BORINQUEN RADIO NETWORK, is a subsidiary of NOTIRADIO BROADCASTING, LLC licensee of the above mentioned radio stations and its translator stations.

The following programs and or PSA announcements are an example of the public service programming the network will be offering for the next three months. The network is an all news/talk offering 17 hours daily information, news, and interviews about community served main concerns.

INITIATIVES BEING FOLLOWED:

Two journalists are contracted to make interviews on the most important issues affecting the community. At least 18 such interviews are broadcast daily at least 12 minutes each. These interviews include follow-up on main issues affecting the community on a daily basis.

As a CNN affiliate BORINQUEN RADIO NETWORK rebroadcasts CNN newscast all day long. 'Directo USA' (a 1hr newscast) daily and Panorama Mundial (1 hr newscast weekends) is also transmitted.

Borinquen Radio Network rebroadcasts LAS NOTICIAS/TELEONCE audio at 12m, 4pm, 5pm. This way a different point of view on daily issues is offered to the listener. Portions of a morning news/talk show (TU MANANA) that will begin promptly at TeleOnce will be broadcast too.

'Choque de Opiniones': a one hour discusión between democrat and republican analysts on important issues produced by CNN is broadcast every Sunday.

'Trending': a local one hour discussion on National and Local issues is broadcast every Saturday in the afternoon, hosted by Angel Javier who interviews different people each week to analyze the latest issues.

WBQN BORINQUEN RADIO NETWORK is an all news/talk radio station that continuously broadcasts short interviews with head government officials, majors, legislators, emergency management personnel, weather service officials, worker unions officials, and much more to keep community informed on all aspects of the main issues affecting the community.

‘Opine Usted’ Every night at 1.5 hours and weekends at 4 hours is dedicated to receiving listeners phone calls on their concerns, needs, and opinion of daily news events or community needs.

‘La rebelion de las canas’: a half hour public service program granted to the Association of Retired Electric Power Employees. It is broadcasted three times a week to address the issue of privatization of the electric power company and how it affect the society and the pension payment of electric power company retired persons.

‘Editorial Announcement against privatization of electric power company’: This PSA has been broadcast over the past two years on how the privatization of the state’s power company affects negatively the community. The licensee of the station, an electrical engineer who worked for PR POWER COMPANY (PREPA) for over 15 years, explains how bad it is for Puerto Rico to privatize the administration of PREPA’s generation and power distribution.

‘Poniendole los puntos sobre las ies’: Ex Speaker of the House of Representatives, Jose Ronaldo Jarabo has a one hour program daily to analyze the main political, health and social issues.
