

The longest serving state treasurer in Arkansas' history is expected to be the special guest at a "Meet the Democratic Candidates" event this weekend. KASU's Brandon Tabor has more.

NEWS

0:36

SOC

A news release says former Democratic gubernatorial candidate Jimmie Lou Fisher will speak at the free event at the Paragould Community Center on Saturday morning at 11.

The event will also feature Dr. Chris Jones and James Russell, who are vying for the Democratic nomination for governor and a chance to face lone Republican candidate Sarah Huckabee Sanders in November.

Other Democratic candidates at the event include lieutenant gubernatorial candidate Kelly Krout; state Attorney General candidate Jesse Gibson; U.S. Senate candidates Dan Witfield and Natalie James; and state land commissioner candidate Darlene Gaines.

I'm Brandon Tabor.