiving this year, the company announced Wednesday. In a statement, Walgreens said 24-hour locations will remain open despite the changing policy. You can check the hours of stores near you using the company's store locator. It is the first time Walgreens has closed stores on Thanksgiving, allowing workers to spend the day with their loved ones.

11/23/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Sports, public information	Henry Coleman III scored 24 points, Wade Taylor IV had 23 and No. 12 Texas A&M beat Penn State 89-77 in the opening round of the ESPN Events Invitational on Thursday. Tyrece Radford added 14 points for the Aggies (5-0), who lost to the Nittany Lions 76-59 in the first-round of last year's NCAA Tournament.
11/24/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, economy	Over the years, Black Friday deals have extended outside of the Friday after Thanksgiving. This year, many retailers were offering weeklong "cyber sales" during Thanksgiving week. During this period, streaming services launched some of their best deals of the year with streaming Black Friday and Cyber Monday deals.
11/28/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Sports, public information	Following initial reports from multiple outlets late Saturday night that Kentucky head coach Mark Stoops would be taking up the Texas A&M head coaching job in 2024, new information has come to light stating that Stoops will be staying with the Wildcats and not taking up the vacant head coaching position in College Station.
11/29/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Education, public information	Texas A&M University professors Dr. Tatiana Erukhimova and Dr. Olga Kocharovskaya have received awards for their achievements in physics and astronomy. Erukhimova received the 2024 Homer L. Dodge Citation for Distinguished Service to the American Association of Physics Teachers (AAPT). This award is presented to members of the AAPT to recognize their contributions to the association. The professor is the first female professor in the Physics and Astronomy department and the first woman to earn this award.
11/30/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, entertainment, community	Kocharovskaya is acknowledged worldwide as a top quantum optics and laser physics researcher.
12/1/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Economy, public information, community	The Texas A&M Corps of Cadets will be hosting a free "Holiday on the Quad" event this coming Sunday from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. The event will feature Christmas lights, free booths with interactive games, arts and crafts, photo opportunities for families and children, and is free and open to the public. Parking for the event is available in the Koldus Garage, located at Central Campus.
12/5/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, public safety, crime	Hotel revenue in Bryan saw its best month in revenues ever, according to Destination Bryan. The reported revenue was over $4 million, and was a 13% increase over the previous best month, November 2022. The economic prosperities don't stop there, as it was reported that 2023 has already seen five months where hotel revenues exceeded $3 million. Destination Bryan also says that before they were established in 2020, the feat of an excess of $3 million in hotel revenue only twice in a month.
					A high-speed chase took place in Madison County, according to the Madison County Sheriff's Office. Authorities tried to pull 31-year-old Dillon Alexander over for having an expired registration on a silver Nissan, but he chose to take off and try to get away from authorities. Alexander was also found to have methamphetamine with him, which he was arrested for alongside the charges from the pursuit. No injuries or damages were reported. Alexander has been booked into the Madison County Jail on a felony charge of evading in a motor vehicle, as well as drug possession charges.

