Congratulations!

You are one of 50 public television professionals from around the country chosen as a Digital Immersion Project Partner. This six-month project will kick off at a special Regional Workshop later in the year. However, in the time prior to the workshop, we will have a number of activities for you to participate in with your colleagues, including collaboration events, exclusive webinars, and access to an online learning portal with 1000s of courses on software, creative, and business skills. Look for an email with all the details soon.

In the meantime, you have ONE VERY IMPORTANT STEP to complete immediately. See below for details.

Step 1 - You must reply to this email as soon as possible and confirm you can participate in the Digital Immersion Project activities outlined below

- Attend a Regional Workshop in July or September, locations TBD (costs covered by project) and participate in the following:
- Six (6) months of virtual learning and working with a group mentor
- Set a goal related to your work at the station that will form the foundation of your Project activities, with hopes of completion by project end
- Complete a curriculum of instruction covering topics that include, Digital-first Production, Audience Development and Distribution, Organizational Structure and Culture, Multi-platform Strategy and Tactics, Data Analysis and Metrics, and more.

Any questions? Please email dip@pbs.org. We'll have announcements and updates over the next few weeks, so please stay tuned!

Take care, and thank you for being part of the Digital Immersion Project!

- Max Duke, Sr. Director, PBS Digital Station Products & Innovation
- Leif Brostrom, Asst. Dir., PBS Digital Station Products & Innovation

Hi everyone,

As a few of you might be traveling tomorrow, I'm sending along a few logistics today.

I hope everyone received the pre-reading packets and completed the homework assignment. We look forward to hearing your interview findings.

Attached is an overview of the timing of the workshop.

Just a quick note for those of you staying at the hotel. There are a few Marriott's in the PBS vicinity, so we want to make sure you arrive at the right one. Our block is at:

Crystal City Marriott at Reagan National Airport
1999 Jefferson Davis Hwy

Arlington, VA 22202

When you arrive on Wednesday, go straight to the lobby of PBS. You can reach the lobby of PBS through the Crystal City shops at 2100 Crystal Drive and then take the elevator up to the lobby. The shorter way, from your hotel, will be to cross 20th St. S. diagonally through the parking lot and enter the PBS lobby.

Please reach out if you have any questions.

Safe travels!

Marla

Hi Ken! Thank you for taking the time to talk to me this morning! Here's the information for the Iowa Family Child Care Association's seminar. It will be held on Saturday, March 9 at the West Des Moines United Methodist Church located at 720 Grand. We are still working out the details but the preliminary schedule will have the seminar beginning at 8:30 am with a keynote speaker followed by break out sessions at 9:45, lunch, and two different break out sessions again in the afternoon.

4/15/2021

How long of a presentation do you typically do? Is there just one presentation you offer or is there a variety?

Thank you again!

Hello Andrew-

Thank you so much for joining us next month in Chicago for the Campaign Journalism Conference. We are looking forward to some great discussions about the upcoming presidential election.

Here is the most up-to-date agenda for the conference. There will be two opportunities for you to check-in for the conference:

- Wednesday, April 10 4:30pm-6pm at the Ace Hotel (311 N. Morgan St., Chicago, IL)
- Thursday, April 11 7:30am-8:30pm at Google (320 N. Morgan St., Chicago IL)

Please fill out this form letting us know if you will attend the welcome cocktail reception on April 10th at 6pm at the Ace Hotel.

When you arrive to Google on Thursday, please enter through the doors on Morgan Street. You will see the check-in table near the entrance. Please be sure to bring a valid state ID with you, as you will need it to enter Google. Programming will begin at 8:30am and breakfast will be served each morning at 8:00am.

If you are driving, there are few paid lots in the area. We recommend using a parking reservation service like Spot Hero to locate parking. There's also a Green Line stop half a block away.

Again, we look forward to seeing you next month! Please contact Christine Hurley at cehurley@uchicago.edu with any additional questions.

Time: 8:00 a.m. – 3:10 p.m.

