

KBOO 90.7 FM Community Radio, Portland, OR

Significant Treatment of Community Issues
1st Quarter: January 1st - March 31st, 2024

ISSUE: Animal Rights, Animal Health

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Voices For The Animals

DESCRIPTION: BAD EATS: A Harmful Law For Animals & People. 99% of the meat and dairy products we eat in this country come from industrialized factory farms. By and large, these are terrible places for animals, and voters in some states have passed laws to make those farms a little more humane. Unfortunately, some in Congress are doing the bidding of big agriculture lobbies and trying to pass what is known as the EATS Act, which would effectively negate those state laws, and prevent others from being passed in the future. On this episode of Voices For The Animals, we'll talk with Wayne Pacelle, President of Center For A Humane Economy and Animal Wellness Action about EATS Act and what it means for animals and the safety of our food supply.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/26/2024 - 10:00am to 10:30am - 30 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: That Vegan Show

DESCRIPTION: Interview with Dr. Peter Spendelow. where we learn about their conscientious and far-reaching activism. Learn about the environmental impact of our food systems. That Vegan Show happily welcomes returning guest, Dr. Peter Spendelow, to share the Environmental Impacts of Food just ahead of Earth Month. Dr. Spendelow has a PhD in Zoology, but for more than 38 years has worked as an environmental scientist at the Oregon Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ). His department, specializing in recycling and solid waste, has recently renamed itself the Materials Management section. This reflects a growing understanding that the main environmental impact of materials comes from their production, not from their end-of-life disposal and recycling. They have also found that probably the most impactful of all the materials we produce is food. Join us to hear this informative, and perhaps not-well-understood perspective.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/22/2024 - 11:00am to 12:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview, Dialogue

PROGRAM NAME: EcoJustice Radio

DESCRIPTION: On Mountain Lions: How to Embrace our Wild Predatory Relatives. We discuss the efforts to protect predators, particularly the mountain lion, who are still somewhat numerous, but declining fast in the world of sprawling housing developments and freeways. In this industrialized country, we have had a war on the wild; what we call "predators". Helicopter gunners shooting wolves to protect caribou herds in Alaska, or taking them out in Idaho to benefit elk. But really to benefit the human hunters who prey on the elk. Humans are the greatest threat to mountain lions. Every day is open season on mountain lions in Nevada. The majestic cats are under attack as prey for hunters, as unintended victims of traps set for bobcats, and as the primary target of a $900,000 a year state-sponsored effort to cull species deemed problematic by the state. In California, close to 40 million people live within, or adjacent to, cougar habitat. Vehicle strikes, rat poison, inbreeding, wildfires, poaching, urban encroachment complaints, livestock depredation kill permits, and freeway systems are contributing to what scientists call an extinction vortex.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/25/2024 - 10:00am to 11:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Beyond Your Front Door

DESCRIPTION: Winter Birdwatching on the Oregon Coast. Winter is one of the best times of year to watch birds along Oregon's coast! Many birds migrate to the coast for the winter, creating exciting opportunities to see a wide variety of birds. Join host Dina Pavlis with Pat Blue Heron. Pat's been birdwatching for over 50 years with 35 years of experience birding on the Oregon Coast. Pat shares about where to go, what to see, and what to bring. She'll discuss best books, best apps, and share about the Tuesday Birders Group that is open to the public in Florence, Oregon.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/07/2024 – 9:00am to 9:30am - 30 minutes

ISSUE: Environment, Natural Resources

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Wednesday Talk Radio

DESCRIPTION: Earth's Greatest Enemy, with Abby Martin. Investigative journalist, Empire Files host and documentarian Martin joins host Paul Roland in the KBOO studios. Independent journalist and documentarian Abby Martin discusses Earth's Greatest Enemy, an upcoming feature length documentary that examines one of the largest polluters and contributors to global climate change in the world: the United States military. And why the military industrial complex is the "elephant in the room" in the political discourse on human-caused climate change. "Earth's Greatest Enemy does something sorely needed in the discourse about climate change and the global environmental crisis. It shines a light on the devastation the US military leaves behind in every landscape it arrives at, every body of water and airspace it traverses, and every community of life—human and more-than-human alike—it disregards with callous imperial hubris."

