

WGVX/Y/Z-FM RADIO

Minneapolis/St. Paul

Quarterly Issues and Program Report

3rd Quarter – October 9th, 2013

Dates: July 1st – September 30th, 2013

This station airs four 30-minute programs weekly. We address local and statewide community issues and concerns.

Current Schedule:

4:30 am – 5:00 am	The Best of Our Knowledge
5:00 am – 5:30 am	Viewpoints
5:30 am – 6:00 am	Minnesota This Week
6:00 am – 6:30 am	Martha Fast Horse Show

Public Affairs Programs

THE Best of our Knowledge – is a 30 minute program produced by National Productions that is hosted by Bob Barrett. It highlights breakthroughs across disciplines and across the globe putting listeners at the forefront of their fields. Each week this program examines some of the issues unique to education, looks at the research and invites commentary from experts and administrators from all levels of education.

Viewpoints – is a 30 minute program produced by Media Tracks; moderator host, Shel Lustig. Program covers health care, crime reduction, economy, political issues, and many other important local and global issues.

Minnesota This week – is produced locally by Radio City Network News; hosted by Curtis Beckmann. Issues covered revolve around local issues, with an emphasis on social services/community involvement.

Martha Fast Horse Show– is a 30 minute program, hosted by Martha Fast Horse, The program covers local issues relating to the Native American communities including public and cultural affairs.

The following issues were addressed during this quarter:

1. Economy
2. Education
3. Environment
4. Health
5. Legal/Law
6. Miscellaneous
7. Urban

Economy

MN This Week	8/11/2013	Moderator Curtis Beckmann. Guest: Professor Jeanne Boeh, Augsburg College Department of Economics. She talks about upcoming deadlines and the inability of Congress to adopt a budget. She spells out the various elements of the U.S. debt.
View Points	8/18/2013	Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Gar Alperovitz, Lionel R. Bauman. Cooperatives are everywhere – from credit unions to farmers’ markets to hardware stores – but do they have enough muscle to really change our economy? We talk to three co-op specialists about the history of these business models, how they compete in the world of corporations and small business, and how they offer a unique alternative to commerce that can not only make money and employ workers, but also bring communities together.
Best of our Knowledge	9/10/2013	There’s an awful lot of money involved in higher education...and that’s not even going into the cost of attending college for a student. More and more, universities and colleges are becoming some of the leading economic drivers of their communities. Today on the Best Of Our Knowledge, we’ll find out the financial impact of college. We’ll also hear about the latest apps for the classroom, and spend an academic minute with the question: “What’s the deal with hot lava?”

Education

Best of our Knowledge	7/7/2013	Host Bob Barrett. The question of race is never easy...and it’s not going away anytime soon. This week on The Best Of Our Knowledge, a look at High Schools, Race, and America’s Future. We’ll also spend an academic minute looking at the evolution of skin color.
Best of our Knowledge	7/14/2013	Host Bob Barrett. We hear a lot about the amount of debt many students take on while attending college. But how many of those schools are making sure those students know how to deal with that debt...or even understand it once they graduation? Today on The Best Of Our Knowledge, we’ll hear about one northeast school that now mandates courses in financial literacy for all their students.
MN this Week	7/14/2013	Moderator Curtis Beckmann. GUEST: Todd Otis, Dir., Community Partnerships, Think Small. The guest’s organization represents efforts to fund pre-K education in Minnesota. He describes steps taken by the recently-adjourned state legislature to increase funding for children of economically disadvantaged families.
Best of our Knowledge	8/4/2013	Host Bob Barrett. As we get ready for the new school year, a lot of students are making plans for life after high school. For the majority of those students that means trying to get into the college of their choice...and that means it time for another choice: the ACT or the SAT. Today on the Best Of Our Knowledge, we’ll talk to one of the authors of the book Ace The A.C.T, and find out some secrets for test taking happiness.

