

Community Focus

6:02-6:06 p.m.

March 11-15, 2013

State Representative Gayle Harrell-State Representative Gayle Harrell shares her priorities for the upcoming session with us. (Good Government, crime and public safety issues)

Tweet Seats-The Kravis Center experiments with offering “Tweet Seats” at some shows in order to increase talk about its shows. (Population growth, youth issues)

Child Protection Laws-The legislature is looking into changing how child deaths are investigated and how background checks on camp counselors are handled. (Crime and public safety, youth, education issues)

Little Free Library-Sewall’s Point has its own Little Free Library. It’s in Sewall’s Point Park and resembles the Sewall home. (Education, youth, community apathy issues)

Floridays-Special programming from Janie Gould.