

Community Focus

6:02-6:06 p.m.

March 25-29, 2013

Pregnancy test-A new prenatal screening indicates birth defects but also allows parents to know the sex of their baby earlier. (Healthcare, Youth issues)

STEM Degrees-Future job projections for STEM careers. (Economic, youth, education issues)

Read and Relax-Volunteers read to dogs at the Humane Society of Vero Beach and Indian River County to help them learn to be calm when interacting with humans. (Community, population growth, economic issues)

Texting and Driving-A AAA study shows those who talk on a cell phone when driving have other bad driving habits. (Public safety, transportation, population growth, youth issues)

Floridays-Special programming from Janie Gould.