

Community Focus

6:02-6:06 p.m.

June 03-07, 2013

Busy hurricane season expected-State officials urge residents to prepare for a busy hurricane season and also worry about sequestration effects on predicting and responding to storms. (Public safety, population growth, economic, environmental issues)

Death penalty changes-Some people urge the governor not to sign legislation passed this session to speed up the death penalty process. (Crime and public safety issues)

Coppertone Baby-The woman who was the model for the Coppertone Baby in the late 50's visits Vero Beach and tells how her butt became so famous. (Environmental, health issues)

Driving in wet weather-AAA Spokesman Mark Jenkins gives us some tips for driving safely in our upcoming expected wet weather. (Environment, transportation, population growth, public safety issues)

Floridays-Special programming from Janie Gould.