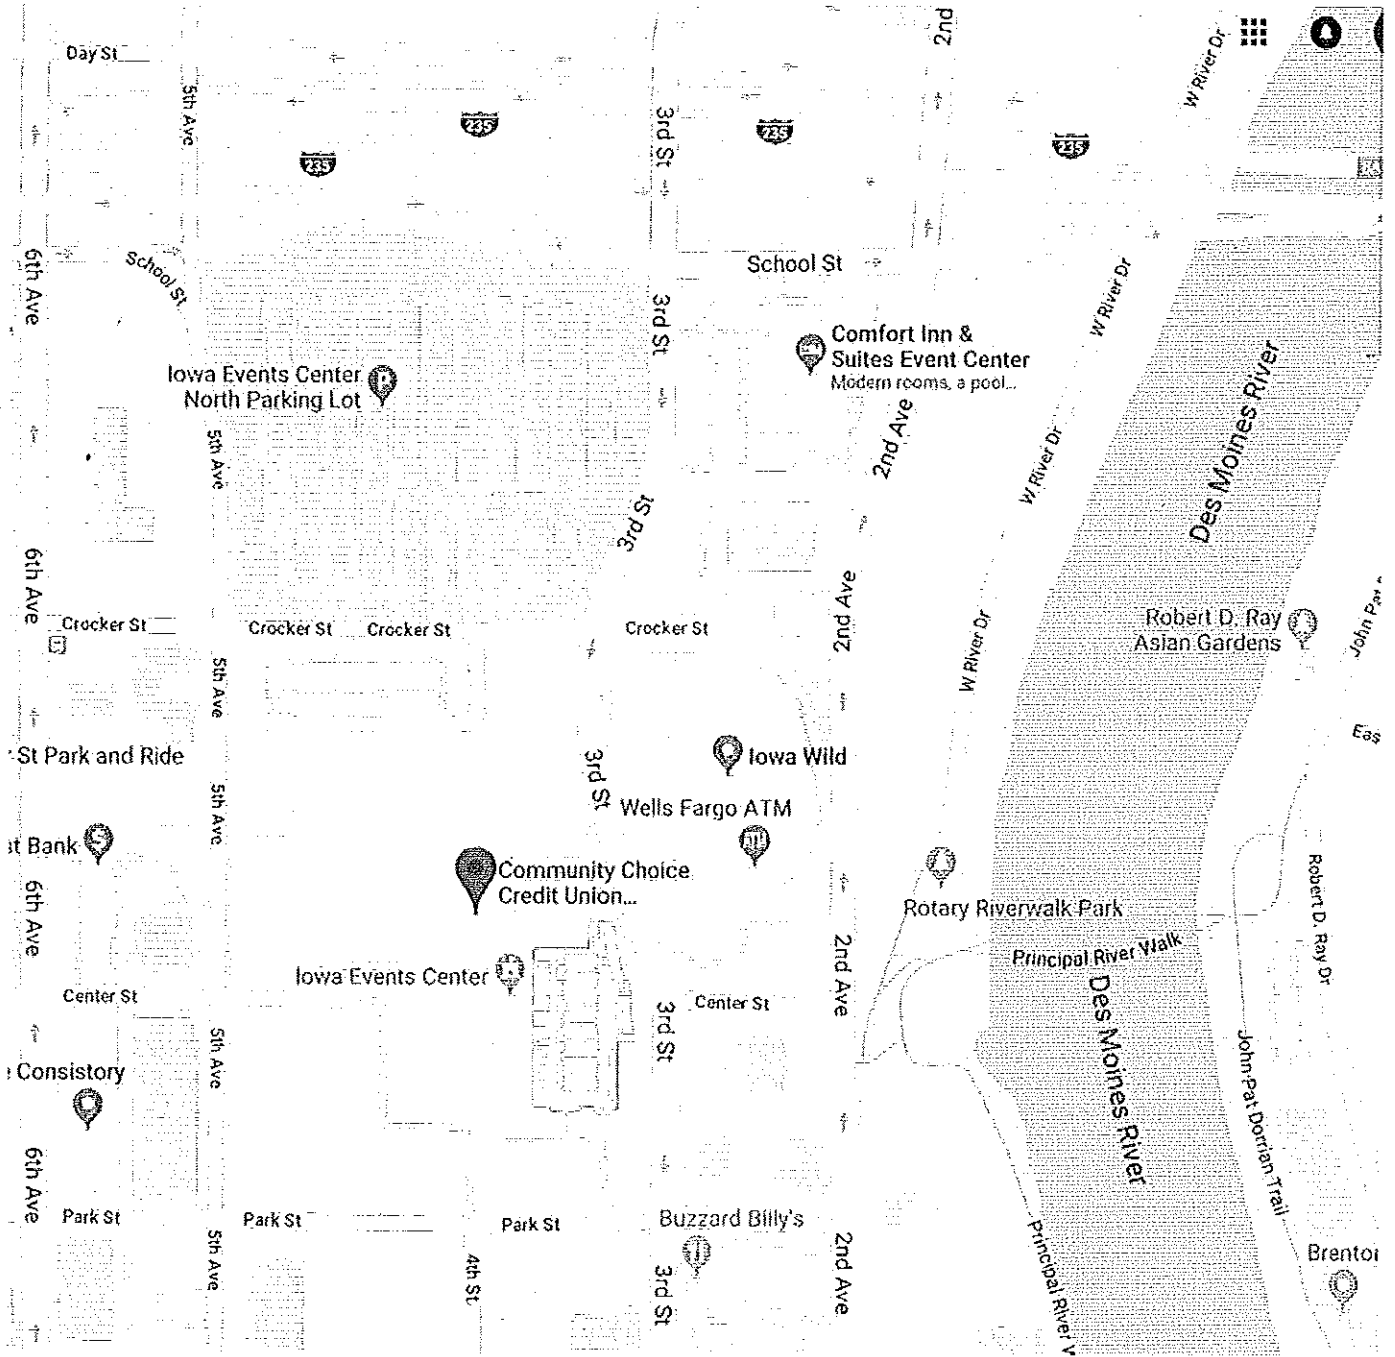

Location: Iowa Events Center – Community Choice Credit Union Convention Center
730 Third Street, Des Moines, IA 50309

Thank you for your support of the Governor's 2018 Future Ready Iowa Summit through the "Showcase of Work-Based Learning." Hosted by Future Ready Iowa and the Iowa Governor's STEM Advisory Council, this event brings together leaders from business and industry, education, nonprofits, elected officials, students and others to amplify the public conversation about transforming education and the workforce with a focus on expanding work-based learning and computer science instruction.

We are excited to have you participate in the "Showcase of Work-Based Learning" to offer engaging, hands-on activity that demonstrates a school + business partnership. Please read the details listed below for important information about your exhibit.

- REGISTRATION: Each exhibit will receive two complimentary adult registrations. Registration is $50 for any additional adults at your exhibit. Please go to www.iowaSTEM.gov/FutureReadyIowaSummit for the summit agenda and to register any additional adults. There is no registration fee for students. Due to exhibit space allotment, a maximum of 10 students is recommended. Registration deadline is March 26.
