ISSUE	STORY TITLE	PRODUCER (LAST NAME, I.E.: ROSS)	GUESTS (NAME,JOB)	NARRATIVE	DURATION	AIR DATE 1	AIR TIME 1	AIR DATE 2	AIR TIME 2	AIR DATE 3	AIR TIME 3
	Live Lunch: King Kaiju		, , ,	An hour-long conversation & musical performance with loca band, King Kaiju and lead	I				, 2	71111 57112 3	7 III TIIVLE S
Arts & Culture		Ross	King Kaiju (local Band)	singer Ryan Gilchrist	1:00:00	7/14/2023	12:00 PM
Investigation	Kentucky flood cleanup nets big payday for debris removal industry	BENNETT	John Collins, flood survivor; Samantha Montano, an emergency management professor at the Massachusetts Maritime Academy	Jared Bennett with the Kentucky Center for Investigative Reporting looks at flood cleanup efforts in eastern Kentucky, particularly how government agencies and contractors are getting caught up in miscommunications nearly a year after the disaster.	3:36	7/17/2023	4:45:00 PM	7/18/2023	3 6:45:00 AN	Л
vc3ugauon	indudi y	DEINIE!!	Manufic Addding	diodotoi.	5.50	171172023	7.70.00 i W	1/10/2020	0.40.00 Al			+
Energy	Coal's Dying Light: The decline of coal is hurting Ky. and communities across the country	Van Velzer	Nick Sturgill, mine director; Brian Anderson, leader of a federal group working to revitalize the areas bearing a heavy economic burden; Sen. Phillip Wheeler of Pikeville; Randy Brock, former miner; Mary Cromer, deputy director for the Appalachian Citizens Law Center.	Ryan Van Velzer with member station WFPL reports on the world's dwindling appetite for coal and how the communities that once mined the fossil fuel in eastern Kentucky are struggling to adapt.		7/19/2023	6:45:00 AM	7/19/2023	3:45:00 PM	Л
Arts & Culture	Former Ky. Teacher of the Year on new book of poetry, how 'school is magic'	OPERLE	Willie Carver Jr., 2022 Kentucky Teacher of the Year	WKMS News Director Derek Operle talks with Kentucky's 2022 Teacher of the Year Willie Carver Jr. about his new book of poetry Gay Poems for Red States and the power that teachers have to change students lives.	11:00	7/19/2023	12:15:00 PM
Energy	Coal's dying light: With help of federal dollars, coal communities could lead the Kentucky's energy transition	Van Velzer	Todd DePriest, Jenkins Mayor; Brian Anderson, Federal Coal Communities Representative; Gail Manchin, Appalachia Regional Commission co-chair	As coal mining communities try to adapt to the nation's transition away from the fossil fuel, Ryan Van Velzer with member station WFPL reports there's more federal funding than ever to help diversify coal based economiesif that money ever gets into those communities' hands.	- 3:23	7/20/2023	4:45:00 PM	7/21/2023	3 6:45:00 AN	Л

Energy	Coal's Dying Light: Kentucky's slow walk toward renewable energy A Bowling Green-based group	Van Velzer	Bec Feldhaus Adams, LPM News Director Idella Hansen, Long-Haul Trucker; Bobby Coffey-Loy,	Bec Feldhaus-Adams and Ryan Van Velzer with member station WFPL discuss the future of coal in Kentucky, and where the state's major electric utilities will turn to in the coming years to meet the state's energy needs. As the trucking industry works to solve a driver shortage, a group in Bowling Green is working to support women and	3:37	7/21/2023	3:45:00 PM	7/24/2023	6:45:00 AM
	is offering resources and support for LGBTQ-plus semi-		founder of the LGBTQ+ Truckers Network; Roni Hazel Sherman,	members of the LGBTQ-plus community who may fill these nomy	truck drivers nationwide	Martin	Trucker	seats.	3:03	7/24/2023	4:45:00 PM	7/25/2023	6:45:00 AM
Environment/	Eastern Kentucky still recovering one year after devastating flood	Bennett		This week marks one year since deadly floods devastated eastern Kentucky. In some of the hardest-hit areas, some people are still waiting for help to recover from the disaster.	3:12	7/27/2023	4:45:00 PM	7/28/2023	6:45:00 AM
Public Safety	Kentucky Humanities interview	Lamb	Derek Beavan, Spokesman	Kentucky Humanities is hosting a four-part webinar series every other Tuesday for the next two months. The first webinar is on August 1st and will cover how cultural heritage and arts communities can prepare for disasters while also providing information useful for personal homeowners as well. WKMS Student Reporter Zacharie Lamb spoke with Kentucky Humanities's Derek Beavan about what participants can expect from the webinars.	7:27	8/1/2023	12:15:00 PM
	Cyber Bytes: Ransomware Attacks on Healthcare	Ross	Michael Ramage, Director of the Cyber Education and Research Center at Murray State University	Tracy Ross speaks with Michael Ramage about the recent increase in ransomware attacks on healthcare institutions on the latest episode on Cyber Bytes			12:15:00 PM