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/27/2024 - 8:00am to 9:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview, Dialogue

PROGRAM NAME: EcoJustice Radio

DESCRIPTION: Defending the Amazon: The Fight for Justice, with Steven Donziger. Special encore presentation recorded in December 2020. In this episode, we investigate the story of New York based attorney Steven Donziger who represented Ecuadorian communities demanding justice from Chevron-Texaco for one of the largest-ever oil disasters, where they deliberately dumped more than 16 billion gallons of toxic wastewater, spilled 17 million gallons of crude oil, and left hazardous waste in hundreds of open pits dug out of the forest floor. In a historic judgment, Chevron was found liable by Ecuadorian courts and ordered to pay $9.5 billion. Chevron says it will never pay. We look into how Chevron, supported by US federal judges, is using retaliatory attacks against Mr. Donziger and the Ecuadorian People, and how their actions set a dangerous precedent and represent a growing and serious threat to the ability of civil society to hold corporations accountable for their misdeeds around the world.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/10/2024 - 10:00am to 11:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview, Dialogue

PROGRAM NAME: Sea Change Radio

DESCRIPTION: Tim Killeen on the State of the Amazon. This week on Sea Change Radio, we are speaking about the latter with author and conservation scientist Tim Killeen. We talk about his work in the Amazon region, his upcoming book, and what drew him to study this enormous, fragile ecosystem. We also learn about the policies that have contributed to an approximate 20% deforestation of the Amazon, discuss biocommerce in the area, and hear about some optimistic signs of regeneration. Encore presentation from October 2023.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/04/2024 – 9:30am to 10:00am - 30 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Locus Focus

DESCRIPTION: Portland's Climate Villains. The environment and the climate are having a rough ride at Portland City Council and in the backrooms of the Oregon State Capitol. Less than a day before a hearing on a housing regulatory reform package, Portland City Commissioner Rene Gonzalez, working behind the scenes with the Portland Business Alliance and other developers, introduced amendments that would suspend City of Portland requirements for green roofs, bird-safe window glazing and neighborhood notification for housing development projects. This is just one more example of the current council's hostility to the environment, and fealty to the Portland Business Alliance. Bob Sallinger, Conservation Director with Willamette Riverkeeper, addresses the overbearing influence that the Portland Business Alliance has on our local and state governments.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/12/2024 - 10:00am to 11:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Report, Activism

PROGRAM NAME: World Ocean Radio

DESCRIPTION: World Ocean Ethos. On this episode, we are discussing the means to accelerate the urgent response required to visualize, plan, and implement for a new ocean future. ETHOS is defined as "the spirit of a culture, era, or community as manifested in its beliefs and aspirations." World Ocean Radio, is a weekly series of five-minute audio essays. Produced at the World Ocean Observatory, Sedgwick, Maine.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/12/2024 - 7:55pm to 8:00pm - 5 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Beyond Your Front Door

DESCRIPTION: Trailkeepers of Oregon. Noelle Windesheim is the Central Coast Stewardship Coordinator for the Trailkeepers of Oregon (TKO). She has an adventurous spirit, a dedication for serving her community, and is an incredible coordinator for TKO here on the coast. Did you know that almost all trails on Oregon's public lands are maintained by volunteers? From team building events, to trail parties, and organizing behind the scenes, there's a way everyone can help. TKO was founded in 2007 with a mission to protect and enhance the Oregon hiking experience through trail stewardship, advocacy, and outreach & education. Join Dina Pavlis in the studio with Noelle Windesheim to learn about the history of the Trailkeepers of Oregon and the various ways you can support their mission.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/20/2024 - 6:00pm to 6:30pm – 30 minutes

ISSUE: Indigenous, Native American Affairs

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: First Voices Radio

DESCRIPTION: Danny Desjarlais is Project Manager of Lower Sioux Industrial Hemp Construction at Lower Sioux Community in southwest Minnesota. Danny is a dedicated and experienced Natural Builder with a passion for sustainable construction methods and a commitment to creating eco-friendly structures for Lower Sioux Community members to call home. Danny says, "We are the original caretakers of this land; being Indigenous, we've gone so far away from taking care of Mother Earth. We hadn't grown any plants here since before contact. Once contacted they took all our farming and we hadn't farmed since we started growing hemp. It's really quite amazing how it's been a big full circle moment".

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/05/2024 - 11:00am to 12:00pm – 60minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Ecojustice Radio

DESCRIPTION: Restoring the Landscape: Indigenized Futures & the Land Back Movement. First we share a report from Yurok country, in the Pacific Northwest. The largest dam removal in U.S. history has entered a critical phase, with the lowering of dammed reservoirs on the Klamath River, with members of the Yurok Tribe leading the effort. We use this as an example of why Indigenous people must be leading the efforts of conservation, which is the basis of the Land Back movement discussed in this show. Then we air an interview from 2023 with Dr. Cutcha Risling Baldy, Associate Professor and Department Chair of Native American Studies at Cal Poly Humboldt, on how radical imagination is required to forge a new, and also perhaps ancient way out of the injustices and destruction inherent in settler colonialism with the Land Back Movement.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/31/2024 - 10:00am to 11:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Rose City Native Radio

DESCRIPTION: Jack Malstrom hosts and celebrates Rose City Native Radio's 4 year anniversary, featuring music, clips from previous interviews and segments. Hear Rose City Native Radios's first interview, Ender's first time on the show with his segment Roar of the Earth, and more. This is a rebroadcast from April 2018.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/28/2024 - 6:00pm to 7:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Wednesday Talk Radio