- PARKING: Complimentary parking will be available on the north side of Crocker Street, across the street from the events center in the North Parking Lot. See the map below. Let the parking attendant know you are with the Governor's Future Ready Iowa Summit to ensure you are able to park at no cost.
- LOAD IN: You may arrive as early as 6:00 a.m. to begin setting up your exhibit. Enter through either the main entrance on the west side of the Community Choice Credit Union Convention Center or through the roll-up door on the north side of the building.
- SET-UP: The general session of the program will take place in the interior of the main ballroom at the Iowa Events Center, with the exhibits spaced around the exterior of the room. For this reason, all exhibits must be completely set up by 8:00 a.m. on Tuesday, April 3.
- YOUR EXHIBIT:
 - LOCATION: Please see the attached map for your exhibit booth location.
 - You will receive one 8-foot table per exhibit.
 - Name badges for those you registered will be on your table.
 - INTERNET: If you need wireless internet, it will be called "STEMinYourWorld" and the password is IowaSTEM. However, there will be limited access. We encourage exhibitors to bring a wireless hotspot for the best access possible needed for the exhibit.
 - ELECTRICITY: If you need electricity, extension cords will be provided by the events center.
- STAFFING: The timeframe for exhibits to be open and staffed is 11:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. during the "Showcase of Work-Based Learning." Yes No

If so, what State Department?

