

Douglas Funeral 1

DJB/MEH 12/1/2021(WedPM/ThursAM)

Friends and family gathered today (Wed) to remember a paramedic who died after sustaining injuries while on duty. A funeral for Dean Douglas was held at the First Assembly of God in North Little Rock. One of those remembering Douglas was Greg Thompson, executive director of Metropolitan Emergency Medical Services, or MEMS (mimz).

News01

0:26

“...fingerprints in that.”

Douglas died last Friday after being injured while responding to a call during the Little Rock Marathon. He was a 28-year veteran of Metropolitan Emergency Medical Services. Dean Douglas was 50-years-old.

Douglas Funeral 2

DJB/MEH 12/1/2021(WedPM/ThursAM)

A 28-year veteran paramedic who died after being injured on duty in Little Rock was laid to rest today (Wed). Friends, family and coworkers gathered at First Assembly of God in North Little Rock to remember Dean Douglas, who died last Friday at the age of 50. Greg Thompson, who heads Metropolitan Emergency Medical Services, said Douglas was truly dedicated to his work.

News02

0:26

“...Dean got it.”

Douglas was a Navy veteran, volunteer firefighter and owner of a comic book store in Jacksonville. He is survived by his parents, his wife Brandy and three children.