

Quarterly Issues Programming Report

2nd Quarter 2021

KSMB, KXKC

April 1st – June 30th

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Catholic Charities of Acadiana

Length: 15:15

Aired: 4/4/21

Description: Catholic charities of Acadiana helps to provide a hand up to those that are suffering from poverty in Acadiana. They have severed different services available which would include sheltering and feeding the homeless especially in specific we men in acadiana in the surrounding areas. A representative join our show to talk about their mission, how to volunteer as well as how to reach out for assistance.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: LOPA

Length: 15:15

Aired: 4/4/21

Description: LOPA is the Louisiana organ procurement association here in Louisiana. Susanna Morton joined us on Acadiana affairs to talk about the process of organ donation, how to become a donor, and how one donation could positively change or save up to eight lives.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Stress

Length: 15:05

Aired: 4/11/21

Description: Stress is a tricky topic, and since the pandemic we felt it was a good practice each quarter to discuss stress, signs that you are feeling stressed, how it can affect your life negatively, and what you can do to decrease stress in your life.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: ICES

Length: 14:56

Aired: 4/11/21

Description: The International Cultural Exchange Student program is an opportunity for families in Acadiana to share our culture with students from around the world. Cassie with ICES joined our show to discuss the program and recruit new host families for their exchange students.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Escape From Poverty

Length: 15:59

Aired: 4/18/21

Description: Escape from poverty is an organization that aims to teach low income individuals how to escape from poverty by offering courses designed to help them with budgeting, financing, and several other topics that can improve one's financial standing. I had a representative from escape from poverty on the show to discuss different courses available, how the programs work, and how to enroll FREE!

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Dreams Come True

Length: 14:33

Aired: 4/18/21

Description: Amy a mother of a child with cancer joined us to discuss dreams come true of Louisiana and how they help to grant wishes to children who are suffering from cancer and other deadly illnesses. Her daughter Chloe had a dream to have a new puppy, and dreams come true will be granting it! She joined the show to talk about fundraising efforts and how to help!

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Faith House

Length: 16:09

Aired: 4/25/21

Description: Faith house is a housing option for women in abusive relationships who are fleeing domestic violence situation and in some cases this would include the children. Faith house is a way for women to rebuild their lives while seeking asylum from their abusive loved one. preventative with the organization appeared on the show to discuss services available and information on reaching out to Faith House.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Workforce Board

Length: 14:21

Aired: 4/25/21

Description: The work force board of Louisiana is an operation aimed at finding jobs for young people 18-21 and older who are looking for career opportunities right out of high school and college. The program looks to help pair up qualified applicants with meaningful career opportunities.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Unemployment in Acadiana

Length: 14:00

Aired: 5/2/21

Description: Post pandemic with the level of unemployment being considerably high, we had a representative on the show discuss job opportunities, and organizations as well as services that can help please young adults into new meaning for jobs and or careers.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Domestic Violence

Length:16:00

Aired: 5/2/21

Description: Domestic violence is more prevalent than most people realize, and affects a large group of families in the Acadiana area. We discussed how domestic violence can negatively affect the family, and what services are available to help families that are affected by abuse.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Rerun Incident Due to Technical issue

Length: 31:00

Aired: 5/9/21

Description: [Error: A second copy of the file was hung up in another location in opX. It's happened once before and causes the new version to not overwrite properly. The system seemed to replaying an edition of Acadiana Affairs (luckily not date sensitive) because the new shows were not overwriting properly. The issue (which has happened before) was not detected until running a report toward the end of the month to update the public file.] The issues covered were unemployment in Acadiana + Domestic Abuse. The workforce board which aims at finding career opportunities for young people as well as a representative with faith house advocating for abuse victims joined the show.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Rerun Incident Due to Technical issue