Proposed Situational Awareness and Personal Safety Presentation Content:

The issue of personal safety has become a centerpiece of conversations, formal training and individual concern more so today than ever before. Recent statistics published by the United States Department of Justice would suggest that violent crime is on the decline. However, that position becomes difficult to accept after simply reviewing local newspapers or nightly news broadcasts. Indeed, it has become all too common in Des Moines, Iowa and elsewhere in our nation, to hear about fatal assaults, shootings and seemingly unprovoked attacks.

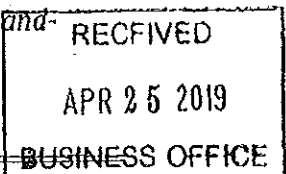

This program will present information and suggestions to allow individuals to improve their personal safety and or mitigate the chances of becoming the victim of an act of violence. The training is called "Situational Awareness" and is comparable to techniques taught to our law enforcement officers and military combat personnel. It is designed to help individuals acquire "360 degree" awareness within various environments.

The program will discuss five specific environments commonly encountered by members of the general public: home, place of employment, social outings and dates, driving, and temporary domicile i.e., hotels, B&B's and other commercial lodging facilities. The program will also address the issue of "moving in the open". The audience will learn practical behaviors and habits they can use to help make them "unattractive targets" to would-be attackers. The audience will also be familiarized with basic de-escalation techniques that could be usefully employed under certain circumstances.

NOTE: This training will not address, demonstrate, endorse or advise anyone on the possession or use of any type of firearm, edged weapon, chemical agent or any other type of instrument designed to, or which its primary purpose is, to inflict physical injury and will not demonstrate, train or recommend to any person any type of hand-to-hand defensive techniques.

Good morning. Thank you again for stopping by on Tuesday to sign the contract for training that you are developing for IPTV. I am just getting caught up on items, and when I reviewed the contract, I noticed you signed, but did not fill in the other lines. I have filled them all in, including the date of 4/23/2019 that you signed. I wanted to send you a copy of the completed page and get an acknowledgement that it is all correct. I will include your email acknowledgement in my paperwork for audit purposes. Thank you.

Molly,

Michael Ferjack with I Know a Guy Training and Consulting will be out here tomorrow to sign the contract for the personal safety and situational awareness training that he is developing for IPTV. I would like your approval to strike the insurance section of that contract. I do not feel that IPTV has a risk that would require Mr. Ferjack to hold $500,000 of insurance and name IPTV on that insurance. If you agree, please let me know. Thank you.

Good Morning!

1. The Day of the Child Multicultural Festival has been permanently moved to Our place for the duration of term to cut down confusion. It is still held on 3rd Fridays from 12-1pm.
2. I started the foundation for a dedicated website. The domain and privacy cost about $30/year but hosting is free. I would like to get more of our photos and stories up on the about page; please see the attached bio sheet:
 - a. Bio sheet:
https://docs.google.com/document/d/10Q5783WFWWx7E7nuK_6hp6g1y_79Mlrru6bkoyfAhyw/edit
 - b. Dedicated website: <https://sldayofchild.org>
 - c. Event Information: <https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1gmshz1Jr8nEb4W3SQ7ICzeYmFn0wIZo0a2i5pDm4y1l/edit?usp=sharing>
3. The festival logo (sample attached), designed by Mayra Patel, is in its final stages. We have already started to use it on the sponsorship package and website. She did an excellent job of capturing child, multiculturalism, and unity.
4. The sponsorship package (attached) is now up for folks that want to support diversity and unity around children in our community. Our major sponsors so far are Tyson Foods, City of Storm Lake, Storm Lake United. Iowa Central Community College has recently pledged to be an important sponsor as well.
5. The budget for the $10,000 Tyson Foods grant has been set, and the educational materials funded by the grant that will help bridge our theme for mutual respect in the classroom (Storm Lake ECE, Storm Lake Head Start, and Storm Lake Elementary) and bridge to the event are being finalized.
6. Attached: Latest poster, child related-vending booth form, child talent show flyer, food policy form

