

KNOM ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST 2022 4th Quarter
KNOM and KNOM-FM, Nome, Alaska
January 3rd, 2023

Since 1971, KNOM continues to produce and air local & regional issue-oriented news and local feature programming. This quarter, newscasts ranged from approx. 6 to 11-minutes at :02 after the hour five times a day Monday-Friday: 7AM, 8AM, 9AM, Noon, & 5PM.

The station routinely covers local city and tribal meetings and issues, such as the Nome Common Council, the Nome School Board and Norton Sound Regional Hospital (NSHC). Other issues this quarter included Port of Nome deep draft port project updates, search and rescue efforts, coverage of the annual Alaska Federation of Natives convention, Alaska State Fisheries disasters and special announcements, impacts of Typhoon Merbok along with other weather and climate changes, resource challenges in villages, and seasonal hunting/fishing regulations.

*Unless noted, all programs simulcast over KNOM and KNOM-FM.

NEWS STORIES:

During this quarter, there were a variety of local/regional stories about damage done by a major typhoon Merbok that hit Western Alaska, the November elections, and an important deep draft port project coming to Nome.

1.) House District Election between Neal Foster of Nome and challenger Tyler Ivanoff of Shishmaref -

Programs:

Separate from our newscasts and coverage, KNOM airs regular local programs that are hosted and created by residents in our listening region. Twice a month on Friday afternoons at 1pm there is a one hour show hosted by a Nome community member about changes and regulations affecting the Bering Sea and waterways in Western Alaska.

Ocean Knowledge - <https://www.knom.org/wp/blog/category/programs-all/ocean-knowledge/>

Every week on Wednesday mornings from 10am to 11am, the public relations employee for the tribal nonprofit consortium Kawerak hosts an hour show live with guests to discuss pertinent information the community needs to know regarding Kawerak's programs and staff.

Suwat - <https://www.knom.org/wp/blog/category/programs-all/suwat/>

"Elder Voices." Feature program sharing oral history and cultural stories. Produced by KNOM. Approx. 15-40 min., weekly on Wednesdays at 11am & 11pm, October – December 31st.