Education

Best of our Knowledge	8/11/2013	Host Bob Barrett. There's an awful lot of learning and training going on in colleges and universities across the US, but according to a new book...not a lot of thinking. Today on the Best Of Our Knowledge, we'll hear why some people in education are saying "why teach". We'll also hear from the mother of a 14 year old literal genius...who was never expected to be able to tie his own shoes. And spend an academic minute imaging an emotional brain.
View Points	8/11/2013	Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Elizabeth Ü Starting a small business is a lot of work, and many of them fail – or never get off the ground in the first place. We talk to two entrepreneur specialists about some of the important points that need to be considered when you're thinking of starting your own business, and how to avoid some of the pitfalls of going out on your own.
MN this Week	8/18/2013	Moderator Curtis Beckmann. Guest: Gary Amoroso, Ex. Dir., Minnesota Association of School Administrators. He talks about issues that continue to face public and private schools and prospects for the coming school year.
Best of our Knowledge	8/18/2013	Host Bob Barrett. When searching for the origins of life on earth you're going to need a few basic things in your toolbox. One is patience. Another is an understanding of the chemical make-up of life. Today on the Best Of Our Knowledge, our Astro-biology series returns with a look at the chemical make-up of Earth...and how it compares to the earth of a few billion years ago. We'll also spend an academic minute with the really nasty chemistry that goes on the in box jelly fish near the Hawaiian Islands. Part 1
Best of our Knowledge	8/25/2013	Host Bob Barrett. When searching for the origins of life on earth you're going to need a few basic things in your toolbox. One is patience. Another is an understanding of the chemical make-up of life. Today on the Best Of Our Knowledge, our Astro-biology series returns with a look at the chemical make-up of Earth...and how it compares to the earth of a few billion years ago. We'll also spend an academic minute with the really nasty chemistry that goes on the in box jelly fish near the Hawaiian Islands. Part 2
Best of our Knowledge	9/1/2013	Host Bob Barrett. Where can you find the smartest kids in the world? It's not an easy question. It's probably not even a fair question. But it's a question that one journalist and author sought to answer by following three US students as they studied in countries with some of the best education outcomes in the world. Today on the Best Of Our Knowledge, the search for the smartest kids in the world. Then we'll turn around and look the other way to hear how four students from large cities around the world cope in a tiny...and I mean tiny Montana town. And we'll spend an academic minute looking at the other leg in the stool...evaluating teachers.

Education

Best of our Knowledge	9/8/2013	Host Bob Barrett. As we begin another college and professional football season, there is still a lot of talk about how to rid the sports world of performance enhancing drugs. All of the college and major sports leagues in the US have drug testing programs...but how exactly do those programs work? Today on the Best Of Our Knowledge, we'll take a look at drug testing programs in sports from the point of view of the scientists who conduct them. We'll also spend an academic minute finding out the cost of hiring a smoker.
View Points	9/8/2013	Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Tim Larkin. Safety is a concern that's always on the minds of women – it's like they have a sixth sense for knowing when a person or group isn't safe. Yet, because of socialization, many women will get on the elevator alone with a strange man, despite the alarm bells going off in their heads; or she'll walk alone to her car in a dark parking garage so she doesn't inconvenience the other women in the group. We talk to a self-protection expert about why it's not wrong to listen to your "gut," and why any woman – or man – should be able to lash out and injure an attacker in order to avoid being seriously harmed.
Best of our Knowledge	9/15/2013	Host Bob Barrett. Think about the amount of information contained in a seed. The entire genetic make-up and building block of the plant is all right there in a tiny little nub. However, according to Janisse Ray, whole volumes of that information are being lost. She says the explosion of industrial farms and genetically modified seeds is homogenizing what was once a universe of diversity in the plant world. Janisse Ray is an author, naturalist and activist. She is on the faculty of Chatham University's low-residency MFA program and in 2007 was awarded an honorary doctorate from Unity College in Maine. Her latest book is called "The Seed Underground - A Growing Revolution To Save Food". We spoke recently and I asked her how a poet and teacher got involved with seeds.
Best of our Knowledge	9/22/2013	Host Bob Barrett. This year marks the 100th anniversary of the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson as president of the United States. Now, after more than a decade of research and writing, Pulitzer Prize-winning author A Scott Berg has written " Wilson ", the most personal and penetrating biography ever written about the 28th President. Wilson is a commanding and revealing portrait of one of America's most influential yet misunderstood presidents.
View Points	9/29/2013	Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Daniel Leyson. Anyone who saw the movie, "Schindler's List," can't help but be moved by the heroism of Oskar Schindler, the factory owner and war profiteer who saved scores of Jews from certain death in the Nazi concentration camps of World War II. We talk to the son of one of the survivors of the real Schindler's List, about his father's time in the camp and factory, and his life in America after the war.