Please reach out about updates, and we look forward to seeing you this Friday!

Hello Everyone!

Thank you for your work and partnership in putting on our first citywide Day of the Child Multicultural Festival, which showed our unity around children and multiculturalism. Many of the booths reported that they it was a good turn out and that they were surprised that most of their prizes for children were gone.

We would like to have a debriefing about this event and where to go from here on Friday, October 18 at noon (12pm). It will be at Our Place.

On another note, the Day of the Child Festival was featured 5 times on the front page, including Suzanne Kaufman's —illustrator of the All Are Welcome book—visit to Storm Lake in connection to the Day of the Child Event. You will find mentions of the Day of the Child with photos in both the Storm Lake Tribune and Storm Lake Times in yesterday's newspaper.

I am compiling a short video.

Hi Folks,

Thanks for all your work getting ready for today's webinar. Just a couple of reminders:

- I just resent your webinar connection links. Please use these links to connect to today's webinar.
- Please connect no later than 2:45 pm ET. This will allow us time to troubleshoot any connection issues you may experience.
- If possible, dial in using a telephone rather than use your computer's audio. This will make for a better experience for you and for the attendees.
- We have 107 people registered for today's webinar – and more than just stations attending. The attached registration list includes folks from various support organizations, too. Please keep this in mind as you talk about the work you're doing.

Attached is the final slide deck. Thanks for sending in your changes. Talk to you soon!

 Subject: Upcoming Lobbyist Application Training
 To: <susan.ramsey@iptv.org>

The Legislative Services Agency is offering training classes on the Lobbyist Application. The class will cover the Lobbyist Online Filing System and we will also answer questions. We have made several changes to the system recently. It is highly recommended you attend one of the trainings to familiarize yourself with the system before session begins in January.

All classes will cover the same content; you do NOT need to attend more than one training. The instructions for using the application can be found here, <https://www.legis.iowa.gov/docs/publications/HELP/948093.pdf> and is also be available in the portal. These instructions may change before session begins. If so, we will update the documentation in the portal.

We have a video of last year's training posted on the Legislative Website. It is the last link on this page: <https://www.legis.iowa.gov/lobbyist/onlineFiling>. We will be videotaping one of this year's trainings as well and will place it on the website when ready. If you cannot attend training, please look to the documentation provided or the training video for questions.

Recent changes to the system for Lobbyists:

- Client Reports can now be submitted anytime throughout the year. They will still need to cover the same time frame, this year, that is 7/1/19- 6/30/20. They will still be due each year on July 31.
- If you remove a client from your account in the middle of a Fiscal year, you will be given an opportunity to file the client report at the time of client deletion.
- If you are lobbying as a matter of personal interest, when you add the "personal interest" client, the system will automatically file a client report for you on July 1 as $0.00. The report is amendable if needed.
- You can remove someone who added you as an associate.
- You will be notified via email if a newly introduced bill is related to a bill you have declared on and given a link to the new bill. The email will contain a link to declare on the related bill. NOTE: the related bill may not be exactly the same as the bill you previously declared on; it is your responsibility to review the new bill and take the appropriate action.
- Lobbyist Registration for the 88Th GA 2nd Session will open on December 2, 2019.

All classes will be held in the Ola Babcock Miller Building in Room 300 floor. To reserve a seat, please email the Help Desk at helpdesk@legis.iowa.gov or call 515.281.6506. We hope to see you there.