12/6/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, community, entertainment	The Lincoln Center in College Station offers weekly programs with senior activities including board games, scrapbooking, fitness classes and more. With an open Christmas party this Friday, members are encouraging everyone to come out and make memories. The sense of companionship is essential for senior citizens to be active in their communities, and the friendships created are needed during the holidays.
12/7/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Education, public information	For the second year in a row, the A&M Consolidated High School debate team has dominated the UIL Region 6 Congress Contest and advanced to the state competition. In the November 14th competition that is meant to mimic what happens in the U.S. Congress, Rowan Seipp took first place, David Zhang claimed second place, and Jenny Jeong earned third. The state competition will be held in January.
12/8/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, community, entertainment	In collaboration with Revolver Brewing Company, the Block T Blonde Ale will be sold in a special kiosk on the concourse between Sections 110 and 111 beginning on Sunday when the Aggies welcome Memphis to Reed Arena. In August, Texas A&M athletics announced that they had struck a deal with Molson Coors Beverage Company and Boston Beer Company to bring new beverages to the venues in Aggieland.
12/12/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, public safety, crime	Brazos County Crime Stoppers need your help identifying a man and/or truck that was involved in a theft of a generator in the morning on December 7th. Photos that provide the clearest image of the individual's identity show a white man in dark clothing near a white truck. The truck is described as a white and black Dodge Ram 3500. Another person was noted to have exited the truck, but information about their identity was not revealed. If you have any information on the man or car that was involved in the theft, call 979-775-TIPS.
12/13/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, community	Amazon's popular "thank my driver" promotion is back. The online shopping giant's program allows customers to give their Amazon drivers a $5 tip — at no additional cost — but only for the first 2 million "thank yous." Using their Alexa-enabled device, a customer can say "Alexa, thank my driver" or search "thank my driver" on both Amazon.com or the Amazon shopping app.
12/14/2023	n/a	40 sec	News	No Update Sent	No update available
12/15/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Education, public information, community	According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, paramedics earn a median salary of $49,090 and Texas has the highest employment level for paramedics in the United States. Blinn's Paramedic Program includes basic and clinical emergency medical technician training, emergency pharmacology, clinical emergency medical services, trauma management, cardiology, medical emergencies, and EMS operations. Graduates can earn their paramedic technology certificate or Associate of Applied Science in Emergency Medical Services, which qualifies them for entry-level paramedic positions and can be applied toward a bachelor's degree.

12/19/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public safety, public information, community, crime	On Tuesday morning, Texas A&M's Emergency system CodeMaroon reported that two "non-credible" bomb threats were received for two buildings on campus. The Academic building and Eller O&M building threat was first reported at 10:11 a.m., with the areas around the reported threats being reported shortly after. Roughly an hour after the initial report was issued, an All Clear update was given and the buildings that the bomb threat was called in for are safe.
12/20/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, crime, public safety	Just over one year after being arrested and charged for assaulting a police officer, drug charges, and other crimes, a man has been sentenced to 18 years in prison for his actions by a Brazos County Judge following a guilty plea. Last December, Jose Ramirez was pulled over by a Bryan Police officer for failing to stop at a stop sign. Once he stopped, he tried to get away from the car while admitting he didn't have a driver's license or proof of insurance, then engaged in a scuffle with the officer.
12/21/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, education, community	The early signing period officially kicked off on Wednesday for the college football world, and the Aggies made headlines by flipping a number of players who had previously verbally committed to other programs. On the first day of early signing period, Jaden Platt switched to Texas A&M from Stanford and Micah Tease chose the Aggies over Arkansas. Earlier in the week, QB Marcel Reed and LB Taurean York announced they would be flipping their commitments to A&M over Ole Miss and Baylor respectively.
12/22/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, community, public safety	The upcoming cold front is bringing a dangerous drop in temps and in order to stay safe, warming centers are opening up around the Brazos Valley to protect those who need shelter. Here is a list of some warming shelters around the area that community members can utilize this week. The centers are in standby operations, according to an update from the cities of Bryan and College Station on Friday, December 23rd.
12/26/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, community, public safety	As the Brazos Valley falls into cooler temperatures, Twin City Mission wants the community to know that they are still offering warm resources for those in need. According to the Texas Homeless Network, around 9,065 people are experiencing homelessness in the state this year. This month, Twin City Mission is looking for coat and blanket donations to keep families warm in the upcoming winter weather.
12/27/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, community	According to the United Way Brazos Valley's end-of-the-year statistics, they've helped 2,950 residents achieve access to healthcare and have helped 346 women gain access to prenatal care. United Way has created several programs to help combat these gaps in communities including Ride2Health, which gives people who don't have access to transportation rides to their medical appointments.
12/28/2023	6:35am, 7:35am, 8:35am	40 sec	News	Public information, entertainment	Powerball offered lottery players a chance to earn more than $700 million just days before the new year begins, but no one hit the jackpot Wednesday night. Hours before Wednesday evening's drawing, the jackpot surged to the ninth-largest prize in Powerball history. While no one hit the jackpot, a ticket in California won $1 million dollars for matching all five regular numbers. Another winner in Texas selected the more expensive Power Play option and matched all five white ball numbers too, taking home $2 million.

