PROGRAMS

1st QUARTER 2018

Program: Hawaii Today

Subject: Protesters at Coco Palms

Date: 1/15, 1/17, 1/19, 1/23, 1/25

Time: 7:00 p.m.

Duration: 28:30

State sheriffs removed protesters from the ruins of a Kauai hotel where they have been squatting since last year in an attempt to block redevelopment of land where Hawaiian chiefs once lived and where Elvis Presley's character got married in the movie "Blue Hawaii."

The Hawaii Department of Public Safety said in a statement Thursday that state sheriffs arrested 23-year-old Mahealani Hanie-Grace for trespassing at Coco Palms on Kauai.

Coco Palms has been shut since 1992, when Hurricane Iniki heavily damaged the property.

Program: Hawaii Today
Subject: The SOKO Tour
Date: 2/5, 2/7, 2/9, 2/11
Time: 7:00 p.m.
Duration: 28:30

The South Kona Artists Collective — SOKO — holds its fourth annual Artists Studio Tour Feb. 24-25. Twenty-one artists will share their work at a dozen locations from Holualoa to Honaunau during the two-day event. Hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. both days.

SOKO is a collective of dedicated professional artists seeking to share the varied ways they create. They are painters, potters, sculptors, photographers, jewelers, quilters, weavers, mosaic, assemblage, metal and wood artists. Living in this lush and wild, sometimes harsh, yet always inspiring environment that is the Big Island, they have come together to create opportunities for fine artists to share their vision and expand their audience.

Program: Hawaii Today
Subject: Kona Surf Film Festival
Date: 2/12, 2/14, 2/16
Time: 7:00 p.m.
Duration: 28:30

Hawaii's premiere international surf festival returns Saturday for its 14th year at King Kamehameha's Kona Beach Hotel in Kailua-Kona.

The Kona Surf Film Festival brings film, music and art to the Big Island community with independent short and feature films.

"The Kona Surf Film Festival is a chance for filmmakers to expose their work to a more mainstream audience that is psyched to share in the thrill of surfing outside of the water," said Chad Campbell, festival founder and director. "These films are packed with beauty, creativity and awesome soundtracks. We get films from here on the Big Island and as far away as Iceland, so it really is an international lineup with documentary, action and even comedy films."

Tickets for the Kona Surf Film Festival, which gets underway at 4 p.m., are $10/$30 and can be purchased at Kona Boys, Pacific Vibrations, Ola Brewing, online or at the door. Bring your own beach chair and blankets. No outside food or drinks allowed.

Program: Hawaii Today
Subject: Community Rallies to Replace Stolen Sound System
Date: 2/19, 2/21, 2/23

Time: 7:00 p.m.

Duration: 28:30

A Honokaa man has been overwhelmed with the community support he's received after ranting on Facebook about a theft from his home earlier this week.

Dominic Yagong, known as the Voice of the Honokaa Dragons, has been emceeing all of Honokaa Schools' sporting events with his own equipment since 1992. On Tuesday afternoon, he discovered a cordless mic, sound mixer and speaker had been stolen from his Honokaa home. The estimated cost of the stolen property is $2,400.

One person who has come forward to help is Honokaa School alumnus Raymond Kawamata. He said he read about Yagong's plight in the paper and immediately contacted police who in turn directed him to Yagong.