Description: Please join America's Public Television Stations for a webinar to learn more about how stations can access the economic stimulus funding Congress has provided to support remote education services and capabilities.

APTS consultants -- Danica Petroschius of Penn Hill Group, and Phil Cox and Colm O'Comartun of 50 State -- will outline how this funding will flow to the states and how stations can most effectively reach out to state education agencies and local school districts to develop remote learning partnerships.

Hear from Sara Schapiro, Vice President of Education at PBS about how PBS LearningMedia's tools can help support your station's enhanced education services and partnerships with local and state education agencies.

PBS SoCAL KCET and WGBH will highlight how they successfully created partnerships with their local and state education agencies and their tips for how other stations can do the same.

And we'll discuss how the Grant Center for Public Media can help you identify other funding opportunities included in the $2 trillion emergency assistance legislation just enacted.

There will be plenty of time for Q&A, and we hope you will join us for this very timely webinar.

If you missed the webinar, the recording and slides are now available. These will also be archived at PublicMediaLearns.org, the new career growth platform powered by NETA.

We always welcome feedback, so please share your feedback for this webinar through a short survey. So many interesting themes came out of the conversation – producing with online conferencing platforms, town halls, messaging spots for At-Home Learning, and how stations are considering the safety of our production staffs.

I have attached an edited list of the comments that includes links to some of the work you are all doing – enjoy!

Thank you!

Thank you for registering for "WEBINAR: The PBS Editorial Standards – Covering COVID-19".

The COVID-19 pandemic could disrupt American society for months to come. Please join us for a webinar on Thursday, May 7, from 2 p.m. to 3:15 p.m. (EDT) as we share best practices for accurately, fairly, and inclusively covering this all-encompassing story in your communities. Hear from Dana Roberson, executive producer of NewsHour Weekend; Tory Starr, director of social media at WGBH; and Annelise Wunderlich, executive producer of education at KQED.

This webinar is the sixth in a series related to the new PBS Editorial Standards and companion website (on the Hub) which includes a resources page about COVID-19 and a related case study. Previous webinars on topics including Media Law 101 and Preventing Conflicts of Interest can be found on the site. We'll be sure to give you the links to those pages during the webinar.

State of Iowa Mail - FCC EEO Audit Doc: Coping w/COVID: Back to the office? Registration Confirmation

Description: As the coronavirus pandemic forced statewide shutdowns in March, most Central Iowa professional organizations quickly shifted to virtual operations — many within just a few working days. The transition back into the office space will likely be much more gradual, though just as fraught with uncertainty.

With the return to the workplace, businesses will undoubtedly find that a host of new human resource, legal and communication questions are bound to arise. Our expert panel will help digest best practices and considerations as your business makes important decisions about reopening.

While no one has definitive answers, we know that the panelists' discussion and advice will help address some of the questions your organization needs to ask, and perhaps provide a glimpse at best practices at some of Greater Des Moines' leading companies.

We'll discuss questions such as:

- What data sources are you finding to be the most useful as you plan a reopening strategy, and how do you most effectively use them?
- How should you involve your employees in the decision process of who returns to work and who continues to work remotely?
- What are some of the key legal considerations and pitfalls to avoid in planning for your post-COVID staffing?
- What are the long-term ramifications for the workspace culture? How will collaborative workspaces, shared offices and other workplace trends evolve?
- How will our use of technology in the office have to change?
- What are some of the best strategies for effective hiring, onboarding and training going forward?
- What are your best practices for employee communication now?

Panelists:

- Kelsey Knowles - Attorney, Belin McCormick

CPB, Arizona State University Cronkite School of Journalism Announce 2020 Public Media Editorial Integrity and Leadership Fellows

Oct 10, 2019

(WASHINGTON, D.C. and PHOENIX) October 10, 2019 – The Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB) and the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication at Arizona State University are pleased to announce the second round of fellows selected to participate in the Editorial Integrity and Leadership Initiative (EILI). They join the fellows who were announced earlier this year, bringing the total to 100 participants.