12/29/2023 6:35am,
7:35am,
8:35am

40 sec

News

Public information,
community

It's just about time to celebrate New Year's Eve, and that includes preparing for limited business hours. While a handful of major chains operate normally on the final day of the year, many others close up shop early. Much of this depends on location and each company's policy, so when in doubt, call ahead or check online for more specific schedules in your area.

KBXT-FM

RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING

4th QUARTER 2023

October – November - December

Oct. 08, 2023 – Financial, Health and Education – Issues Today 23-41 (30 minutes) 6:30am

Two representatives from the National Fallen Firefighters detailed efforts to improve kidney donations. Jordan Crenshaw commented on how AI is affecting small business plus Mitceh Petterson on emergency preparedness.

Oct. 15, 2023 – Health, Economy and World – Issues Today 23-42 (30 minutes) 6:30am

Jonas Bordo detailed the in's and out's of rental leases. Jeff Arnold gave tips on saving money plus Dr. Kami Hoss on oral health and vaping.

Oct 22, 2023 – Health and Economy – Issues Today 23-43 (30 minutes) 6:30am

Shushanna Mignot discussed railroad safety. Shannon Pope detailed symptoms of hearing loss plus Anand Varma on the wonders of wildlife photography.

Oct. 29, 2023 – Economy, Health and Education – Issues Today 23-44 (30 minutes) 6:30am

Mae Stevens talked about the state of water infrastructure in the country. Mellissa Mullampby gave tips on how to advocate for yourself regarding healthcare plus Rosemary Britts on Sickle Cell disease.

Nov. 05, 2023 – Economy, Health and Education – Issues Today 23-45 (30 minutes) 6:30am

Rawle Andrew discussed why some are reluctant to get mental health counseling. Ari Parker gave advice on how to pick the right Medicare plan plus Hannah Heimbuch on sustainable seafood.

Nov. 12, 2023 – Economy, Government and Health – Issues Today 23-46 (30 minutes) 6:30am

Two experts talked about augmented reality. Dr. Eliza Chin updated the COVID situation plus Dr. Craig Hirschberg on people's fears about broken teeth.

Nov. 19, 2023 – Government and Health – Issues Today 23-47 (30 minutes) 6:30am

Jeff Hardy talked about how to attain peace in the world. Dr. Magnolia Martinez discussed animal safety plus Richard Simon on real estate fraud.

Nov. 26, 2023 – Health and Education – Issues Today 23-48 (30 minutes) 6:30

Kristin Bride talked about online safety for youth. Brian Walsh commented on the real estate mortgage situation plus Jeremy Walters on recycling.

Dec. 03, 2023 – Health, Education and Economy – Issues Today 23-49 (30 minutes) 6:30am

Thomas Tighe talked about the need for more charitable giving. JP Degance detailed the results of a survey on spiritual life in America plus Dr. Linda Singh on the plusses of Army life.

Dec. 10, 2023 – Healthcare and Welfare – Issues Today 23-50 (30 minutes) 6:30am

Vedia Burnett described a back to nature program for veterans. Kevin Thibeau talked about the future of fossil fuel investments plus Lowell Baler on the first 50 years of the Endangered Species Act.

Dec 17, 2023 – Government, Education and Health – Issues Today 23-51 (30 minutes) 6:30

Dr. Nicholas Bequellin defined “Human Rights”. Two experts talked about a new Parkinsons Survey plus Anthony Mohr on growing up with two fathers.

Dec. 24, 2023 – Government, Health and Economy – Issues Today 23-52 (30 minutes) 6:30am

Patrick Smithwick talked about homeless vets. Brandi Bynum commented on the growing problem of human trafficking plus Jennifer Nelson on the art of teaching.

Dec. 31, 2023 Health and Information – Issues Today 23-53 (30 minutes) 6:30am

Dan Correa talked about efforts to improve STEM education. Renee Worcester described the Wreaths Across America Program plus Sarah Janssen on the 2024 World Almanac.