Environment

View Points

7/7/2013

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Derick Fabert. We've had a lot of very extreme and dangerous weather this year, and forecasting has kept many people out of harm's way by warning them of dangerous storms, floods and extreme heat. But weather forecasters have their share of errors too. Just how do they create their forecasts? And how accurate can they get? We talk to two forecasters about how meteorologists put a forecast together, the technology they rely on, why they can't get it right every time.

View Points

7/21/2013

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Judith D. Schwartz. A lot has been written about ways to mitigate greenhouse gases from the atmosphere, but not much has been said about how soil and cows can help achieve this goal. We talk to an author and soil researcher about how soil conservation, smart tillage, cover crops and dairy cattle management can reduce the amount of carbon and methane expelled into the air and, in the process, enrich the soil and keep dairy cattle healthy and productive.

MN this Week

9/22/2013

Moderator Curtis Beckmann. Guest: Bob Moffitt, Dir., Communications, American Lung Association, Minnesota. The guest recently traveled to North Dakota to make presentations to that state's environmentalists, now faced with the need to capture and use the natural gas that results in the state's fracking for oil operations. The gas is now burned off...the environmentalists want it to be used to power natural gas-burning vehicles.

Health

View Points

7/28/2013

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Martha Grimes. Alcoholism is a serious problem in the U.S., and recognizing and recovering from it is a long and arduous journey. We talk to a best-selling author and her son, both of whom battle alcoholism, about their years of drinking, how they stopped and how they manage to remain on the wagon despite the temptations in our drinking culture.

View Points

9/15/2013

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Bill Copeland. With the beginning of the school year comes the beginning of bullying for some kids and ostracism for others. But why do kids do it? How does it really affect the victim – and the tormenter? Does bullying have long-lasting effects for some kids? How can parents and schools work to make the school experience a good one for all kids? We talk to two behavior specialists about the issues of ostracism and bullying and find out why they happen and what can be done to stop these behaviors.

Legal / Law

MN this Week	7/7/2013	Moderator Curtis Beckmann. Guest: David Schultz, Hamline University professor of law and political science, talks about coming elections and issues that divide members of Congress in the weeks and months ahead.
MN This Week	8/4/2013	Moderator Curtis Beckmann. Guest: Richard Frase, Professor, University of Minnesota Law School. He discusses issues that came to the fore with the acquittal of George Zimmerman, in the shooting death of Trayvon Martin in Florida. He describes the “stand your ground” law that appeared to allow the action.
View Points	9/1/2013	Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Harlow Giles Unger. When someone asks “who’s your favorite president?” most people say Lincoln or Washington or Jefferson or Reagan or Clinton, or some other famous commander-in-chief. The name John Quincy Adams rarely makes anyone’s top 3 list. But that’s because what he did as president pales in comparison to what he did before and after he had the top job. We talk to John Quincy’s biographer about the triumphs of liberty, equality, peace and justice our sixth president won not as president, but as a true patriot outside the White House.

Miscellaneous

View Points	7/7/2013	Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Jason Matthews. One of the most popular literary and film genres is the spy thriller. What’s more exciting than reading about Jack Ryan or Nick Carter taking on America’s enemies in a cat-and-mouse game of espionage? But is working overseas for the CIA really like that? Do Americans “spy” or do they get others to do it for them? We talk to two veteran CIA officers about their jobs working in clandestine services overseas, how they recruited foreign nationals to work for them, and find out why these foreigners would turn against their country to work for the CIA.
View Points	7/14/2013	Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Susan B. Garland. Millions of baby boomers are either in retirement or planning to retire relatively soon. However, many of them would like to work longer – at least part time. What are their options with regard to Social Security, Medicare and their retirement nest eggs? We talk to a retirement expert about how to estimate retirement finances; when the best time is to collect Social Security and continue working full- or part-time, and how Medicare works with an employer’s health plan. We also talk to an anthropologist about a factory that welcomes seniors into their workforce – even those 100 years old – and how they and the workers benefit from the experience.

