

90.7 WAY RADIO Public Ascertainment
Brunswick, Ga
3rd Quarter 2018 page 1

Month Of July Project Backpack Helped the Miranda Faith Foundation collection school supplies for kids and families that need help getting started off on the right foot for the school year.

August 6, 8, 10 Trena Smith / Service Master By A1 Trena shared about how to be prepared for the Hurricane season. She talked about the do's and don'ts and how to protect your valuables in case of a hurricane.

August 18, 20, 24 Megan Deloros / Counselor with CFL She discussed how parents and teens can connect and be real with each other. Also talked about wiring and wounding.

Sept 18, 20, 24 Shelley Hendrics / CFL Shelley shared about the free workshop that Centered for Life is hosting on September 24. She shared how people try to fix people that are dealing with grief, change, and loss. She shared how we need to really need to listen and not try to fix.

Sept 27 MAP / Disaster Relief Manager Jason Elliott shared how they were able to get health kits to people in the Carolina's before and after hurricane Florence. He also shared how listeners can get involved financially or by volunteering.

90.7 WAY RADIO

1426 Newcastle Street Suite 200
Brunswick, Ga 31520

Contained in this file is a sampling of programs used during the quarter to address the needs of the community in the public interest. Public needs were ascertained through general interviews in person, on the telephone, and through staff study of local news media including television and print. Respondents represent various ages, locations, economic status, ethnic backgrounds, and gender.... The top five (5) issues identified as concerns were as follows;

- 1. Kids
- 2. Hurricane Preparedness
- 3. Relationships
- 4. Dealing with Grief/Loss
- 5. Map International/Medical Health Kits

All program time for addressing these issues was given free of charge to the organizations represented. Through these programs, as well as the listed PSA's, we at WAYRadio believe we have met the needs of the community we serve and surrounding area.