DESCRIPTION: Honoring the life and work of Klee Bennally, with co-host Jacqueline Keeler. Multi-talented Dine' anarchist was an uncompromising activist, musician, writer and artist. Klee Benally, Navajo environmental and tribal sovereignty activist, died Dec. 30 in a Phoenix hospital, according to the Associated Press. His family did not disclose the cause of death. Benally, 48, was an environmental and social activist as well as an acclaimed artist. He was a talented silversmith and a founder of the award-winning Indigenous punk rock group Blackfire along with his sister Jeneda and brother Clayson. The group, rooted in both Navajo traditional music and punk rock, railed against cultural, environmental and social injustice. He moved on to become one of Indian Country's strongest advocates for preserving sacred spaces, cleaning up abandoned mines, supporting Indigenous peoples' rights and reclaiming the Earth's health.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/10/2024 - 8:00am to 9:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview, Dialogue

PROGRAM NAME: American Indian Airwaves

DESCRIPTION: The EZLN 30th Anniversary Gathering: Resistance, Reflections, and Growth in Chiapas. We will hear highlights on what happened at the 30th Anniversary of the Beginning of the War Against Oblivion, the armed uprising of the Zapatista Army of National Liberation (EZLN) on January 1st, 1994, against the colonial state of Mexico and global capitalism. The Mayan peoples' traditional homelands were recovered after the armed uprising of the Zapatista Army of National Liberation (EZLN) in 1994 and are concrete evidence of how Zapatismo in Chiapas has improved the living conditions of the communities based on organization, autonomy, and self-determination. Listeners will hear about the legacy of Indigenous women, their roles, contributions over the past four generations changing oppressive systems of heteronormative cis-gendered patriarchy.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/18/2024 - 7:00pm to 8:00pm - 60 minutes

ISSUE: Food and Agriculture

PROGRAM TYPE: Dialogue

PROGRAM NAME: The Dirtbag

DESCRIPTION: That was certainly a cold snap, but did it kill my plants? Host Glen Andresen and co-pilot Jim Gilbert talk about cold weather effects, pruning kiwis and grapes, and if it is too early to plant. Oh boy, what an ice and cold and wind storm we had, but how much plant damage was actually done? It's too early to tell so don't go digging up any plants until you are absolutely sure. But how to tell? We tell all. Also, it's time to finish up your dormant pruning of kiwis and grapes. And a report on the latest showings of Jim and Joe's documentary, An Oregon Story. As always, we have a new Plant of the Month (tea) and our Dirtbag Dictionary term is "cole" as in "cole crops."

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/14/2024 - 11:00am to 12:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview, Dialogue

PROGRAM NAME: Sprouts

DESCRIPTION: A Sustainable Diet. What is a sustainable diet for people and the environment? Salwa Khan explores this question with Senior Food and Agriculture Policy Specialist at the Center for Biological Diversity, Mark Rifkin. Compared to meat-based diets, plant-based diets are significantly less harmful to the environment in terms of greenhouse gases produced, and air, soil and water pollution, and use far fewer natural resources such as soil and water. With the world's population growing every day, there is simply no way our planet can sustain an increased demand for meat. Plant-based diets are also far healthier, considering the many diet-related diseases prevalent in the US.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/13/2024 - 9:30am to 10:00am - 30 minutes

ISSUE: Health and Social Services

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Prison Pipeline

DESCRIPTION: Lawsuit: Washington County Fails People with Disabilities. Episode Host Karen James speaks with Dave Boyer, managing attorney with Disability Rights Oregon, who filed a lawsuit against Washington County, Oregon's 2nd largest county. The federal lawsuit was filed after a year-long investigation alleging that when someone in the County experiencing a mental health crisis calls for help, the County routinely treats their health emergency like a crime, dispatching tactically-trained, armed law enforcement officers instead of trained mental health professionals. As a result, people with mental health disabilities in the County have been discriminated against, deprived of immediate medical care and are being unnecessarily exposed to citation, arrest, involuntary hospitalization, and police uses of force.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/19/2024 - 6:30pm to 7:00pm - 30 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Lecture

PROGRAM NAME: Encouragementology

DESCRIPTION: Mirror, Mirror: Nurturing Body Image to Build a Loving Partnership. We often compare ourselves to others, especially in the age of social media where idealized images are prevalent. This can lead to feelings of inadequacy and self-criticism. Negative experiences, such as bullying or criticism, can contribute to low self-esteem and a negative body image. These experiences can linger and influence how we see ourselves. Enough is enough. You were assigned this body for better or worse. Depending on your beliefs, your soul may live forever but this body has an expiration date. It is high time to appreciate your body for all it does for you. Focus on its strengths and abilities rather than perceived flaws to create a true partnership.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/06/2024 - 9:00am to 9:30am - 30 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview, Dialogue