The fellows will take part in an intensive program at ASU's Downtown Phoenix campus. The curriculum focuses on editorial integrity, utilizing active learning strategies to reinforce public media's commitment to balance and objectivity, accuracy, fairness and transparency, as well as its unique firewall of independence for journalists.

Participants will receive one-on-one coaching from industry leaders, who have included Jim Amoss, former editor of The Times-Picayune, Alisa Barba, a former editor on NPR's National Desk, and Sandy Rowe, former editor of The Oregonian.

"The response from the first group of fellows to complete the training has been overwhelmingly positive," says Kathy Merritt, Senior Vice President of Journalism and Radio at CPB. "The EILI has helped strengthen them as editorial leaders, with some graduates being elevated to new positions of responsibility. This is the kind of success we hoped for with this program."

EILI is funded by a $1 million grant from CPB and managed by the Cronkite School. It is led by Julia Wallace, the Cronkite School's Frank Russell Chair and the former editor-in-chief at The Atlanta Journal-Constitution.

"We are already seeing tremendous success from our EILI fellows," Wallace said. "Since completing the program, fellows have gone on to take on higher leadership roles and have expressed more confidence in their abilities to implement real change in their newsrooms. The program is rigorous, but it is designed to help strengthen American public media journalism by helping participants develop the skills needed to face the challenges in today's media industry."

The 100 EILI fellows come from 42 states and Washington, D.C., work at public radio and television stations of all sizes, serving rural and urban communities. They include current editors of journalism collaborations, producers of local and national programs, station newsroom leaders, investigative journalists, and up-and-coming reporters who show great potential.

Michelle does this calendar event count as proof of attendance for this webinar? Because Justin organized the event in the Board Room and we viewed through his registration. The only follow up email I have is a recording of the webinar but it includes language that assumes I did not attend because I did not activate my registration and instead watched via Justin's along with the rest of the group in the Board Room.

Let me know if this will or will not suffice for the EEO Audit

Midwest Regional Group Meeting Update

1 message

Molly Veh <molly@mkefilm.org>

To: Molly Veh <molly@mkefilm.org>

Bcc: chuck.czech@iowapbs.org

Hello, Midwest Regional Team --

We are writing to you today to thank you all again for your enthusiasm and support with this joint endeavour. We recognize that the world has shifted in unprecedented and revolutionary ways in the last several weeks, and your continued time and energy is appreciated amidst all of that.

We have a few updates that we would like to share with the group, including a ton of new people! Over the last several weeks, we have had an onslaught of people coming from all over the Midwest, and the country, hoping to join our conversations and our work. And we are excited to have all of you! Thank you to everyone who shared these invites out to others and for those of you who found us of your own accord. Please keep inviting people to these conversations! We are hoping to serve all parts of our region and all of the various makers, orgs, and exhibitors within it.

However, due to this influx, we would like to bump our next meeting to Tuesday, June 30th at 2 PM Central. A calendar invite with all of the Zoom login information will follow this email. You can find our previous meeting notes in our shared Google folder. You're also encouraged to include your personal bio here in an effort to get to know one another a bit better.

For our meeting next Tuesday, we will have a general check in with the entire group, then break out into our subgroups before returning for a quick report back. We wanted to respect everyone's time, and we recognize that trying to add additional meetings to calendars is asking too much of everyone donating their time and energy to this conversation. Our subgroups can be found here. Please sign up for one of the four (note the new addition) before the upcoming meeting. Anyone who does not select a committee will be randomly assigned to a work group for this first call.

There will be cross-over and collaboration between groups, so your selection for this first meeting does not have to be the one you stick with the entire time, but we do ask that you select one that you're excited about and willing to help out. We are still looking for group leaders (or larger group leaders!) to take charge of some of these meetings as well. You can note that in the subgroup document or reach out directly to Andrew, Mimi, or myself, all of whom are CC'd here.

Thank you all again for your work thus far, and welcome to our new team members. We're excited to do this work with you! Have a wonderful week.

Best,

Molly Veh

Hello, Midwest Regional Team --

We hope you are all doing well and staying safe and healthy.