Miscellaneous

View Points

7/14/2013

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Joel Stein. When a father finds out that his new baby is a boy, what goes through his mind? It's different for everyone, but for humor columnist Joel Stein it was sheer terror! Stein, who was not an outdoorsy, sporty, risk-taking child or adult, realized he was going to have to "man up" so he could teach his son about camping, self-defense, day trading, boot camp, baseball – all the macho arts. So he went out and found the best people he could to teach him. He talks about his adventures in manhood and about what he learned from the experiences and the men who schooled him.

View Points

7/21/2013

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Natan Last. You see it everywhere: middle-aged people and seniors working crossword puzzles on the train, bus or in the coffee shop. Why don't younger people do crosswords? Where are the puzzle-solving Gen-Y'ers? We talk to a young puzzle constructor about how he's trying to change the look and feel of the old-fashioned crossword to make it more relevant to younger solvers. We also find out how he became the youngest person to ever create a Sunday crossword for the New York Times.

Best of our
Knowledge

7/21/2013

For years here on TBOOK we've been running our Astrobiology series which, among other things, chronicles scientists' efforts to discover the origins of life. And it's not just life on Earth. Today on The Best Of Our Knowledge, we'll hear from a woman who is a scientist and an explorer doing a long distance search for life on Mars. We'll also hear about the discovery of a new species of fish in a very unusual...and dry...location

Best of our
Knowledge

7/28/2013

I think it's safe to say that over the past few decades we have made enormous changes and advances in the way we communicate. Information is flowing at an amazing pace in almost every aspect in life. However...there is one surprising hold out: the scientific journal. Today on The Best Of Our Knowledge, a conversation on the evolution, or lack thereof, of scientific journals.

View Points

7/28/2013

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Dan Isett. With so many channels on TV today, you can find programs that cater to everyone's tastes. However, some parents think that there's not much out there in prime time that is safe for families with children to watch. They say that even network TV is becoming raunchier with "pixelated" or blurred nudity becoming more common, and bad language and sexual references made even on some animated shows. We talk to two television specialists about the issue, why it happens and how parents can better keep track of their children's viewing.

MN this Week

7/28/2013

Moderator Curtis Beckmann. Guest: Stephen Foss, VP, Distribution Operations, Xcel Energy. He talks about the emergency operation put in place to restore electrical power to the more than 600,000 Twin Cities residents who lost electricity in two summer storms that slammed into the Twin Cities on Friday, July 12th.

Miscellaneous

View Points

8/4/2013

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Charles Glass. With all of the films, books and tributes to the brave men and women who fought in World War II, no one has addressed the topic of the thousands of Allied soldiers who deserted during that war. Why did they leave their units? Where did they go? What happened to them if they were caught? We talk to an author who brings the stories of the deserters to light, and discusses how these men were most often not cowards, but brave combat fighters who were mentally drained after months or years in combat.

View Points

8/4/2013

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: D.J. MacHale. Everywhere you look, there are scifi movies, books, games and television shows. Why is this genre so popular now? What is it that makes the characters of shows and films such as "Star Trek," "Battlestar Gallactica," and "Star Wars" so beloved and enduring? We talk to two authors and a film critic about the resurgence of scifi, and what makes a good scifi story.

View Points

8/11/2013

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Philippa Gregory. As summer winds down, the days of leisure at the beach reading a book are numbered. Many people take their "guilty pleasure" books – the ones they hide under a plain cover – to read on vacation or just sitting around on a warm day. But what makes a book a good "beach read"? We talk to four best-selling authors of fiction about how they create their books to hook the reader from the beginning chapter to the final word, and keep them coming back for more.

View Points

8/18/2013

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Meredith Fuller. Anyone who's worked in a business knows that there are people at the office or plant who are almost impossible to get along with. Why do these workers make it a misery to come to work each day? What pleasure do they get from harassing you? And why do women bosses sometimes try to derail other women's careers? We talk to a psychologist and a business expert about these difficult people, why they do what they do and how to work with – or around – them.