PROGRAM NAME: Negotiating Dramatic Events

DESCRIPTION: Staying Spiritually Fit in the Face of Adversity. 80 year old activist and lecturer Grace Growing Medicine Reed will be joined by Al Clark, adjunct professor at University New Jersey, where he teaches radio and TV skills. He's a journalist and Buddhist who follows the 12 step philosophy. They discuss the many lessons they have learned, and how to maintain a healthy spiritual stance in a seemingly disastrous world with apparent nonsense almost everywhere you turn. How to see the beauty in it all.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/21/2024 - 9:00am to 10:00am - 60 minutes

ISSUE: African American Affairs

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Hard Knock Radio

DESCRIPTION: We speak with Dr. Jeffrey O.G. Ogbar, author of America's Black Capital: How African Americans Remade Atlanta in the Shadow of the Confederacy. America's Black Capital chronicles how a center of Black excellence emerged amid virulent expressions of white nationalism, as African Americans pushed back against Confederate ideology to create an extraordinary locus of achievement. What drove them, historian Jeffrey O. G. Ogbar shows, was the belief that Black uplift would be best advanced by forging Black institutions. America's Black Capital is an inspiring story of Black achievement against all odds, with effects that reached far beyond Georgia, shaping the nation's popular culture, public policy, and politics.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/11/2024 - 7:00pm to 7:55pm - 55 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Report

PROGRAM NAME: Civic Cipher

DESCRIPTION: Why is Biden Losing Support from Black People? Why is There No White History Month? Today we are discussing a trend in the polls that shows weakening support for Joe Biden among Black people. We discuss the reasons this may be true, as well as some of the positive things his administration has accomplished. We answer the question: Why isn't there a White History Month? Additionally, we answer some similar questions and give in-depth context for the necessity of certain Black holidays and affirmations. Our Way Black History Fact is dedicated to the very Black roots of Jack Daniels.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/23/2024 - 7:00pm to 8:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Report

PROGRAM NAME: Let's Talk About Race

DESCRIPTION: Kwanzaa is a non-religious holiday, celebrated from Dec 26-Jan 1. Each day symbolizes principles, called the 7 principles for Kwanzaa. The panelist of LTAR picked a news event and connected it to each principle of Kwanzaa. These principles celebrated the achievement of women in 2023 as women pushed for the passing of the Inflation Reduction Act, for the passage of the Respect for Marriage Act that enshrines marriage equality in federal law, granting protections to same-sex and interracial couples. And how some Americans came together at the national and local level to pass gun safety regulations. There is an overriding theme that 2023 represents: Collective Work and Responsibility: To build and maintain our community together and make our brothers and sisters' problems our problems and to solve them together.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/01/2024 - 7:00pm to 8:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview, Dialogue

PROGRAM NAME: Black Book Talk

DESCRIPTION: Author Natalie Braszile, best known for her novel "Queen Sugar", brings together essays, poems, photographs, quotes, conversations, and first-person stories that examine black people's connection to the American land from Emancipation to today. In the 1920s, there were over one million black farmers; today there are just 45,000. "We Are Each Other's Harvest" explores this crisis, through the farmers' personal experiences. In their own words, middle aged and elderly black farmers explain why they continue to farm despite systemic discrimination and land loss. The "Returning Generation"—young farmers, who are building upon the legacy of their ancestors, talk about the challenges they face as they seek to redress issues of food justice, food sovereignty, and reparations. These farmers are joined historians Analena Hope Hassberg and Pete Daniel, and award-winning author Clyde W. Ford, who considers the arrival of Africans to American shores. Michael Twitty, reflects on black culinary tradition and its African roots.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/01/2024 - 11:30am to 12:00pm - 30 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview, Dialogue

PROGRAM NAME: Black History Future Month

DESCRIPTION: Black Panthers In Africa: Charlotte (Mama C) & Pete O'Neal. Suncere Ali Shakur (The People's Dinner Party podcast) has a conversation with two individuals who have maintained their love and relationship against many odds. They have returned to the mother land of Africa, with Pete unable to return to the United States. They discuss the ongoing movement of Black Liberation, even when certain governmental agencies, public and classified, continue to make sure this movement doesn't really happen. They discuss their work with the United African Alliance Community Center in Tanzania, built in a rural village in the heart of the traditional homeland of the Wameru tribe. Through the years, they built up the community center to what it is today, a compound with multiple classrooms, a children's home, and home to Pete Charlotte and UAACC staff/family!