We have a few updates that we would like to share with the group, including even more new people! Thank you to everyone who shared these invites out to others and for those of you who found us of your own accord. Please keep inviting people to these conversations! We are hoping to serve all parts of our region and all of the various makers, orgs, and exhibitors within it.

(For those of you who are new to the group, this is an initiative started by the National Endowment for the Arts and the Sundance Institute to examine collective bargaining, issues facing the film industry -- especially in the wake of COVID-19, and other joint efforts between makers, distributors, exhibitors, and arts organizations. Feel free to ask more questions if you want to hear about what we've been working on!)

We look forward to seeing you all on Tuesday, August 4th at 2 PM CDT/3 PM EDT. A calendar invite with all of the Zoom login information will follow this email. You can find our previous meeting notes in our shared Google folder. You're also encouraged to include your personal bio here in an effort to get to know one another a bit better. Plus, don't forget to update your contact information here.

For our meeting next Tuesday, we will start with breakout sessions for introductions and check ins, followed by a brief overview of our last few meetings (including any work being done or goals being set by the subgroups, which can be found here), and then a broader discussion on reasonable goals and events to accomplish before the end of September. You do not have to come prepared with ideas, but we are looking for any and all ways to activate this group and the film community at large. So be creative!

Thank you all again for your work thus far, and welcome to our new team members. We're excited to do this work with you! Have a wonderful rest of your week.

Best,

Molly Veh

A pandemic, high unemployment, social unrest – and the proliferation of disinformation. We are facing an exceptionally challenging election year. Please join PBS Standards & Practices for a webinar on Wednesday, July 22, from 2 to 3 p.m. (EDT) to learn about best practices for covering the 2020 elections in your communities. We will discuss topics such as empowering your audience to make informed decisions by focusing less on the “horse race” and more on the issues, and the importance of explaining the mechanics of voting amid COVID-19.

Hear from Allysa Adams, executive producer of news and public affairs at ARIZONA PBS; Andrew Batt, executive producer of Iowa Press and Iowa Press Debates at IOWA PBS; and Mishi Ebrahim, senior director of news and public affairs at PBS.

Please register for the webinar here.

This webinar is the seventh in a series related to the new PBS Editorial Standards and companion website, which includes a resources page about political expression and a related case study. Previous webinars on topics including Media Law 101 and Covering COVID-19 can be found here.

During the webinar, you will have an opportunity to ask the speakers questions, which you can submit in advance to standards@pbs.org.

Thanks,

Brian

To:

Good Morning Iowa Rural Development Council Members, Partners, Friends and Summit Attendees!!

It has taken me a few extra days to process all that happened last Thursday and Friday. And to collect the presentations and upload the recordings of the sessions. And to reflect on the gratitude I'm feeling for all who participated in one way or another.

It so happens, Day One of the Rural Summit fell on the 30th anniversary of my arrival in Iowa. So all I've learned from living in a small town since August 1990 - and continue to learn - was on full display!

And it's on display for the world to see at our new IRDC YouTube Channel IRDC! I have uploaded the recordings of all the sessions I'm able (so far). I'll need to work on the 30 Ideas in 30 Minutes videos, but remember it's a work in progress.

Also on display for all to see are the presentations of our break-out panelists. They are up at our Summit page, www.iowardc.org/summit. I've got almost all of them and will continue to work on it!

I'm attaching to this update the lists of attendees. Note: I have included the emails for our sponsors but removed them for everyone else. If you want to connect with someone specifically, let me know! I have ideas for how we can stay in touch between now and next April! I'm happy to hear your ideas, too!

Finally, some thanks!!

To Our Sponsors--

Amy Kuhlers, Secretary
Todd Thorson, Treasurer

Liesl Seabert
Gary Taylor

And to everyone who supports the Summit, the IRDC, our partners and our communities -- including everyone who took time to spend two half-days in front of a computer screen to see how they can make their rural place better...

Thank you!! See you next April, if not sooner!!!