View Points

8/25/2013

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Donald MacDonald. The roads, bridges and other infrastructure in the U.S. are in a sad state with bridges collapsing and roads crumbling under our feet. What needs to be done to fix them? And why can't we seem to light a fire under the government to get the job done? We talk to two infrastructure specialists about the situation and hear their opinions on how to deal with the problem.

View Points

8/25/2013

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Ariel Kiley and Simone Kornfeld. Does anyone really flirt anymore? Or is that a throwback to the "Mad Men" days of the 50's and 60's? According to our two guests, flirting is alive, and well in the new millennium, but young women are often unsure of just how to do it effectively. Our guests discuss the new "rules" for flirting, how to get out there and find someone to have fun with, and how to extricate yourself from someone who infringes on your space.

Miscellaneous

MN this Week	8/25/2013	Moderator Curtis Beckmann. Guest: Lt., Eric Roeske, Minnesota State Patrol. He talks about the coming driving season and what motorists can do to prepare for winter driving. He also reports that 43 people have died in motorcycle crashes so far this year...of that number, 28 did not wear helmets.
MN This Week	9/1/2013	Moderator Curtis Beckmann. Guest: Eliot Seide, Ex. Dir., American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees. On the occasion of Labor Day, the guest describes the previous year and year ahead as it relates to organized labor.
View Points	9/1/2013	Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: David McRaney. We walk around in our world, thinking that we have a good grasp on what's happening around us and how we fit into it. But, do we? Does our view of the world and our place in it jibe with reality? Or do we fudge the facts to make ourselves look better and our enemies look worse? Can we admit our mistakes? Or do we make up stories that justify our actions? We talk to an author and a psychologist about the "heuristics" – or shortcuts – and the fallacies that we use every day to make sense of our world.
View Points	9/8/2013	Host Christopher Michael. Guests: Jordan Troisi. Why do we often turn to certain foods when we experience a trauma or a loss? What is it about the mac and cheese or the ice cream that makes us feel better? We talk to a psychologist, a New Orleans writer/filmmaker and a Boston restaurateur about the lure of comfort food, and their culinary experiences during times of sadness and disaster in their cities.
MN this Week	9/8/2013	Moderator Curtis Beckmann. Guest: Karina Forrest-Perkins, Ex. Dir., Stop Child Abuse Minnesota. She talks about the safety of children, as the new school year begins. She also addresses steps taken by Minnesota schools to protect children against intruders, such as the individual who shot and killed children in a Connecticut school.
MN this Week	9/15/2013	Moderator Curtis Beckmann. Guest: John Budd, Professor, University of Minnesota School of Law. He discusses issues in the lock-out of musicians by the famed Minnesota Orchestra. The lock-out began nearly a year ago and shows no signs of resolution. Musicians, meanwhile, continue to bail out.
View Points	9/15/2013	Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Mark Sundeen. Do you think you could give up money – ALL money – and live by yourself off the land? Do you think you'd be welcomed by friends and family if you did? We talk to an author whose friend did give up money and we find out how it affected him socially, physically and spiritually.

Miscellaneous

View Points

9/15/2013

Host: Christopher Michael. Guests: Dan Schawbel. Gen-Y'ers are entering the workplace in droves, but they're sometimes fish out of water in an office where Baby Boomers are in authority. We talk to two workplace gurus about how young people need more than tech skills to advance in their careers once they get that first job; how to learn and sharpen "soft skills" in communication and work style, and how Gen-Y'ers can Boomers can "cross-mentor" each other to create a more productive and happier workplace.

View Points

9/22/2013

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Phillip Houston. Everyone has told a lie, but not everyone can get away with it - especially if they come up against a group of CIA officers who have spent their careers ferreting out the truth. We talk to one former CIA lie detector about the verbal and non-verbal signs of lying, how to spot someone who might be lying, and why it's so difficult for the vast majority of people to lie and get away with it.