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/27/2024 - 7:00pm to 8:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Monologue

PROGRAM NAME: The Global Sail

DESCRIPTION: Why we celebrate the Black History Month, with TK Kapurura. The Black History month was officially recognized on the US national calendar by President Ford in 1976. Before that, a group of Black United Students at Kent State University had been celebrating the month starting in 1969. That was one of the many trigger points to the promotion of black self-consciousness. The February month became special because of two prominent abolitionists born in February. Black people have mainly lived by explaining a lot of stuff to justify needs and interests. We celebrate the Black History Month to remind the world of what it means to be black in this world we live in.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/07/2024 - 7:00pm to 8:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Dialogue, Opinion

PROGRAM NAME: Culture in Motion

DESCRIPTION: Art, Culture, Politics, Education and Social Movements with Hip Hop as the guiding light, with host Mic Crenshaw. Discussion about thoughts and feelings Malcolm X had about the conflict in Palestine. Showcasing local hip hop music, spoken word live in the airroom. And last but not least, comments and dialogues about spirituality for the current age we live in, what it means to be Black and what Black culture has meant and continues to mean for America, and lasting thoughts and optimistic conclusions about life in this world today.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/20/2024 - 7:00pm to 8:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Dialogue, Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Rising Up With Sonali

DESCRIPTION: We feature contributors to Realizing Reparations, a six-part series of deeply reported stories that we oversaw and edited, and that illuminate the rich ecosystems of reparations throughout the U.S. The series, funded by a grant from the Decolonizing Wealth Project, wraps up our Black History Month coverage. We begin with Trevor Smith writing about identity politics and what it means to Be a Reparationist. Then, film critic Jonita Davis will discuss her story about how pop culture shapes reparations. And finally, Torie Weiston-Serdan will explore Black-youth led spaces as a form of reparations.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/01/2024 - 6:00pm to 7:00pm - 60 minutes

ISSUE: Government/Politics/Legislation/Social Justice

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Prison Pipeline

DESCRIPTION: The Times They Are A-Changin'. Vice President Kamala Harris meets at the White House with marijuana legalization advocates. Plus, the UN Commission on Narcotic Drugs holds its Sixty-Seventh Session in Vienna, Austria. We hear from Volker Turk, High Commissioner for Human Rights; Winnie Byanyima, Executive Director of UNAIDS; His Excellency Doctor Manuel Pizarro, Minister of Health of Portugal; and Dr. Diego Andrés Lugo-Vivas with the International Coalition on Drug Policy Reform.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/18/2024 - 6:30pm to 7:00pm - 30 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Report, Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Project Censored

DESCRIPTION: Hollywood's Pentagon Propaganda; Deconstructing Disinformation; Critical Media Literacy Education. Filmmaker Roger Stahl describes the surprising breadth and depth of Pentagon and CIA influence over Hollywood movies and television shows. His 2022 documentary, "Theaters of War," examines how the military demands script changes as the price of its cooperation, with the aim of favorably portraying US military forces, both in recent and historical conflicts. Barbara McQuade joins the show to discuss her new book, "Attack from Within: How Disinformation is Sabotaging America", where she asserts that partisan media are playing a major role in the division of US society into hostile camps. Nolan Higdon returns for a conversation about the vital importance of critical media literacy.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/13/2024 - 10:00am to 11:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Keeping It Real, with Lisa Loving

DESCRIPTION: Our guest is Jan McManus from We Shine. They are a grassroots nonprofit of neighbors from north, northeast and southeast Portland working together to help find better solutions for people experiencing houselessness in Portland. We Shine designs, builds, and operates neighborhood-based micro-villages that provide safe, transitional shelter with wrap-around services for Portland's underserved, unsheltered adults as they prepare to become successful tenants in permanent, affordable housing.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/14/2024 - 8:00am to 9:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Report, Opinion

PROGRAM NAME: More Talk Radio

DESCRIPTION: Opposing Military Recruitment in Portland Public Schools. John Grueshow, of The War Resisters League, speaks about the work to resist military recruitment in Portland Public Schools. John became a peace activist as a result of his resistance to the military draft during the Vietnam War. The War Resisters League is an international organization based in New York City. Its core mission is to oppose all wars and a federal budget that prioritizes military spending over human needs. Locally, they focus primarily on restricting military recruiting in area schools and monitoring the behavior of military recruiters as they interact with our students. To this end, they regularly staff literature tables alongside the military and speak in the classes of sympathetic teachers.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/12/2024 - 8:00am to 9:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Report, Opinion

PROGRAM NAME: The Gap

DESCRIPTION: A Gubernatorial Cabal, Portland Sues Journalist to Protect Big Business and Whistling Our Inheritance. Tammy and Althea discuss the 25 Republican governors signing on to the idea that there's an "invasion" at the border. Biden isn't doing enough so they want to send their National Guard to put up more razor wire? Portland City Council votes unanimously to sue OPB and one of their reporters to keep info on which big businesses pay into the Portland Clean Energy Fund. Dan Ryan is running for City Council again, the short legislative session is coming and the Supreme Court picks up an Oregon homelessness story. – What is a thing/habit/trait that you've inherited from people in your life? What is something you hope younger people inherit from you?