Politics	Transgender activist Emma Curtis says young, bold LGBTQ+ candidates can energize the state Democratic Party	KARTHIKEYAN	Emma Curtis, president of the Fayette County Young Democrats	Divya Karthikeyan with member station WFPL talks with Emma Curtis a transgender activist who was recently elected president of the Fayette County Young Democrats about what she's learned as a political organizer and why Gen Z and LGBTQ-PLUS candidates are trying to get politically involved.	3:22	8/18/2023	7:45:00 AM	8/18/2023	4:45:00 PM
Cinema	MSU Cinema International Season Preview	Ross	Therese St. Paul, Director of Murray State's Cinema International Program	Tracy Ross and Therese St. Paul Preview the new slate of Cinema International Films at Murray State University.	5:19	8/23/2023	12:15:00 PM
Society	Starting from Scratch: Bizinka Bakery celebrates Ukrainian Independence Day in Union City this Saturday	/ BURNETT, ASIA	Konstantin Kostanyan - Baker, Union City TN & Ukrainian Refugee	August 24th is the Independence Day of Ukraine. To celebrate, some local Ukrainians have programs at the Discovery Park of America in Union City, Tennessee, this Saturday. We talked with local baker, Konstantin Kostanyan about the event, his experience as a Ukrainian refugee and adjusting to life in Tennessee.	16:02	8/24/2023	12:15:00 PM
Education; Government	Report shows funding gap between Ky.'s poorest and wealthiest districts now worse	Clark		The Kentucky General Assembly created a funding formula 35 years ago to bridge the funding gap between the state's wealthiest and poorest school districts. However, a new report from a left-leaning think tank found that the funding gap between rich and poor districts is now larger than it was in 1990.	3:23	8/25/2023	3:45:00 PM	8/28/2023	7:45:00 AM
Music	Sierra Hull To Perform At WKCTC's Clemens Fine Arts Center September 8	Ross		Tracy Ross speaks with Sierra Hull ahead of her performance September 8 at WKCTC's Clemens Fine Arts Center	11:48	9/1/2023
Music	2023 Local Licks Festival To Benefit Oscar Cross Boys & Girls Club of Paducah	Ross	Nathan Brown, Secretary/Board Member of Oscar Cross Boys & Girls Club of Paducah	Tracy Ross and Nathan Brown preview the 2023 Local Licks Festival Happening Saturday at Paducah Beer Werks	6:24	9/6/2023	12:15:00 PM

Cinema	Cinema International Presents "Mirriam Lies" This Week	Ross	Therese St. Paul, professor/Director of Cinema International, Ben Post, professor	Tracy Ross, Therese St. Paul, and Ben Post preview this week's Cinema International Film, "Mirriam Lies"	6:59	9/6/2023	12:15:00 PM
Arts & Culture	Pennyroyal Arts Council hosts fundraiser for local theater at historic Alhambra	Lamb		The Pennyroyal Arts Councils is presenting "An Evening on Broadway" at the historic Alhambra theater in Hopkinsville. The performance is a benefit concert for local theater programs in Christian County. WKMS Student Reporter Zacharie Lamb spoke with PAC Executive Director Margaret Prim about what show-goers and theater enthusiasts can expect.	9:01	9/7/2023	12:15:00 PM
uiture	historic Amambra	Lamb	Margaret Prim, Executive Director		9:01	9///2023	12: 15:00 PM
lealth	It's National Recovery Month. Kentuckians show support for harm reduction to prevent drug overdoses	Watkins	Moseley Hyde, People Advocating Recovery CEO; Stacy Warner, Overdose Awareness event attendee;	more action to stop drug overdoses.	3:15	9/7/2023	3:45:00 PM	9/8/2023	7:45:00 AM
	Cinema International Presents: "The People Vs. Larry Flynt"		Paul Foote, Associate Professor of Political Science; Therese St.	Tracy Ross discusses this week's Cinema International film, :The People Vs. Larry Flynt" with Paul Foote and
Cinema		Ross	Paul, Director of the Cinema International Program	Therese St. Paul.	7:38	9/14/2023	12:15:00 PM
rts & culture	MSU hosts Annette Saunooke Clapsaddle in writer's residency	Sand		Assistant news director Hannah Saad speaks with author Annette Saunooke Clapsaddlewho is in town this week as part of the Clinton and Mary Opal Moore Appalachian Writer's Residency at Murray State University. She is an enrolled citizen of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, and discussed how she incorporates Native American experiences into her writing.	9:43	0/15/2022	12:15:00 PM

Arts & Culture	Thile to blend classical, bluegrass during In Harmony tour stop in Murray with Louisville Orchestra	Operle	Chris Thile	Coming up WKMS News Director Derek Operle chats with mandolinist extraordinaire Chris Thile about his upcoming concert on campus with the Louisville Symphony Orchestra, and how his latest musical adventure is blending his brand of bluegrass with classical forms.	10:52	9/13/2023	12:15:00 PM
Arts & Culture	Pennyroyal Arts Council hosts fundraiser for local theater at historic Alhambra	Lamb	Margaret Prim, Executive Director	The Pennyroyal Arts Councils is presenting "An Evening on Broadway" at the historic Alhambra theater in Hopkinsville. The performance is a benefit concert for local theater programs in Christian County. WKMS Student Reporter Zacharie Lamb spoke with PAC Executive Director Margaret Prim about what show-goers and theater enthusiasts can expect.	9:01	9/7/2023	12:15:00 PM
Agriculture	Bonsai for Beginners class offers education in potted plants	Lamb	Jim Gould, Bonsai artists	Thursday, The McCracken County Public library will be hosting '101 Series: Bonsai for Beginners' which aims to share the rich artistry and history of Bonsai trees and tips on how to get started. WKMS Student Reporter Zacharie Lamb spoke with Bonsai artist Jim Gould who will be leading class discussion to learn more about what makes the potted-plant tradition so unique.	8:48	9/12/2023	12:15:00 AM

Arts & Murray State Cinema Theresa St. Paul, Program International coordinator			Lamb	_		11:18	9/28/2023	12:15:00
--	--	--	------	---	--	-------	-----------	----------