View points

9/29/2013

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Daniel H. Wilson. Robots seem to be doing everything these days, from vacuuming floors to building cars to dispensing pills in a pharmacy. In the movies they regularly try to take over the world, but ultimately fail. Just how far can robots go? And what's in store in fiction and the real world for them in the future? We talk to two roboticists – one who's a sci-fi novelist – about 'bots in real life and in fantasy.

MN this Week

9/29/2013

Moderator Curtis Beckmann. Guest: Jerry Rosendahl, MN State Fire Marshal, who talks about October as fire safety month. He discusses the rapid decline of fire deaths in Minnesota, due largely to sprinkler systems in new construction and in some homes. He also discusses safety issues related to the 78,000 miles of pipelines that move all manner of fuel products underground in Minnesota.

Urban

Martha Fast
Horse Show

7/7/2013

Fast Horse Productions' The Martha Fast Horse Show: Special Guest: Mary Annette Pember
AWARDS and HONORS

President of the Native American Journalists Association, an international professional organization representing more than 650 native journalists. 2000-2002.

Fellow with the University of Maryland Journalism Fellowships in Child and Family Policy. 2001-02
Graduate of the Media Management Program at J. L.

Martha Fast
Horse Show

7/14/2013

The Martha Fast Horse Show: Special Guests: John Fetzer (White Earth Ojibwe) and Crystal Owen (Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate). Show Topic: "The Bush Foundation's Native Nations Rebuilders Program: A Conversation with John Fetzer, Bush Foundation, and Crystal Owen, Lake Traverse Reservation of the Sisseton-Wapeton Oyate." Program Website: www.bushfoundation.org/.

Martha Fast
Horse Show

7/21/2013

The Martha Fast Horse Show. Special Guest: John Kane (Mohawk). John Karhiio Kane is a Mohawk from Kahnawake. He lives on the Cattaraugus Territory of the Seneca Nation and has a direct connection to the people and territories of the Six Nations. John has been involved in Native issues and specifically defending Native sovereignty most of his adult life. John is now three years into his own radio show, "Let's Talk Native...with John Kane" which airs Sunday nights from 8 to 10 p.m. Central Time on WWKB 1520 AM in Buffalo, New York and WQRS FM 98.3 in Salamanca, New York. John takes pride in tackling the tough issues that face Native people and refuses to participate in the "buffalo speeches" that continue to dumb down Native culture and beliefs. He is not afraid to be labeled a warrior, but prefers to be considered a "conversationalist and a teacher."

Martha Fast
Horse Show

7/28/2013

The Martha Fast Horse Show. Special Guest: Kevin Thomas. Show Topic: Discussion With Author Kevin Thomas About His New Book, "A Common Man (Ikce Wicasa)" Kevin Thomas Bio. Kevin Thomas was born in Illinois in 1962 where he grew up riding Appaloosa horses on his parents' farm. After toiling in the electric utility industry for 23 years he set out to become a freelance writer. Kevin's articles have appeared in such diverse publications as "Survival Blog" and "Full Throttle Magazine." Kevin is the official book reviewer for "BikerNet.com." Kevin has just completed a paperback version of his first long form non-fiction work. "A Common Man ( Ikce Wicasa): is the story of Sidney Keith and Melvin Miner sharing in their own words what it means to be a Lakota and practice their religion.