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/26/2024 - 8:00am to 9:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Report, Opinion

PROGRAM NAME: Too Much Information

DESCRIPTION: Frozen in time. The Alabama Supreme Court has ruled that frozen embryos are, in fact, people. Because of course they did. What does it mean for would-be parents in Alabama, and for the increasingly slippery slope of reproductive freedom? Traci and Abe take listener calls.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/27/2024 - 8:00am to 9:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Report/Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Keeping Democracy Alive

DESCRIPTION: Waking the Sleeping Giant: 85 Million Americans. Politicians know the consequences of voters being ignored. There are tens of millions of people who used to be middle class but a revived Poor People's Campaign just may connect and inspire. Join host Burt Cohen with today's guest, campaign policy director Shailly Gupta Barnes, who thinks there's reason to believe all people do care about doing the right thing, that being moral cuts across the political spectrum and can have a big impact on the upcoming election and the direction of the country.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/07/2024 - 10:00am to 11:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Report/Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Radiozine, KBOO News In Depth

DESCRIPTION: The Oregon legislative session began on Monday February 5th. Lawmakers had just 5 weeks to address what they hope to accomplish, and one big agenda item is Measure 1-10, Oregon's Drug Decriminalization measure. In 2020, voters passed the measure to decriminalize the possession of small amounts of drugs and to redirect cannabis tax dollars towards treatment and recovery services, specifically ones that Medicaid doesn't cover. Now, lawmakers plan to re-criminalize possession of small amounts of drugs in response to public outcry about public drug use. On KBOO News in Depth this week, we've been examining the issues, both with what the data says, and how the funds from the measure are being used in the community.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/09/2024 - 8:00am to 9:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Report/Interview

PROGRAM NAME: KBOO Evening News

DESCRIPTION: State Database of Police Deadly Force is Incomplete and Inaccurate. Police killings in Oregon may not be documented properly by Oregon officials. Portland Copwatch released a report on Monday with findings from their project tracking deadly force incidents involving Law enforcement in the State of Oregon. The report found 74 cases in which a police killing was not entered into the Oregon Department of Justice's database at all. It found an additional 56 cases on the books that included errors like misspelled names, incorrect dates, and inadequate information around the race of the victims. KBOO reporters Sam Bouman and Jasmin Moss spoke with Portland Copwatch.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/22/2024 - 5:00pm to 5:30pm - 30 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Report/Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Alternative Radio

DESCRIPTION: When Lunatics Run the Asylum. The future of humankind and the planet are in danger from the twin existential threats of terminal nuclear war and climate catastrophe. The response? The Biden administration is following through on Pentagon plans to modernize its nuclear arsenal. Instead of eliminating these weapons of mass destruction, we are upgrading them. And the clock is ticking louder and louder on the climate emergency. The response? A massive new oil drilling project in Alaska. Seem illogical? Not really. These are the kinds of outcomes you can expect when lunatics run the asylum. Noam Chomski is our featured guest/speaker.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/05/2024 - 9:00am to 10:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Radiozine

DESCRIPTION: Presidential candidate Jill Stein. Join KBOO volunteer and member of KBOO's board of directors, Sherry Morisch on a conversation with third party presidential candidate Jill Stein. --- Birth date: May 14, 1950 (age 73). Birthplace: Chicago, IL. Party: Green. Education: Harvard College; Harvard Medical School (M.D.). Current profession: Internal medicine doctor and environmental activist. Former professions: co-founder, Massachusetts Coalition for Healthy Communities; 2006 Green-Rainbow candidate for Massachusetts secretary of state; 2002 Massachusetts gubernatorial candidate; 2016 presidential candidate. --- Recorded on Monday 02/26/2024 at KBOO Studios.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/21/2024 - 9:00am to 10:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Radiozine

DESCRIPTION: Interview with Dr Cornel West. Join KBOO volunteer and chair of KBOO's board of directors, Emma Lugo on a conversation with Independent Presidential Candidate Dr. Cornel West on his recent visit to Portland on January 21st, where he announced Oregon to be the second state where he has obtained ballot access with the Oregon Progressive Party. Dr. West also spoke at an event featuring Portugal the Man and KBOO's own Mic Crenshaw at the Old Church in downtown Portland. Dr West said he is running for truth and justice as a presidential candidate to reintroduce America to the best of itself, i.e. fighting to end poverty, mass incarceration, ending wars and ecological collapse, guaranteeing housing, health care, education and living wages for all.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/24/2024 - 9:30am to 10:00am - 30 minutes

ISSUE: Labor, Economics and Basic Needs

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Labor Radio

DESCRIPTION: Portland Community College Classified Employees Strike-Ready Ready to Strike. Meryl DePasquale and Briar Schreiber, leaders of the Portland Community College Federation of Classified Employees, explain their struggle for a contract with living wages, healthcare, and job security. Recently staging marches and rallies at Sylvania, Rock Creek, Cascade and Southeast campuses, union members have pledged to strike, if needed to get a fair settlement.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/26/2024 - 6:00pm to 6:30pm - 30 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Old Mole Variety Hour