Length: 31Min

Aired: 5/16/21

Description: [Error: A second copy of the file was hung up in another location in opX. It's happened once before and causes the new version to not overwrite properly. The system seemed to replaying an edition of Acadiana Affairs (luckily not date sensitive) because the new shows were not overwriting properly. The issue (which has happened before) was not detected until running a report toward the end of the month to update the public file.] The issues covered were unemployment in Acadiana + Domestic Abuse. The workforce board which aims at finding career opportunities for young people as well as a representative with faith house advocating for abuse victims joined the show.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Hospice

Length:15:08

Aired: 5/23/21

Description: Hospice of Acadiana service area residents who are reaching end-of-life to be able to acquire in-home care as they reach their final days. It allows their clients to pass with dignity surrounded by the people and things that they love. Representative with hospice joined us on the show to discuss their annual fundraiser and how we can buy tickets for their major raffle.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Stoke Awareness Month

Length: 14:52

Aired: 5/23/21

Description: May is stroke awareness month and an opportunity for us to discuss the signs and symptoms of a stroke, as well as how one's life could be affected after a stroke. A representative with Lafayette General health joined us to talk about the signs you should look for in a loved one, that would signal they are having a stroke, as well as services available for families who are affected.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Sliding Scale Counseling and Family Services

Length: 15:34

Aired: 5/30/21

Description: Many people in our area are affected by depression, anxiety, and other domestic problems within their families, and during the pandemic many did not have any place to turn. Family tree has a sliding scale counseling program that allows for families to be able to afford individual or family counseling. They also offer other services like classes and courses for different issues that affect the family dynamic.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Pet Adoption

Length: 15:43

Aired: 5/30/21

Description: During the pandemic there was an increase in pet adoptions as families were seeking companions for their homes. In 2021 as things return to normal, pet adoptions have slowed. I had a representative with the clean pair of animal aid joined us to talk about the benefits of pet adoption and how the process works

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: AAVA

Length: 15:44

Aired: 6/6/21

Description: Animal Aid for Vermilion Area, a non profit 501(c)3 animal rescue organization established in 1995, located in South Louisiana, has helped rescue thousands of animals. AAVA has been helping animals and their owners for over 20 years, and one of their goals is to rescue and rehome as many animals as possible from the local Animal Control facility, a high kill pound with no adoption program.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Family Tree

Length: 15:15

Aired: 6/6/21

Description: Marie Collins with the family tree join the show to discuss some of the programs that they had coming up that could benefit families in Acadia area. We discussed courses classes and counseling available at minimal cost to individuals. We discussed the entire process.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: St. Jude Children's Research Fundraiser Event

Length: 30:00

Aired: 6/13/21

Description: St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, founded in 1962, is a pediatric treatment and research facility focused on children's catastrophic diseases, particularly leukemia and other cancers. The hospital costs about US$2.8 million a day to run, but patients are not charged for their care. Their June event in Lafayette is a way to help them earn more money to continue their mission.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Concert for a Cure

Length: 30:00

Aired: 6/20/21

Description: "Concert for a Cure," benefiting St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, is set for Sunday, June 27 at Rock 'n' Bowl de Lafayette located at 905 Jefferson St in Lafayette. Doors open at 1:00 pm with music starting at 2:00 pm. Wayne Toups, Wesley Dennis, and The Chee Weez.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Full Term Delivery

Length: 14:45

Aired: 6/27/21

Description: Inductions are extremely popular in today's society as a way to try to schedule your babies arrival date, and thus we've also seen an increase in cesarean sections. We had a representative on the show that is an expert in this field discuss with us the risk of induction, and the importance of full-term delivery for the health of your baby.

Program: Acadiana Affairs

Issue covered: Foster Care

Length: 16:07

Aired: 6/27/21

Description: There are many children in the Acadiana area that enter the system having been separated from their parents but with the hope they will one day be reunited. Those children our need of loving families to care for them in the meantime, especially those who suffer from behavioral issues like ADHD depression etc. With someone on the show to discuss fostering children in Louisiana, how it works, and how to sign up to become a foster parent.