Urban

Martha Fast Horse Show	8/4/2013	Host: Martha Fast Horse: Special Guests: Annamarie Hill (Red Lake Ojibwe), Executive Director, Minnesota Indian Affairs Council and Mark Bray, Social Studies Department Chair, Eden Prairie High School Show Topic: "Changing How Minnesota Students Learn about Native American History: A Dialogue with Annamarie Hill from the Minnesota Indian Affairs Council and Mark Bray, Social Studies Department, Eden Prairie High School"
Martha Fast Horse Show	8/11/2013	Host Martha Fast Horse. Special Guest: Artist Gregg Deal (Pyramid Lake Paiute Nation). Show Topic: "A Discussion with Native Artist Gregg Deal (Pyramid Lake Paiute Nation): What Does it Mean to be Indigenous in a World Seemingly run by Popular Culture?"
Martha Fast Horse Show	8/18/2013	The Martha Fast Horse Show. Special Guest: John Kane (Mohawk). Show Topic: "Catching Up with John Kane (Mohawk), Activist and Radio/TV Native Issues Commentator"
Martha Fast Horse Show	8/25/2013	The Martha Fast Horse Show. Special Guest: John Kane (Mohawk). Show Topic: "Catching Up with John Kane (Mohawk), Activist and Radio/TV Native Issues Commentator". We discussed the song "Taking Back The Chop" and how it makes reference to indigenous people protesting sports mascots. John also filled us in on his trip to Washington, DC, to advocate on issues concerning the National Indian Gaming Association - NIGA Summit. He discussed raising awareness of Tribal Sovereignty by educating the masses through his work in media.
Martha Fast Horse show	9/1/2013	The Martha Fast Horse Show. Special Guest: John Kane (Mohawk). Show Topic: "Catching Up with John Kane (Mohawk), Activist and Radio/TV Native Issues Commentator"
Martha Fast Horse Show	9/8/2013	The Martha Fast Horse Show : Special Guest: Jim Anderson (Mdewakanton Dakota). Show Topic: "The 14th Annual Welcome Home Traditional Wacipi Powwow of the Mendota Mdewakanton Dakota Tribe". WHO WE ARE: The majority of the ancestors of the Mendota Mdewakanton Dakota Community can be traced back to Mendota, Minnesota in the 1700's. This non-profit organization is dedicated to preserving our Dakota heritage. We have over 250 known members and meet monthly in Mendota, Minnesota. The Mendota Mdewakanton Dakota Community is working on regaining and keeping its culture and heritage so that future generations of people from all races can learn and will know about the Dakota culture.

Urban

Martha Fast Horse Show	9/15/2013	The Martha Fast Horse Show: Special Guest: J. C. Campbell (Ojibway/Cree), Country Blues Singer/Songwriter Show Topic: "Country Blues Singer/Songwriter J. C. Campbell". J. C. Campbell — who is Ojibway and Cree — is an award winning and multi-nominated, country blues singer and songwriter. J. C. recently released the lead single to his third full-length album of the same name, titled, "Four-Letter Lie." J. C.'s eagerly awaiting fans have embraced his floor filling, social "hit" about dysfunctional matters of the heart with infectious Rolling Stones fervor. J.C.'s second album "Lazy James" received "top honors" as "Best Blues CD" at the 2008 Aboriginal Peoples Choice Music Awards. His debut acoustic CD earned "Best Country" and "Best Folk and Acoustic" nominations at the 2005 Canadian Aboriginal Music Awards. J. C. has received many accolades for his music over the years.
Martha Fast Horse Show	9/22/2013	The Martha Fast Horse Show Special Guest: Jane L. Fitzpatrick. Show Topic: A Discussion with Screenwriter Jane L. Fitzpatrick about 'Windcatcher: The Story of Sacajawea'.
Martha Fast Horse Show	9/29/2013	Fast Horse Productions' The Martha Fast Horse Show Special Guest: John Kane (Mohawk) Show Topic: "Catching Up with Martha's Regular Monthly Guest John Kane". Biography: Blues Piano Man Extraordinaire! About Murray Porter, 2012 JUNO Award Winner! "He's a `red man, singing the black mans' blues, living in a white man's world!" (from his song `Colours'). MURRAY PORTER is Mohawk from Six Nations of the Grand River Territory in southern Ontario. Through his blues he tells the Aboriginal side of history with a mixture of country, blues and humor. Murray is a self-taught, singer, songwriter and piano player, who's spent the last 30 years playing the blues throughout the world, spreading his unique style of foot-stomping, hand clapping, rockin' blues piano! He has been compared to the likes of Dr. John, Joe Cocker, Leon Russell, Elton John and Delbert McClinton.

- Public Service Announcements:
  - KQRS – 807 PSAs ran from 7/1/2013 – 9/30/2013
  - 93X – 749 PSAs ran from 7/1/2013 – 9/30/2013
  - LOVE 105 – 3594 PSAs ran from 7/1/2013 – 9/30/2013
-
- Total PSAs that ran in third quarter on KQRS, 93X and 105 Sports Radio were 5150