DESCRIPTION: Library, Labor, Literature, Lawsuits, and Lies about taxes. Fort Vancouver Regional Library workers struggle for a living wage, drawing connections with regional library systems and national library privatization firms. Book Mole: The Berry Pickers, A four year old Mi'kmaq girl vanishes from a berry field in Maine; Left and the Law: Taking Oil Companies to Court; There are now 30 lawsuits against oil companies underway in cities and states around the US, including here in the Pacific Northwest; Don't Believe the Hype! Portland does NOT Have the Highest Taxes in the Country!; Local economist Mary King debunks the business lobby talking point that we have the highest taxes in the country.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/25/2024 - 9:00am to 10:00am - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Rising Up With Sonali

DESCRIPTION: Join host Sonali Kolhatkar on a conversation with Anoa Changa about how to redefine ideas of economic growth by building A People's Prosperity. We discuss examples of how grassroots leaders are building institutions that benefit everyone involved, including the environment, rather than privileging a few. Then, Dr. Bettina Love will discuss the idea of educational reparations, central to her new book, Punished for Dreaming: How School Reform Harms Black Children and How We Heal.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/05/2024 - 6:00pm to 7:00pm - 60 minutes

ISSUE: Science and Technology

PROGRAM TYPE: Discussion, Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Exploration, with Michio Kaku

DESCRIPTION: Human Genetic Engineering. American theoretical physicist, activist, and popular-science writer Dr. Michio Kaku, speaks to Dr. Greg Stock, American biophysicist, best-selling author, biotech entrepreneur, and the former director of the Program on Medicine, Technology and Society at the University of California Los Angeles' (UCLA) School of Medicine. Greg Stock's interests lie in the scientific and evolutionary as well as ethical, social and political implications of today's revolutions in the life sciences and in information technology and computers

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/31/2024 - 7:00pm to 8:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Big Picture Science

DESCRIPTION: Inside Planets. Join hosts Seth Shostak, Senior Astronomer at SETI (Institute for the Search of Extraterrestrial Intelligence) and Molly Bentley, Science Journalist and Podcast Producer. With planets and moons, it is what's inside that counts. If we want to understand surface features, like volcanoes, or their history, such as how the planet formed or whether it is suitable for life, we study their interiors. Astronomer Sabine Stanley takes us on a journey to the centers of Venus, Saturn's large moon Titan, Jupiter's moon Io, and of course Earth, to help us understand how they, and the solar system, came to be.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/31/2024 - 11:00am to 12:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: The Imaginary Possible

DESCRIPTION: The Early Days of Artificial Intelligence. Join Suzanne LaGrande on the final episode of this limited series. Learn how AI and computer science evolved. We speak with computer scientist, software architect, and writer, Rudd Canaday about the early history of Artificial Intelligence and the evolution of computer science. The Imaginary Possible is a show about the captivating potentials and troubling realities of AI today.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/11/2024 - 9:00am to 9:30am - 30 minutes

ISSUE: Arts and Culture

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: The Global Sail

DESCRIPTION: Tonight, we take you to host TK Taparura's homeland, Zimbabwe. He in turn will take you sailing to Ecuador and Mexico, where his guests Marco and Raquel hail from. They discuss culture, foods, christmas, weddings and funerals, politics and like always music from the countries in question, in this case Ecuador and Mexico. Live in the airroom, The Global Sail takes you on a one hour trip to different cultures, nations and peoples, highlighting the immigrant experience in America, and also as a reminder of our commonality as people, regardless of how different we might be from each other.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/06/2024 - 7:00pm to 8:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Once Upon A Time

DESCRIPTION: Topaz, a poet. On this episode of Once Upon a Time, we have an individual who describes himself as a dreaded poet philosopher. Topaz has been recently published in the poetry anthology The Circle, published by Pierian Springs Press. He will be sharing autobiographical short stories from his books The Handbook of Poetic Phonetics and Poetic Phonetics: Post homeless Disorder. With a dash of humor, a pinch of honesty and freshly grated wordplay, his writing shares a perspective not often represented in the world of literature.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/02/2024 - 11:00am to 12:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Art Focus

DESCRIPTION: Lincoln High School Mural. On Tuesday, January 23rd, Joseph Gallivan interviews artists Shu-Ju Wang and Lynn Yarne about the new mural at Lincoln High School called Restoration Roadmaps. They talk about how they used historical documents to come up with the design of animals and plants surrounding a map of Goose Hollow, the importance of consulting students about what they wanted included on the mural, and the passage from gouache drawings to finished product. This show was recorded on Zoom videoconferencing software on January 19th, and edited by KBOO volunteer Liam Gallivan.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/23/2024 - 11:30am to 12:00pm - 30 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Review

PROGRAM NAME: Film at 11

DESCRIPTION: A suite of reviews. This week, the Film at 11 crew talk about Ghost World (Jeff Godsil), Three Outlaw Samurai and Dragon Inn (Gremlin Time's Matthew), and reviews of I am Greta, Fireball: Visitors from Darker Worlds, the new documentary from Werner Herzog, and the Criterion Collection release of The Irishman, and the BFI Film Classic on La Dolce Vita.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/16/2024 - 10:30am to 11:00am - 30 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: The Poet and The Poem

