EEO Public File Report

December 1, 2014 – November 30, 2015

Statement of Supplemental EEO Outreach Activities:

a) Initiative : Participation in a Job Fair

On May 28, 2015 Blueberry Broadcasting LLC participated in the 18th Annual Spring Career Fair at the Bangor Mall. Our participation was to help educate attendees on job opportunities in broadcasting and with Blueberry Broadcasting's two employment units. The fair was attended by a Blueberry Broadcasting Operations Manager and the Director of Programming & Operations. We also promoted the Career Fair with a three hour live broadcast on WBFB/WBFE/WMCM.

On October 27, 2015 Blueberry Broadcasting LLC participated in the 18th Annual Fall Career Fair at the Cross Insurance enter. Our participation was to help educate attendees on job opportunities in broadcasting and with Blueberry Broadcasting's two employment units. The fair was attended by a Blueberry Broadcasting Operations Manager and the Director of Programming & Operations.

b) Initiative: Participation in a Program Sponsored by Educational Institutions:

On April 22, 2015 a Blueberry Broadcasting LLC Operations Manager spoke to a group of students at NESCOM at Husson University about his professional history in broadcasting and how he transitioned from a student at NESCOM to his current position. He detailed his daily routine on a day- to- day basis. He discussed all of the Blueberry Brands, core demographics and Public Service initiatives conducted by the company. They discussed how he interacts with listeners and they spoke about Public Files. There was a Q&A at the end of the class regarding possible opportunities with future positions in broadcasting..

On August 4, 2015 a Blueberry Broadcasting Operations Manager hosted 20 high school students who attended the New England School of Communications Media Camp. All students were interested in a possible future broadcasting position. The Blueberry properties and brands were discussed. They discussed how Blueberry Broadcasting has combined signals to create regional brands. They were given a tour of the studios.

On Tuesday September 15, 2015 Blueberry Broadcasting Bangor Operations Director was a guest for the Broadcast Management and Programming Class at the New England School of Communications on the campus of Husson University. The class is an advanced level course only for upper classmen. During the ninety minute conversation style lecture, our Operations Director retraced the steps of his career path and how he got the position he currently holds today with the company. The course instructor was looking for students to get a broad picture of how we program and run our radio stations, so the discussion also focused on his day to day duties within the organization. He took many questions ranging from how programming decisions are made, how the corporate management structure works at Blueberry Broadcasting, who and how music is picked for each individual station/brand, what the day of a Blueberry on-air personality is like and how every department within the company has to work together on a daily basis.

On November 4, 2015 Blueberry Broadcasting Director of Programming & Operations and the Bangor Operations Director spoke to a class at the New England School of Communications on the Husson University campus. TO BE COMPLETED

- c) Initiative: Provision of training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunities and preventing discrimination.

On October 7, 2015, Blueberry Broadcasting conducted a training session to management level personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions. This session also included disseminating information regarding all vacancies, recruitment sources, internal record keeping, applications, interviewees and referral sources. This training session was attended by the VP/COO, Director of Sales & the Director of Programming & Operations.

- d) Initiative: Establishment of training programs and mentoring programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.

Blueberry Broadcasting LLC established training and mentoring programs for the staff. Both programs enable an employee to acquire skills that could qualify them for a higher level position within the organization. The program is individualized and the training and mentoring is designed to fit the needs and desires of the employee and is on-going.

e) Participation in other activities (Menu option # 16)

Blueberry Broadcasting LLC airs fifteen second public service announcements for community organizations to further the goal of disseminating information as to employment opportunities. These announcements air a minimum of once per day on all Blueberry Broadcasting stations.