DESCRIPTION: Host Grace Cavalieri speaks with Kristin Kowalski Ferragut. Kristin writes poetry, songs, short stories and essays. She lives in Maryland where she teaches, plays guitar, sings, rides her bike, and hosts the DiVerse Gaithersburg Poetry Reading and Open Mic. She is author of the full-length poetry collection Escape Velocity (Kelsay Books, 2021) and the children's book Becoming the Enchantress: A Magical Transgender Tale (Loving Healing Press, 2021). Her poetry has appeared in Beltway Quarterly, Bourgeon, Anti-Heroin Chic, Fledgling Rag, Little Patuxent Review, and Gargoyle Magazine.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 03/01/2024 - 10:00am to 10:30am - 30 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Bookwaves/Artwaves

DESCRIPTION: Host Richard Wolinsky speaks with Tayari Jones. She discusses her novel "An American Marriage", about what happens to a marriage when the husband, an African American man, is wrongly accused of a crime and goes to prison. Jones, a 2021 Guggenheim Fellow, has been a recipient of the Hurston/Wright Legacy Award, United States Artist Fellowship, NEA Fellowship, and Radcliffe Institute Bunting Fellowship. Her third novel, Silver Sparrow, was added to the NEA Big Read Library of classics in 2016. Jones is a graduate of Spelman College, University of Iowa, and Arizona State University. She is an Andrew D. White Professor-at-Large at Cornell University and the Charles Howard Candler Professor of Creative Writing at Emory University.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/04/2024 - 11:00am to 11:30am - 30 minutes

ISSUE: LGBTQ+ Affairs

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Transpositive PDX

DESCRIPTION: Transgender Substance Abuse and Recovery Stories. We talk with Gigi, Nicolette, Sheila and Emma about transgender addiction and recovery stories, as well as issues related to substance abuse in gender diverse communities. Transpositive PDX is a biweekly program in Portland exploring themes important to those who identify as Transgender, Gender Non-Binary, and Gender Non-Conforming. This show tries to connect listeners with the ongoing activist, arts, culture, and dialogue happening in Portland and beyond. Make your voice heard!

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/20/2024 - 6:00pm to 7:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Report, Interview

PROGRAM NAME: This Way Out

DESCRIPTION: A Kenyan Mother Bear's Queer Children's Burden, plus global LGBTQ News. Part 1 - A Kenyan mom joins the struggle for her queer daughters; Burundi's president calls for all queers to be stoned to death; Israel's top court opens adoption to same-gender couples; Estonia begins accepting marriage license applications from gay and lesbian couples; all this and more. Part 2 - A Kenyan mom turns mother bear for queer kids; France gets Prime Minister and Foreign Ministers; Taiwan elects an LGBTQ-supportive President; a Greek marriage equality bill goes to Parliament; a Vietnamese footballer marries her girlfriend in a historic ceremony; all of this and more.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/30/2024 - 6:00pm to 7:00pm - 60 minutes

PROGRAM TYPE: Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Sprouts

DESCRIPTION: A View from A Transgender Elder. In our heated national conversation about transgender youth, one major stakeholder's voice has been largely silent: transgender elders. Sandy Stone is now known as the founder of Transgender Studies, a performance artist, and a noted recording engineer. But she first stepped away from her parents home as a confused boy, unsure of why her inner self didn't match external expectations. Sandy explains how she navigated a world where the word "transgender" wasn't even coined yet, and sheds light on the experiences and needs of today's transgender youth. She explains, "I really became a person, a human being, when I became a woman."

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 01/25/2024 - 9:30am to 10:00am - 30 minutes

ISSUE: Transportation

PROGRAM TYPE: Report/Interview

PROGRAM NAME: The Bike Show

DESCRIPTION: News and views of cycling in Portland and beyond, with Alon Raab. Whether you haven't pushed a pedal since you were a kid or logged thousands of miles in the past year, we present something for every listener. We take an in-depth look at cycling and transportation as they affect our everyday lives, with live interviews of about recreation, transportation, politics, business and finance, equity, public health, economic development, and the very special culture of bike fun that thrives in Portland.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/07/2024 - 11:00am to 12:00pm - 60 minutes

ISSUE: Houselessness

PROGRAM TYPE: Report/Interview

PROGRAM NAME: Out of the Streets of Portland

DESCRIPTION: Supportive Housing Services: How It Works. Today we explore the impact of the Supportive Housing Services measure, passed by Metro area voters in 2020. The ten year region-wide program goals include connecting 5,000 chronically homeless households with supportive housing, building new outreach teams, stabilizing 10,000 households experiencing or at risk of homelessness in permanent housing and expanding the network of culturally specific service providers. In 2023, Multnomah County met most of the annual goals set by Metro for implementation of the supportive housing services measure, and 99% of people housed in 2022 remained in housing a year later.

DATE/TIME/DURATION: 02/09/2024 - 11:00am to 11:30am - 30 minutes

